The Lazy Boy.

The lazy lad! and what's his name?
I should not like to tell!
But don't you think it is a shame
That he can't read or spell?

He'd rather swing upon the gate,
Or paddle in the brook,
Than take his pencil and his slate,
Or try to con his book.

There, see, he's lounging down the street,
His hat without a rim:
He rather drags than lifts his feet—
His face unwashed and grim.

He's lolling now against the post,—
But if you've seen him once,
You'll know the lad amongst a host,
For what he is—a dunce.

Don't ask me what's the urchin's name,
I do not choose to tell;
But this you'll know—it is the same
As his who does not blush for shame,
That he don't read or spell.

The Promises of God.

The following little incident recently occurred in the infant department of the Sabbath-school of a church in Connecticut, which was founded more than two centuries ago, by the celebrated Thomas Hooker. Upon a Sabbath morning intensely cold, the pastor visited these little ones. Icy winter had locked the streams, and a heavy mantle of snow was thrown over the earth. They were addressed in the familiar manner so happily adapted to rivet the attention of a child, in substance as follows. 'My young friends, this is a cold winter's day, and the snow lies deep around us. Will the beautiful spring and the joyous summer return?' 'Yes, sir,' was the prompt reply. 'But,' continued the pastor, 'the last night was very cold, and at my house I found this morning in the yard, very thick ice; and why do you believe that the opening buds and blooming flowers will return?' 'Because replied a bright-eyed boy, 'we have the promise of God himself, that 'summer and winter, seed-time and harvest, shall never fail.'

"My young friends, let me claim your kindness for the old. They are well entitled to your sympathy. Through this bright world they move mistily, and though they rise as soon as the birds begin to sing, they cannot hear the music. Their limbs are stiff, their senses dull, and that body which was once their beautiful abode and their willing servant has become a cage and a heavy clog. And they have outlived most of those dear companions with whom they once took sweet counsel,

"One world deceased, another born,
Like Noah they behold,
O'er whose white hair and furrow'd brows,
Too many suns have roll'd."

Make it up then as well as you can. Baeyes to the blind and feet to the lame. On their way to the sanctuary be their supporting staff, and though it may need an extra effort to convey your words into their blunted ear, make that effort;—for youth is never so beautiful as when it acts as a guardian angel or a ministering spirit to old age. And should extreme infirmity or occasional fretfulness try your patience, remember that to all intents you were once the same, and may be the same again; in second childhood is in first, the debtor of others "patience and tenderness and magnanimity."—Hamilton's Royal Preacher.

CHILSON'S

Patent Air Warming and Ventilating Furnace.

(FOUR SIZES.)

THE fame of this well known FURNACE has now become so extended, that it would become mere supererogation to enter into any elaborate detail of its construction. Since the period of its first appearance, it has attracted the attention, and gained the encomiums of many individuals, who hold high rank in the scientific world—and completed an entire revolution in the construction of "HOUSE WARMERS."

The antiquated and now exploded notion, of obtaining a sufficiency of pure warm Air from a small surface of Red Hot Metal, in contact with which, an inadequate supply of Cold Air disseminates into the apartments above a sluggish current of burnt deoxygenated hot air, unfit for respiration, is rapidly being supplanted by the introduction of our new House Warmers, which, from its peculiar construction, can never become overheated, and by its extensive and well proportionate surface, is capable of warming a large volume of atmospheric air.

Another prominent peculiarity of our Furnace, is so complete adaptation for Wood or Bituminous Coal, the flues being so arranged that they cannot become closed by soot or ashes: this point has never before received the attention of Furnace Manufacturers, and is indeed the only article in which this description of fuel can be used to any advantage.

And when we take into consideration the fact, that this has become the standard on which all new Furnaces are founded, and the only Heater on which attempts at infringement are constantly being made; and add thereto, that it has received numerous Medals and first Premiums from various Scientific Institutions—not to make mention of the "World's Fair," (where, in competition with articles for similar purpose, from all parts of the world, it received the GREAT PRIZE MEDAL,)—it must convince every unprejudiced mind that this Furnace already holds the highest rank for the purposes to which it is applied.

Any information respecting our Furnace, or the general subject of "Heating and Ventilation," together with our pamphlets containing Cut of Furnace &c., and an Appendix of over 1000 References, will be promptly forwarded to all who address the Subscribers by Post.

We are also the Agents for, and have constantly on hand, an assortment of the Patent "Mirror Marble Chimney Pieces"—a new, cheap and elegant substitute for Marble—at prices varying from $18 to $150 each, a sample of which is in possession of the Editor of this paper.

Besides the above, we have always in our Warehouse a large stock of Cooking, Office, Hall, and Parlor Stoves; Ranges, Registers, Ventilators, &c., &c., which we are happy to present for inspection at 51 and 53 Blackstone Street, Boston.

in the World, purifying and cleansing, giving tone and strength to the whole system.

This Extract is the result of numerous experiments, and the Proprietors feel confident that they have arrived at that perfection in preparing it to which no other manufacturer has yet attained. Every person has heard of Sarsaparilla. All have heard of its uses.—And many Physicians in this City are conscious of the fact that our Extract is far superior to those sold under the names of Townsend's, Sande Bristol's, Brown's, or Bull's Sarsaparilla, inasmuch as it contains other prime remedies besides those used by the above named parties, is stronger, contains nothing but Vegetable productions, and is prepared without boiling, which causes it to retain all the volatile and active properties.

Encourage home manufacture.

We pledge our reputation on the truth of what we have stated, that we believe it better in every sense than any other Extract of Sarsaparilla ever introduced.

Serofulous diseases, Cutaneous Eruptions, Rheumatic Affections, Syphilitic disorders, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Lung and Bronchial Affections, all diseases arising from the injudicious use of mercury, impure state of the Blood or habit of the system, are some of the many diseases which are cured by the use of this SARSAPARILLA.
