LET IT PASS. Be not swift to take offence. Let it pass! Anger is a foe to sense. Let it pass! Brood not darkly o'er a wrong...

ADA'S WISHBONE.

A Thanksgiving Story. BY MRS. L. S. GOODWIN.

Three persons, on a raw November evening, were going down the street together. Mr. Dean was one; his daughter Adalaide, nine years old, another; and the third, unseen by the child and almost a stranger to the man...

"Only look in, father—see how fat they be? Pick up a turkey, do." "To poor," muttered her father. "All the money I've got 'wouldn't buy so much as a gizzard."

"With that turned to go, and Conscience taking the first opportunity for vengeance smote the man such a blow in the face that he stumbled, struck the pane with his elbow and broke it in with a crash."

man in his white frock dabbled with grease. "I won't be hard on a man at Thanksgiving time, especially a man from whom no damage can be got. You needn't look up the poor wretch on my account, Mr. Officer."

It was the season of the year, I think, which had stimulated Conscience to set up her almost hopeless claims once more. On the Thanksgiving Day of which this was the tenth anniversary Mr. Dean had married his young and pretty wife; and on the following Thanksgiving Day their daughter Adalaide had been born to them.

The child waited until seeing her light fire was going out, then crept close beside her father and ventured the question. "Do you want me to go out and get something for supper, father?"

"Please, Mrs. Smith," said Adalaide, "what did Mr. Smith bring in a little while ago in that covered basket?" "No, dear, a pair of chickens," was the answer.

"Mrs. Smith, when they're cooked, will you give me a wishbone? I want to wish something and see if I'm to have my wish." [Concluded next week.]

ME TOO!

MANY years ago, the streets of Newburyport, Massachusetts, resounded with the voice of a pretty Indian girl who uttered her sweet notes in plaintive, plaintive strains as follows: "Come buy my baskets, Come, all come; gentlemen and Ladies, You who have money, please let me have some. Come buy my nice baskets, and let me go home."

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES has been before the world since 1865, was invented by Mr. James I. Fellows, of St. John, N. B., has been introduced over a large amount of territory by expensive advertising and wherever known. Has been tried by the leading physicians in every city where introduced, and pronounced "A Tonic far surpassing any Composition hitherto used in Medicine."

and other diseases developed by loss of nervous power and muscular relaxation. It has obtained great favor and commendation in curing CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, DYSPEPSIA, HEART DISEASE, DEBILITY and PROSTRATION.

THE PUBLIC ARE CAUTIONED TO ASK FOR FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES, AND TAKE NO OTHER. THE NAME OF THE INVENTOR, JAMES I. FELLOWS, IS WRITTEN OBVIOUSLY ACROSS THE INSIDE LABEL AND THE NAME FELLOWS & CO. IS BLOWN UPON THE BOTTLE.

IMPROVED DIGESTION. liberal assimilation, and renewed vitality to the blood, are followed by tone to the nerves, and strength to the muscles, so that the heart, lungs, and even the stomach, which receive the first impulse from the system, are strengthened more and more.

GREEN OLD AGE, and been subject to the tortures of a dyspeptic life, in consequence of the use of the syrup, that it has not only removed the disease, but secured to their advanced years comforts unknown since their youth, and so the

ENDLESS CHAIN of fond effects is formed by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and we are safe in saying, from a long experience in medicine, that these effects are not possessed by any other combination, nor can it be improved upon, as the following summary will show:

SUSTAIN THE SYSTEM until it reaches the age allotted to man by a beneficent Creator. In cases adhere strictly to the directions, use the food, clothing, &c., as directed, reject alcoholic stimulants and liquids which ferment easily, also tobacco and coffee, reside in a elevated ground if possible, and take the syrup regularly in the prescribed dose.

Horace Waters, 481 Broadway, is famed for the excellence of his Pianos and Organs—Benson Post.

Musical Dealers.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted all his capital and attention to the manufacture of Pianos, Melodions and Organs. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several of our Exhibitions. He has a large stock of instruments on hand, and is prepared to receive orders for the present day, who are attracted, if not convinced, by the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook a modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments have earned a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianos for sale in our residence, where it has stood for years, of which we have never had occasion to be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability—more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the said piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Strong endorsement of world-wide fame.—Home Journal. June 9.
