They withdrew their guns, however, Boston parties have secured leases last night. They had twelve guns in the action yesterday. The force at my disposal this morning was the first division and the English cavalry, with 16 guns. My intention was to pivot on my left at the dam we took yesterday, and swing round my right to take the enemy's position in flank and drive them into the fresh water canal, sending the cavalry completely round their position to occupy the railway in their rear and, if possible, capture their engines and rolling stock. This operation was carried out. All the heavy work devolved on the cavalry and artillery, which were well handled by Maj. Gen. She is pronounced by the road carriages laden with provisions cognoscenti to be the handsomest and a large quantity of ammunition and rifles. Notwithstanding our horses being unfit for heavy work and the long march which the reinforcements I ordered yesterday had to make, I have every reason to be satisfied with what has been done. Although I did not intend advancing beyond Mahutma for some days, such has been the success of the cavalry to-day that I intend to occupy Kassas, in lock of fresh water canal. O'Brien, who hails from Milford, It is about two and a half miles west was badly stabled in the back at of Meshameh station, and its position will secure to us a safe passage across the desert lying between Ismailia and the cultivated land of the Delta.
