

son to the infant son of Lord and Lady Elgin, on whom she requests may be conferred the baptismal names of Alexander Victor.

The same paper mentions a circumstance, which we are unwilling to credit. It is, that Lady Elgin will be compelled to discontinue her daily drives round the Mountain, she having been insulted on two different occasions by ruffians, in the garb of gentlemen, who followed her carriage, cracking their whips, and hooting after her.—Quebec Gazette.

SAINT JOHN GRAMMAR SCHOOL.—The Semi-Annual Visitation and Examination took place last Friday, in presence of His Worship the Mayor, His Honor the Recorder, and John H. Gray, Esq., A. M., Members of the Board; the Rev. Alexander Stewart, A. B., the Rev. Richard Wiggins, A. M., the Rev. Mr. Thomson, Robert Parker, Jr. Esq., Barrister at Law, and William H. Street, Esq. The President and several Directors and other Gentlemen were prevented from attending by absence from the City, on business of importance.

The Examination in the Classical and Mathematical Departments was conducted and thoroughly gone into by the Rev. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Gray, who were assisted occasionally by Rev. Mr. Wiggins and Mr. Parker.

At the close, Mr. Gray addressed the Scholars, assuring them that it gave the Examiners and Gentlemen present, the greatest pleasure to announce to them that the Examination, in all the departments, was highly satisfactory, and that Prizes would be bestowed on the most meritorious in the several Latin and Greek Classes, in the adjudication of which the assistance of the Principal of the School would be taken. This was accordingly done on Saturday; on which day the Pupils again assembled in the School Room, where the Prizes were distributed, as follows:—

To George James Chubb, of the 1st Greek and 1st Latin Class, who was examined in Sophocles and Tacitus.
Samuel Bayard, of the 2d Greek and 3d Latin Class.
Robert G. Crozier, of the 2d Greek and 2d Latin Class.
Douglas W. Raymond, of 3d Greek and 3d Latin Class.
James MacShaue, of the 3d Latin Class.
Robert W. Boyle, of the 4th Latin Class.
Frederick H. Fowler, of the 4th Latin Class.
George F. Matthew, of the 5th Latin Class.
Charles R. Matthew, of the 6th Latin Class.
George H. Connell, of the 7th Latin Class.
William Jarvis, of the 8th Latin Class.
A. Chipman Smith, of the 9th Latin Class.
Charles Yeats, of the 10th Latin Class.

To the above, the Principal has added the following young gentlemen, who in point of attainment, diligence in the preparation of their Classical and Mathematical lessons, and regularity of attendance, fell but little, if any thing, short of them:—John S. Harrison and Gilbert D. Waterbury, of the 3d Greek and 2d Latin Class; John C. Joubert, Charles W. Brown, and Thomas M. Drummond, of the 4th Latin Class; Robert Reid and Donald A. Cameron, of the 5th Latin Class; George Allison, of the 6th, and John K. Kirk and John D. Wilmut, of the 7th Latin Class.—Observer.

WESLEYAN ACADEMY.—The annual Examination of the Wesleyan Academy at Mount Allison, Sackville, took place on the 18th, 19th, and 20th June, in the large Lecture Room of the Institution. The editor of the Fredericton Reporter, who was present, gives an interesting account of the proceedings. On the 18th and 19th, the several classes underwent a very satisfactory examination in their respective branches of study; and on the 20th the exercises were closed as follows:—

On Wednesday the annual exhibition which closes the course of examination took place at 9 o'clock in the forenoon. About 20 of the Students took part in Declamation, Dialogues, &c., in English, French, and Latin, and afforded much satisfaction to the large and respectable audience which the spacious Lecture Room was literally crowded; after which the Editor of this Paper (the Reporter) read a miniature Epic Poem, illustrative of Indian manners and character at the period of the first European settlement of this Province. The Rev. Richard Knight, Chairman of the New Brunswick District, then read a highly excellent Address on the advantages resulting from a well-directed system of Education; after which the Principal distributed testimonials of ability and character to several young gentlemen who were about to quit the Institution, and closed with an impressive Valedictory Address, which was listened to with the deepest attention.

Having once before alluded to the admirable discipline and superior accommodations maintained in the Academy, we need now only add, that it has well sustained its character since our first visit in 1845. The Academy is provided with a collection of chemical tests, a collection of well assorted Philosophical and Astronomical Apparatus, and a good Museum, and a large and well-selected Library, including the whole, or a part of the Sacred Scriptures, in no less than fifty-four different languages.

We beg to acquaint our commercial friends that in pursuance of directions received by the Controller of Customs and Navigation Laws at this port, a report in duplicate of all vessels arriving here will be required at his Office after the 5th inst., with the exception of those vessels arriving from out-ports in Nova Scotia and this Province. He will also require, in pursuance of the Registry Act, that the name of every vessel and the port to which she belongs shall be painted in large and legible letters on the stern, and that the tonnage shall be carved on the main beam of the vessel.—*N. ACCIDENT ON THE RIVER.—As the steamer St. John was on her downward trip on Saturday night last, she ran into and sunk a Woodboat, in which were four men, all of whom were saved. The accident happened in that part of the river known as the Long Reach. The St. John came through the Falls on Sunday morning, for the purpose of repairing the damage she sustained, but which we understand is not very serious.—Id.

We understand that the Messrs. King have been authorised to bring the English Express Mails from Halifax. But in order to be consistent with our backward habits, the Express must be brought by the longest route that can be found, occupying nearly twice the time that the shorter route would require!—News.

NEW YORK, June 29.

LATE FROM CALIFORNIA.—The mail by the Clyde at Mobile, has arrived.

The report of the troubles between Gen. Smith and his command and the people is confirmed. The idea of military rule is repulsed, most decidedly. Gen. Smith and a few of his troops have been driven on board the vessels of war in port, and the remainder have fled to the mines.

In consequence of the hostility of the people, and the impossibility of doing anything by force, Gen. Smith had determined to return home by the first opportunity.

San Francisco was completely in the hands of rowdies. The streets exhibited one continued scene of fighting. All peaceably disposed persons were in favor of Gen. Smith, and it was the universal opinion that he is not half sustained by the Home Government.

Affairs at the upper mines were in a most deplorable state. Several attacks had been made upon the miners by the Indians. The latter are represented as committing the most daring outrages, butchering all who come within their reach.

Many of the diggers were preparing to return, some of whom had been disappointed in their search for gold, and were desirous of turning their attention to other pursuits.

At the mines one half were Americans, one quarter Californians, and the remainder principally Peruvians and Chilians. The general idea among the Americans was that no foreigners should be allowed to dig gold.

It was almost certain that difficulties resulting in bloodshed would soon occur. The hatred between the Americans and foreigners was most intense.

The average sum collected at the mines does not exceed five dollars per day; and it is generally believed that he will be the luckiest man who returns home with good health. The expenses of living are enormous.—Sun.
