LIFE'S HARVEST.

BY WM. EDWARD KNOWLES.

Ho, reaper of Life's Harvest,
Why stand with rusted blade,
Until the night draws round thee,
And day begins to fade?
Why stand ye idle, waiting
For reapers more to come!
The golden morn is passing,
Why sit ye idle, dumb!
Thrust in your sharpened sickle,
And gather in the grain,
The night is fast approaching
And soon will come again.

Thy Master calls for reapers,
And shall he call in vain?—
Shall sheaves lie there ungathered,
And waste upon the plain?
Come down from hill and mountain,
In morning's ruddy glow,
Nor wait until the dial
Points to the noon below;
And come with the strong sinew,
Nor faint in heat or cold;
And pause not till the evening
Draws round its wealth of gold.

And mount the crumbling watch-tower,
And herald on the truth;
Preach out the golden precepts,
To wild and wayward youth;
Mount up the heights of Wisdom,
And crush each error low;
Keep back no words of knowledge
That human hearts should know.
Be faithful to thy mission,
In service of thy Lord,
And then a golden chaplet
Shall be thy just reward.

From the N. O. Picayune.

The Death of Children.

The consolations of sympathy and the condolence of friendship can but partially reach, much less heal, the heart-wounds of a mother bereaved of her offspring. No human affections cling with such tenacity to the object of their embrace as the love of a mother to the person and memory of her children. Time, which distills the dews of oblivion upon so many of the afflictions and troubles of life, fails to bring the relief of forgetfulness. The world with its pleasures and abstractions, resigns the offices of consolation and confesses its inadequacy to mitigate the severities of such a trial. All that is left her who is doomed to drink this cup is to turn to religion and seek in revelation the only comfort that can be hoped for. In the death of children there is much consolation in the thought that there is a blissful immortality, and that, for themselves, it is infinitely better to depart and be with Christ.

These thoughts were suggested by the death of a little Belle, a sweet child of less than two years of age. Whilst her parents feared and expected the death of an older child, a son, she was taken. Ministering angels carried her away to their bright home and left her invalid brother behind. "The last was first, and the first shall be last." But two others had gone before, and now in triune harmony they lift together anthems of praise with all the heavenly choir.

How inscrutable are the ways of God! especially to the bereaved! How difficult for such to read the severe lessons of an afflictive providence? But these have a meaning, nevertheless. They rebuke our worldliness and persuade to heavenly mindedness. That mother's heart was not crushed for naught. In it God has a gracious design; and in taking away her heart-blossoms and planting them in glory, inducements were multiplied for the earnest persecution of Christian discipleship, "for where the treasure is there will the heart be also." The departed dear ones shall not return to the parents, but they, if moved to faith and love, shall go to them.

Sorrowing and tearful mother, reflect that ere long Heaven shall gather thee and them within its bosom, where God shall wipe all tears away.

"No chilling winds nor poisonous breath
Can reach that healthful shore.
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more."

Now sorrow fills thy heart, and earth is to thee
A vale of tears.

"But now the eypress waves above
Thy pure and spotless breast,
And that bright form of life and love
Is wrapt in silent rest."

"But yet of hope a distant gleam
Recalls me from despair,
And tells that we may meet again,
My lost, loved, precious Belle!"

Compound Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla

A NEW and the most valuable Extract introduced, which is put up in Quart Bottles, is cheaper, more pleasant, and warranted superior to any sold. It is prepared from the best

HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA ROOT, combined with Yellow Dock and other valuable productions, which from their purifying effects on the Blood render it the best in the World, purifying and cleansing, giving tone and strength to the whole system.

Spring and Summer Medicine

This Extract is the result of numerous experiments, and the Proprietors feel confident that they have arrived at that perfection in preparing it to which no other manufacturer has yet attained. Every person has heard of Sarsaparilla. All have heard of its uses.—And many Physicians in this City are conscious of the fact that our Extract is far superior to those sold under the names of Townsend's, Sands Bristol's, Brown's, or Bull's Sarsaparilla, inasmuch as it contains other prime remedies besides those used by the above named parties, is stronger, contains nothing but Vegetable productions, and is prepared without boiling, which causes it to retain all the volatile and active properties.

Encourage home manufacture.

We pledge our reputation on the truth of what we here state, that we believe it better in every sense than any other Extract of Sarsaparilla ever introduced.
Scrofulous diseases, Cutaneous Eruptions, Rheumatic Affections, Syphilis, disorders, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Lung and Bronchial Affections, all diseases arising from the injudicious use of mercury, impure state of the Blood or habit of the system, are some of the many diseases which are cured by the use of this SARSAPARILLA.

CHILSON'S

Patent Air Warming and Ventilating Furnace.

(FOUR SIZES.)

THE fame of this well known FURNACE has now become so extended, that it would become mere supererogation to enter into any elaborate detail of its construction. Since the period of its first appearance, it has attracted the attention, and gained the encomiums of many individuals, who hold high rank in the scientific world—and completed an entire revolution in the construction of "HOUSE WARMERS."

The antiquated and now exploded notion, of obtaining a sufficiency of pure warm Air from a small surface of Red Hot Metal, in contact with which, an inadequate supply of Cold Air disseminates into the apartments above a sluggish current of burnt deoxygenated HOT air, unfit for respiration, is rapidly being supplanted by the introduction of our new House Warmers, which, from its peculiar construction, can never become overheated, and by its extensive and well proportioned surface, is capable of warming a large volume of atmospheric air.

Another prominent peculiarity of our Furnace, is so complete adaptation for Wood or Bituminous Coal; the flues being so arranged that they cannot become closed by soot or ashes: this point has never before received the attention of Furnace Manufacturers, and is indeed the only article in which this description of fuel can be used to any advantage.

And when we take into consideration the fact, that this has become the standard on which all new Furnaces are founded, and the only Heater on which attempts at infringement are constantly being made; and add thereto, that it has received numerous Medals and first Premiums from various Scientific Institutions—not to make mention of the "World's Fair," (where, in competition with articles for similar purpose, from all parts of the world, it received the GREAT PRIZE MEDAL)—it must convince every unprejudiced mind that this Furnace already held the highest rank for the purposes to which it is applied.

Any information respecting our Furnace, or the general subject of "Heating and Ventilation" together with our pamphlets containing Cut of Furnace &c., and an Appendix of over 1000 References, will be promptly forwarded to all who address the Subscribers by Post.

We are also the Agents for, and have constantly on hand, an assortment of the Patent Mirror Marble Chimney Pieces—a new, cheap and elegant substitute for Marble—at prices varying from $18 to $150 each, a sample of which is in possession of the Editor of this paper.

Besides the above, we have always in our Warehouse a large stock of Cooking, Office, Hall, and Parlor Stoves, Ranges, Registers, Ventilators, &c., &c., which we are happy to present for inspection at 51 and 53 Blackstone Street, Boston.
