EVERY MAN HAS HIS FAULT.

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

Take life as it is—'tis folly to sigh,
Or to seek for a treasure, when seeking is vain,
If friendship's a light that goes speedily by,
Regretting its loss is but adding to pain;
Perfection's a thing rarely found upon earth;
We may cherish the hope and our fancy exalt,
But though we meet many of honor and worth,
We find, before long, every man hath his fault.

If a world we require that will always be true,
We must learn where it is from the fairies or elves;
The errors of friendship are easy to view,
No so easy the errors that lie in ourselves.
No; perfection's a thing rarely found upon earth;
We may cherish the hope, and our fancy exalt,
But though we meet many of honor and worth,
We find, before long, every man hath his fault.

"SHE IS THINE."

She is thine—the word is spoken;
Hand to hand, and heart to heart!
Though all other ties are broken,
Time these bonds shall never part.

Thou hast taken her in gladness,
From the altar's holy shrine;
O, remember her in sadness,
She is thine, and only thine.

In so fair a temple never
Aught of ill can hope to come;
Good will strive, and striving ever,
Make so pure a shrine its home.

Each other's love possessing,
Say what care should cloud the brow;
She will be to thee a blessing,
And a shield to her be thou.

NEW CURE FOR MEANNESS.—Rev. D. Huntington, in an admirable address at the Springfield agricultural festival, made the following observations:

"Have we not all admired that masterly combination of grace and nobleness in the horse's head, which might decorate the selectest studio of the artist? And look at the generosity of his disposition, at the magnanimity of his temper—the qualities of his heart overruling the brain, I remember, in a somewhat celebrated address of a distinguished nobleman to King Charles the Second, it is mentioned that 'a man is never so much a man as when he is on horseback.' [Applause.] There is some very intimate connection between the exhibition of the higher types of character and the practice of that exhilarating exercise. It seems to me that much of the generous hospitality which characterizes the Southern community may be attributable as well as to other natural causes, partly to the influence of the common indulgence in that noble practice. Sir, I am inclined to think riding as sovereign a cure for meanness as for dyspepsia."

ORDINATION OF A NEW ZEALANDER.—On Sunday last an ordination service was held at St. Paul's Church, by the Lord Bishop of New Zealand. A special feature of interest was connected with the occasion, by the unprecedented and deeply gratifying fact that one of the aboriginal native race of New Zealand was admitted to Deacon's orders. The name of the new Maori minister is Rota (Lot) Waita; he has been with the Bishop for several years. He is to minister, we believe, at a mission station on the east coast; and we earnestly trust that his future career may be such as to realize the expectations now formed of his usefulness amongst his countrymen.—New Zealand, May 25.

INSANE PEOPLE.—Miss Dix, the philanthropist, states that among the hundreds of insane people with whom her sacred missions have brought her into companionship, she has not found one individual, however fierce and turbulent, that could not be calmed by Scripture and prayer, uttered in low and gentle tones. The power of religious sentiments over those shattered souls seems miraculous. The worship of a quiet, loving heart, affects them like a voice from heaven. Tearing and rending, yelping and stamping, singing and groaning, gradually subside into silence, and they fall on their knees, or gaze upwards with clasped hands, as if they saw through the opening darkness a golden gleam from their Father's throne of love.

MILK.—Dr. Prout has shown that all our principal alimentary matters may be reduced to three classes: the saccharine, the oleaginous, and the albuminous, represented by butter, sugar, and white of egg. Now, milk consists of all three—the curd, which is chiefly albumen; the butter chiefly oil; and a portion of sugar. Milk is the only substance prepared by nature so completely perfect as to be a compound of these three principles, and therefore its perfection, mixed with bread, as a food for children.

ARRIVAL OF A DISTINGUISHED TRAVELLER.—Mrs. Pfeiffer, a lady of extraordinary energy and daring, who has made the tour of the world, arrived in San Francisco in the bark Seneca, from Batavia. She is, perhaps, the greatest traveller living, having traversed alone Asia Minor, Persia, Tartary and India, and penetrated into the unexplored depths of Malacca, Sumatra, Java, Borneo, and other East India Islands. She has made her way through howling wildernesses, inhabited by savage beasts and men equally savage, without fear or hesitation, and has always managed to extricate herself from the perils that beset her, by her address and courage.
