Select Boarding and Day School

for Young Ladies,

CONDUCTED BY MISS THOMSON,

Assisted by her Father, Elder Thomson, A. M.

St. John, N. B.

IN the Government and discipline of the School, due regard is had to the health, happiness and improvement of the pupils; and while every reasonable indulgence is granted, the great objects of education are kept constantly in view, viz:—the full development and proper training of all the physical, intellectual and moral energies, and the formation of habits of industry, punctuality, good order and strict economy in the use of time.

Instruction in the Classics, Mathematics, the Continental Languages, General Science, English Composition, General History, Pure and Descriptive Geography, Use of the Globes and Maps, Arithmetic.

The Educational and Domestic arrangements offer unusual facilities for elder pupils. There is also a separate preparatory department for younger pupils.

Miss Thomson informs her friends that her classes will be closed on the 17th of June, and re-opened on the 18th of July, on which day she hopes all her pupils will be present that the classes may be formed for regular business.

References to Parents of great respectability given, and a synopsis, with terms forwarded on application.

Miss T. is thankful to add that her Father has consented to give her pupils the whole of his time during the hours of study and recitation.

St. John, N. B., June 10, 1853.
