History of the Baptist Denomination in America and other parts of the World.

BY DAVID BENEDICT.

This Work, the result of twenty-five years' labor on the part of the author, is the only complete history of the Denomination ever published. It consists of three general divisions, viz:

1. FOREIGN BAPTIST.
2. BAPTIST AUTHORS.
3. AMERICAN BAPTISTS.

It contains about 1,000 royal octavo pages of closely printed matter, and is embellished with fine steel Engravings.

RECOMMENDATIONS.—From William R. Williams, D. D. The new edition of the history of the Baptists, by the Rev. Mr. Benedict, is, to a great extent, independent of his earlier volumes, and seems to the subscriber a work of much value. He has made large extracts from the history of the Mennonite Martyrs. From the great variety of the work which furnished these, the extracts will, to our churches, have, besides their own great intrinsic interest, the additional charm of novelty. As to the Baptists of the United States, he has with laborious fidelity compiled a mass of historical and statistic intelligence, no where else to be found; and which would, in the judgment of the subscriber, make his volume almost indispensable to every one of our Pastors, and abundantly deserving of the patronage and study of our churches.

WILLIAM R. WILLIAMS.

New York, Feb. 17th, 1848.

From Spencer H. Cone, D. D. From an examination of the work, I cordially unite in the above commendation of Benedict's History of the Baptists.

THE BAPTIST LIBRARY.

A RE-PUBLICATION OF STANDARD BAPTIST WORKS, edited by C. G. Somers, W. R. Williams, and L. L. Hill. One vol., royal octavo, bound in uniform style with the History, and consisting of over 1,300 pages.

"The Library is a deservedly popular work; for it is a choice selection from pious and talented productions. The writings of such men need no encomium. Most of them have long been favourably known. They have stood the test of time. It contains some rare and costly works; some of them are little known, yet highly prized by all who have enjoyed the privilege of perusing them. All will see that the Library renders many good works accessible to thousands, who were before debarred this luxury. Here the humblest Christian may, if he chooses, secure standard authors for a trifle; and bless himself with a fund of useful reading, unsurpassed by any similar compilation in christendom. We cordially approve this publication. It merits a liberal patronage."

SPLENDID PREMIUM PLATES

FOR THE

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE COLUMBIAN MAGAZINE. Sent by Mail to any part of the United States, FREE OF POSTAGE.

THE COLUMBIAN MAGAZINE, for 1848, edited by JOHN INMAN and ROBERT A. WEST. A repository of the choicest American Literature, entirely original, and of the most costly original Embellishments.

THE COLUMBIAN MAGAZINE enters upon a new year with prospects increasingly bright and promising. It has attained a proud position in the public estimation. The press universally, and with a generous kindness which the Proprietor gratefully acknowledges, has borne testimony to the superiority of its literature and the profusion and elegance of its embellishments, while its immense and constantly increasing circulation shows, that the press has but uttered the general sentiment, and affords such agreeable evidence that it has met the expectation of all, that it seems to the Publisher almost unnecessary to speak of the future.

It cannot be necessary to say much of the conduct of the literary department of the Columbian. The gentlemen who have so long and satisfactorily discharged that duty, continue their efficient services, and the Publisher is happy to announce that he has made arrangements with several of the most distinguished writers in this country, whose regular contributions will enrich the Magazine, while, as heretofore, the merit of an article, quite as much as the fame of its writer, will be the passport to its pages. Elevated sentiment and pure morality will distinguish all the literature of the Columbian Magazine.

The paper on which the Columbian will hereafter be printed, is manufactured expressly for the purpose, by one of the largest and most highly esteemed makers in the Union, and the typography will be of proportionate neatness and elegance.

The Publisher respectfully solicits from authors, artists, subscribers and agents, a continuance of the confidence hitherto so generously awarded the Magazine. As an earnest of the liberality with which he intends to conduct that department of the work, he has prepared, at a large outlay, a magnificent full length Portrait of Washington, price two dollars, in stipple and mezzotint, which will be presented, gratis, free of postage, to every yearly subscriber to the Columbian Magazine, who will send to the Publisher $3 in advance, postage paid. It is an engraving of such superior merit, and the subject is of such profound and abiding interest, that he cannot doubt that the gift will highly gratify the receiver, and largely swell the list of his subscribers. He annexes, also, the following unusually liberal terms of publication, it being understood that the subscriptions are cash:—

For $3, the Magazine and Engraving of Washington.

For $5, two copies of the Magazine, and the Engraving with each.

The great National Picture of the Declaration of Independence, just published. This picture, which was painted by Col. Trumbull for the Rotunda at Washington, and originally engraved on copper by A. B. Durand, has been re-engraved on steel, and is the result of two years' labor. It contains portraits of all the signers, and should be the Republican Emblem in the home of every American citizen. The size of the engraving is 21 by 31 inches; it is printed on the best plate paper, 28 by 38 inches. Price, $3.

Every person who will send to the Publisher of the Columbian $4, post paid, shall receive a copy of this Engraving and a copy of the Magazine for one year—the Engraving free of Postage. For $5, the Magazine, Engraving of Washington, and Declaration of Independence.
