

POETRY.

THE BEAUTIFUL LAND AND ITS SENTRY GRIM.

There is a land immortal, The beautiful of lands; Beside its ancient portal A sentry grimly stands.

That glorious land is Heaven, And death the sentry grim; The Lord thereof hath given The opening keys to him;

Though dark and drear the passage That leadeth to the gate, Yet grace attends the message To souls that watch and wait;

Their sighs are lost in singing; They're blessed in their tears; Their journey heavenward winging, They leave on earth their fears.

MOTHERS.

It is true that the sacrifices you make for the world will be little known by it—men govern and earn the glory; and the thousand watchful nights and sacrifices, by which a mother purchases a hero, or a poet, for the state, are forgotten, not once counted; for the mothers themselves do not count them; and so one century after another, do mothers unnamed and unthanked, send forth the arrows, the suns, the storm-birds, and the nightingales of time!

What a Rumseller Did.

A young man came daily to the bar for intoxicating drink and a half a dozen cigars, which, as he turned away, he gave to his friend. He was tall and handsome, with a bright eye and cheerful look. Sometimes, as he approached early in the morning, his look was sad. A haggard countenance was occasionally upon him but one drink followed by another, changed all; and soon, the loud laugh and the merry song led the vendor to feel that he was his greatest benefactor.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

CURE OF ULCERS WHERE THERE EXISTED DISEASED BONE.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. James Wetmore, Hampton, New Brunswick, dated Feb. 10, 1847. To Messrs. Peters & Tilley.

GENTLEMEN—I feel it is but due to Professor Holloway to inform you, as his Agents for this Province, of a remarkable cure performed upon my son. He had been afflicted with ulcers on his limbs and body for more than three years, from which small pieces of bone had been removed. I tried several medical men in St. John, but all to no purpose. I was then induced to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which made a complete cure; several months have since elapsed, but there is not the slightest appearance of the cure not being the most complete.

CURE OF A BAD LEG OF 30 YEARS STANDING.

June 7, 1847. "I, George Bourne, Butcher, of Stockton-upon-Tees, do hereby certify that my wife had a bad leg for thirty years, by the bursting of a vein, her sufferings were intense, she had been under the care of most of the eminent medical men in the neighbourhood, but to no purpose, and was afterwards perfectly cured in eight weeks by Holloway's Pills and Ointment." [Signed] GEORGE BOURNE.

THE TESTIMONY OF A PHYSICIAN IN THE CURE OF SKIN DISEASES.

Copy of a letter from W. E. Powell, M. D., 16, Blessington Street, Dublin, dated Feb. 9, 1847. To Professor Holloway. DEAR SIR—Having devoted my attention for some years to cutaneous or skin diseases, I think it but right to inform you that I have in various cases recommended the use of your Pills and Ointment, and invariably found them to have the most perfect effect in removing those diseases.

The 'Mofussilite' Newspaper, published at Meerat, has, on the 15th October, 1847, copied an article from the 'Benares Recorder,' of which the following is an extract:—

"The Prince of Maharajah Bissonath Singh, who was temporarily residing at Chittercote, was suddenly taken ill with Spasmodic Colic, and during his illness his Highness often asked for Holloway's Pills and Ointment, as he had heard much of their virtues, but none could be obtained in the neighbourhood, and Professor Holloway, no doubt, unfortunately loses a certificate which would have graced and dignified his list of cures."

The native Princes are now using Holloway's celebrated Pills and Ointment, in preference to every other medicine, they being so wonderfully efficacious in the cure of diseases in India.

CURES OF FISTULOUS SORES AND PLEURISY.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Robert Calvert, Chemist, Stokesley, dated Sept. 3, 1847. To Professor Holloway.

SIR—Mr. Thompson, National Schoolmaster of this town, desires me to send you the particulars of his son, who had been bad for three years and a half, and has received the greatest benefit by the use of your Pills and Ointment. He is of a scrofulous constitution: a pleurisy had left a large collection of matter in the chest; this eventually formed a passage through the wales of the chest, and ended in three fistulous sores, which discharged large quantities of pus, when he was induced to try your Pills and Ointment; at this date he was apparently in a dying condition—the stomach rejected everything it took. Your Pills and Ointment had the effect of completely curing both the cough and stomach affections; his strength and flesh are also restored, his appetite keen, and digestion good.—There is every prospect that a little further continuance of your medicines will finish the cure.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—Bad legs, bad breasts, burns, bunions, bite of Moschetoes and Sand-flies, Coco-bay, Chiego-scot, chilblains, chapped hands, corns (soft), cancers, contracted and stiff joints, elephantiasis, fistulae, gout, glandular swellings, lumbago, piles, rheumatism, scalds, sore nipples, sore throats, skin diseases, scurvy, sore heads, tumours, ulcers, wounds, yaws.

Sold at the Establishment of Professor Holloway, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and by most all respectable Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, at the following prices:—1s. 1/2d., 2s. 6d., 4s. 6d., 11s., 22, and 33s. each Box. There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

A CARD.

The Proprietors in introducing this establishment to the notice of the Clergy, Gentry, and the Public of Saint John and the Province of New Brunswick, feel that they have removed an inconvenience long and greatly felt in this part of America, namely, the want of a CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT sufficiently extensive to meet the varied taste and wants of an opulent and respectable community. It has often been justly remarked that St. John, notwithstanding its increasing population and advancement in almost every branch of business, was far behind other cities and towns in America, in FASHIONABLE TAILORING, and Ready Made Clothing Establishments; and that to such an extent was this deficiency felt that a great number of Gentlemen, who, although anxious to encourage trade at home, were obliged to send to the Old Country in order to get fashionable well-made Clothes, which in Saint John were difficult to obtain. Under these circumstances, the Proprietors have been encouraged to commence this business, and have spared neither labour nor expense to make their establishment, in every department, commensurate with the want of the public, and worthy of their support, which shall be their constant study to merit.

The system upon which we conduct our business is exclusively, for Ready Money, being the only system upon which any establishment can offer decided advantages to the public, the truth of which is becoming more apparent every day.
