RIVER DU LOUP RAILWAY.—The Colonial Farmer says the Directors of the New Brunswick Railway Company have held two meetings lately, but a decision as to the commencement of operations will not be reached until the meeting of Directors, which is to be held on the 17th inst.

[From the Toronto Globe.]

OTTAWA.

It is reported that Sir John A. Macdonald gave Mr. Langevin a snubbing for the speech he made at Quebec in relation to the Washington Treaty. Sir John it is said felt very much annoyed because Mr. Langevin forestalled him without any authorization.

Wolves are very plentiful in the Lievres country, near Ottawa. Last week over 50 sheep were killed, and many German settlers have lost young cattle, besides their sheep. The place where the wolves have been commmitting their depredations is not more than forty miles from the city, and as long as deer frequent that part of the country, wolves will be plentiful.

Sir John A. Macdonald had interviews to-day with the Hon. Mr. Trutch, from British Columbia, and Mr. John O'Connor, M. P. Rumor has it that Mr. Trutch received the offer of a seat in the Cabinet in place of Mr. Tilley, who is again accredited with the appointment of the Lieutenant-Governorship of British Columbia.

There is a report to-day that Hon. Mr. Mitchell is about to retire from the Cabinet.

Mrs. McLean and niece, people in humble life, were drowned yesterday by falling off a stop log above the Rideau Falls.

Two children of Mrs. Roscoe's were drowned on Saturday at Sparks' mill. While in a boat they were drawn by the current into the mill sluice.

It is said the Hon. J. H. Gray, M. P., is to be appointed Law Clerk of the House of Commons, in place of Mr. Wickstead, to be superannuated.

THE WASHINGTON TREATY IN ENGLAND.

The Leader of Toronto of the 30th ult. publishes a summarised report of the speeches delivered in the House of Lords on the 12th ult., on Lord Russell's motion condemnatory of the Washington Treaty. In its comments, the Leader says:

Any one who reads these speeches must see how strongly impressed the House of Lords was with the conviction that, though the treaty is not all that could be desired—though, perhaps, it does not do England or Canada full justice—its acceptance is an absolute necessity of the times. Lord Granville expressed regret that the justice of Canada's demands in respect of the Fenian claims was not admitted, and others of the speakers confessed to entertaining similar views, but when it came to a question of accepting or rejecting Earl Russell's motion, there was not a single member of the House who stood up for its acceptance.

What is true of England will be also true of Canada. The Canadian Government has done well to represent to the Imperial Cabinet that the treaty is not as satisfactory as our people could desire; and, as Earl Granville says, that the British Government has "taken upon themselves the whole responsibilty" in connection with the Fenian claims—and on other points, too, we have no doubt—there will be good ground for a demand upon England that will compensate for the sacrifice made in the interest of the empire, which nothing in her own condition or circumstances would warrant or justify. To our mind the question now, so far as Canada is concerned, resolves itself into the best arrangement possible between Great Britain and Canada, and the final acceptance of the treaty. Canada's acceptance covers essential features of the treaty. The settlement which England desi res with the United States would not be worth the trouble and cost of Commission if the Canadian questions involved were to be allowed to remain in their present unsettled and uncertain state. We take it, therefore, to be placed beyond all doubt that the Ottawa Government, having made their protest in Downing Street—and probably made better terms, with England—will find itself compelled to recommend the acceptance of the treaty by Parliament; and, we very much doubt if, in such case, there will be any one found to counsel its rejection.

How far the Leader's impressions regarding "better terms" with England are reliable we have no means of knowing; but it is quite possible, that under all the circumstances the British Government may be disposed to listen favorably to an appeal from Ottawa and apply the healing balm.—ED. CHRIS. VIS.

POWER OF SPEAKING RESTORED.

NEWASH, ONTARIO, D. C., March 30, 1870.

MR. FELLOWS:

Sir,—Some two months ago my son lost his voice. I became very anxious about him. None of the physicians could do him any good. Having heard of your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, I obtained a bottle: strange to say, my son's voice was restored about two hours after taking the second dose.

You are at liberty to publish this for the benefit of other sufferers. JONAS FOTHEBINGILL.

A fact worth remembering—Five cents worth of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, given to a horse twice a week, will save double that amount in grain, and the horse will be fatter, sleaker, and every way worth more money than though he did not have them.

Married ladies, under all circumstances, will find Parson's Purgative Pills safe; and, in small doses, a mild cathartic. They cause no griping pains or cramp.

In all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, so prevalent in this country, nothing so speedily relieves or so certainly cures as that matchless remedy, Dr. Wilson's Pulmonary Cherry Balsam. These disorders are too often neglected at the commencement, and are too injudiciously treated; and before the Balsam is resorted to, the Lungs are completely ulcerated. Of one thing be sure, whatever the condition of the patient, Dr. Wilson's Balsam will restore if recovery be possible. It will retard the alarming cough until nature consummates the cure. By perseverance in obstinate cases, the cough becomes gradually subdued, and the patient is restored to his natural strength.

An occasional dose of Dr. Wilson's Anti-Bilious and Preserving Pills stimulates the stomach and bowels into a healthy action, restores the appetite and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. A column of our paper could be filled with certificates of their remarkable cures but such cases are known in every nighborhood were the Pills are sold.

Blood spavins may be effectually cured by Dr. Dow's Sturgeon Oil Liniment. Wet a bandage with the Liniment, and apply it twice a day, and they will gradually disappear.

By those who have the management of horses, Clark's Derby Condition Powders, whereever known are preferred to all other articles of the kind.

PRICE & SON'S STANDARD MEDICINES.—Paincuremata," "Compound Elder and Alder Salve." Vegetable Pills, Columbia Bitters, are on sale by all dealers in Medicines as also is PRICE & SON'S MAGIC CEMENT.

NEWS OF DR. LIVINGSTONE.—The following interesting particulars regarding Dr. Livingstone, are contained in letters received on the 19th of June from Dr. Kirk by Miss Livingstone, daughter of the celebrated traveller, dated Zanzibar, April 30, 1871:—I will tell you that by the last news of the Arabs he had gone to a place called Manema which is on the the other side of Tanganyika Lake; but this place you will not find on any map. At Ujiji he made friends with some Arabs who I hear have been very kind to him, and in their company visited Manema, which is about 200 miles west of the lake, and they must have crossed it in punts or canoes, or what we call dhows. He and his Arab friends got to Manema, and they (the Arabs) made a good business in ivory. I suppose the doctor did what he went for and will tell us some day what he saw; but on his way back he got—well he seems to have been hard up, as I should have said when out of cash and detained for remittances. Luckily the means were at hand and the man I sent to Ujiji to help him has sent off all he needs, and there will still be a good stare on his return to Ujiji. The expense and loss in getting things so far into a savage land are great, and at a cholera time it was well we got anything up at all, so that he will never receive the whole of what I sent and Mr.——paid for. A second supply has been forwarded, but I shan't be sorry if the Doctor passes it on the way. I should say the parcel of clothing and boots was sent off long ago.
