Aews Summary.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Sir Leonard Tilley will leave Ottawa early this week, reaching St. John on Thursday.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Minister of Customs left Ottawa on Saturday night for Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. He will visit P. E. Island during his maritime tour. Mrs. Bowell being already in Charlottetown. The dates of his arrival in St. John is not yet fixed. Hon. Mr. Baby accompanies him.

Active operations are in progress at the Iron Works, Upper Woodstock. Many of the old build ags are being torn down to be repaired by new ones. A large number of men are employed under the superintendance of Thos. Watson, Esq., C. E., a gentleman thoroughly com-

Potato bugs have put in a general appearance in Queens County, but as yet have done comparatively little damage. Though all the farmers have a few of them they are not so numerous and troublesome as they are further up the river. Through fear of them the farmers have planted fewer potatoes this year than heretofore. "Picking" has now become a recognized part of the farm work.

Manitoba is taking steps to have another exhibit of its products in Ontario this year. The ed by courts on the second of July. province has given a grant of $500 for that purpose, and this sum is to be supplemented by a grant from the Agricultural Association. Last year's exhibit was successful, but it is believed that of this year will be much more creditable to the prairie Province.

A company has been formed to manufacture locomotives, etc., at the iron mines near Ottawa.

Miss Teresa J. Costigan, daughter of John Costigan, Esq., M. P., won the Governor General's medal at the Notre Dame, Convent school on the 14th of June. She also won a series of first class or other very high prizes in English. French, fancy work, etc.

Reports from all parts of Ontario say crops were never in a more encouraging condition.

The Toronte Orangemen will picnic at Hamil ton on the 12th in lieu of the annual parade.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

The exports of breadstuffs from the United States to foreign countries for the eleven months of the fiscal year ended with May reach the astonishing sum of (in round figures) $247,945,000. against $182,975,000 for the corresponding period of the Urevious year. Ten years ago the exports of the same kind for the same period, only reached $72,250,933. That was the report for 1870. The advance since then has been constant.

A despatch on the 1st of July says: Closing of Jesuite chapel in the Rue Sevres with the sacrament left inside is regarded as a great desecration by Catholics. The persons arrested in the street, including an ex-prefect, a writer on the journal La Justice, and some students, were all released after examination.

A London despatch, July 1 says: A semi-official note sent by the French Government to journals, announcing that execution of anti-Jesuite decrees has not led to disturbance in any part of France and that effect had only to be given yesterday to decrees affecting Jesuits and concludes as follows: "Government knows its duty and will perform it with firmness." A Paris despatch says that the number of persons expelled from Jesuit Chapels here yesterday morning was 13, including one Englishman and one Russian. Second Jesuit establishment, that of German Jesuit, is at present not interfered with. At Laval several English Jesuits called on a crowd of spectators to witness their rights being violated.

A Paris despatch on the 1st says that Constans, Minister of Interior and worship, received a letter threatening him with assassination in name of the Sacred Heart.

A Paris despatch July 1 says: The Madrid papers of every shade blame, in their editorial articles to-day, the decrees against the religious orders in France. Numerous petitions of different orders of monks, nuns and Jesuits colleges asking permission to settle in Spain have been granted. The Carmelites, Dominicans, Premontres. Chartreux and Jesuits have already organ of Castelar, advise the French Republicans to imitate the toleration and prudence of the American Republic. Houses and large buildings are in many towns being placed at the disposal of the Jesuits and monks. There already exist in Spain eight Jesuit colleges which authorizes the establishment of novitiates in founder's monestary at Loyola."

> It is understood that the Jesuits intend to demand their immediate restoration to the premises from which they have been expelled. They also demand the unsealing of the doors of their chapels, and purpose basing legal action on their rights as private citizens and proprietors | Express from Quebec, and of the houses they occupied. Over ten thousand cards was left yesterday at the college in Rue de Sevres. The Dominicans and other unauthorized religious orders in Paris have not yet been disturbed. The fact that the Catholic Belgian government has been compelled to suspend diplomatic relations with Rome deprives the Jesuits of much of the sympathy they would otherwise have had here.

London, July 1.—Gladstone, replying to Philip Callon, said that in view of what was happening in some parts of Ireland, he would not consider the present a fitting time to allow Condon, Clarke, Luby, O'Dovovan Rossa and other Fenian prisoners to return from exile. Callan. in his question, pointed out amnesty granted to Communists in France, and to treatment of accessionists in United States.

A despatch from Minneapolis, Minn., July 1. sends the following:—This morning a Minnetonka pleasure steamer, Mary, while lying at the wharf of St. Louis hotel exploded her boiler, wrecking boat which sunk immediately.

There were 24 prostrations and 15 deaths in New York on Wednesday.
