

two bottles of your Oxygenated Bitters, and commenced using the according to directions, and experienced the happiest effects.

I had been troubled with dyspepsia about three years. During the warm season, and at times, was obliged to give up all attention to business; and although I had the advice of many good physicians, I was confined for six weeks to the house, and continued to grow worse, until I took your medicine; I am now almost cured of every disagreeable symptom, and able to do business as usual.

The whole credit of my restoration to health, is due to the Oxygenated Bitters.

OBITUARY.

STEPHEN WRIGHT, eldest son of brother JAMES WRIGHT, of Jemseg, who died on Saturday, the 8th of May, has left a name behind him that will long be tenderly cherished by all who knew him. He professed love to the Saviour and was baptized after his example during a revival of religion in that place three years ago, and united with the Church at Jemseg, of which the writer was Pastor. He was a very consistent member of the Church, and walked in the light of the Lord's countenance, and delighted to do the will of God. His devoted attachment to the cause of God was worthy of imitation by all who would enjoy divine comfort. This bereavement will be very widely lamented, being esteemed by all who knew him. The large attendance at his funeral, indicated the respect in which he was so justly held. He was interred at Jemseg. The Funeral Sermon was preached by Elder Foshay, from Psalm xxxix. and 4th verse,—"Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am." JAMES TRIMBLE.
