

Poetry.

I'll Think of Thee, my Mother.
I had a Mother—none can tell How fond her glances on me fell, But now they say her eyes so mild, Will never more look on her child—
I'll think of thee, my Mother!

They tell me that a God of love My Mother death hath called above, Oh then I'll often turn my eye,
And look on yonder happy sky,
And think of thee, my Mother!

I'll think of her, and ever strive My best to do while I'm alive; No sin within my heart shall rest, While love shall ever fill my breast,
To think of thee, my Mother!

Youth.

Economy of Time.

"Time is the wrap of life, Oh, tell The young, the fair, the gay, to weave it well."

"Millions of money for an inch of time," was the exclamation of a dying queen, whose reign had been filled with deeds of glory, and whose name was handed down to prosperity as "the good queen Bess." It was a treasure which the wealth of empires could not buy; and so the spirit, disrobed of the empty pa-gentry of royalty, and unsupported by the presence of its fellow-worms, passed at once to the tribunal of the King of kings, to receive from Him its trial and its recompense.

But that which was denied to the petition of one whose slightest wish had been the law of kingdoms, is now ours; and how shall we dispose of the precious boon, so that when we too shall be called to give an account of our stewardship, we may receive the approbation of our Judge, and the reward promised to His faithful servants? As the lives of many of us will be short, and as the plans which we have already marked out for ourselves in the future, will many of them remain unfulfilled, how shall we best economise the golden moments as they pass, so that no remembrances of wasted hours will rise to fill our souls with unavailing regrets, and no record of mis-spent days bear witness against us when time itself shall be no more?—The Young Lady's Friend.

Evil Company.

The following beautiful allegory is translated from the German:—

Sophronius, a wise teacher, would not suffer even his grown up sons and daughters to associate with those whose conduct was not pure and upright.

"Dear Father," said the gentle Eulalia to him, one day, when he forbade her, in company with her brother, to visit the gentle Lucinda, "dear father, you must think us very childish if you imagine that we should be exposed to danger by it."

The father took in silence a dead coal from the hearth, and reached it to his daughter.
"It will not burn you, my child, take it."

Eulalia did so, and behold, her beautiful white hand was soiled and blackened, and as it chanced, her white dress also.

"We cannot be so careful in handling coals," said Eulalia, in vexation.

"Yes, truly," said her father, "you see my child, that coals, even if they do not burn blacken; so it is with the company of the vicious."

Mother and Son.

It seems the nature of sons to love their mothers, with a mixture of tenderness to the sex; gratitude for the innumerable cares paid to their infancy; fondness to the spring from whom all their little infant and boyish indulgences have flowed; and a pious reverence to the gray hairs and wrinkles of a closing life, the best years of which have been expended in their service. The love of a mother is the most universal and most beautiful feature in the character of man, as to possess it is the crowning glory and supreme felicity of woman.

NEVER BE IDLE.—A man who is able to employ himself innocently is never miserable.
It is the idle who are wretched. If I wanted to inflict the greatest punishment on a fellow-creature, I would shut him alone in a dark room, without employment.—Youth's Cabinet.

Compound Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla

A NEW and the most valuable Extract introduced, which is put up in Quart Bottles, is cheaper, more pleasant, and warranted superior to any sold. It is prepared from the best

HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA ROOT combined with Yellow Dock and other valuable productions, which from their purifying effects on the Blood render it the best

Spring and Summer Medicine in the World, purifying and cleansing, giving tone and strength to the whole system.

This Extract is the result of numerous experiments, and the Proprietors feel confident that they have arrived at that perfection in preparing it to which no other manufacturer has yet attained. Every person has heard of Sarsaparilla.
All have heard of its uses.—And many Physicians in this City are conscious of the fact that our Extract is far superrior to those sold under the names of Townsend's, Sands Bristol's, Brown's, or Bull's Sarsaparilla, inasmuch as it contains other prime remedies besides those used by the above named parties, is stronger, contains nothing but Vegetable productions, and is prepared without boiling, which causes it to attain all the volatile and active properties.

Encourage home manufacture.

We pledge our reputation on the truth of what we here state, that we believe it better in every sense than any other Extract of Sarsaparilla ever introduced.

Scrofulous diseases, Cutaneous Eruptions, Rheumatic Affections, Syphilitic disorders, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Lung and Bronchial Affections, all diseases arising from the injudicious use of mercury, impure state of the Blood or habit of the system, are some of the many diseases which are cured by the use of this SARSAPARILLA.

CHILSON'S

Patent Air Warming and Ventilating Furnace.

(FOUR SIZES.)

THE fame of this well known FURNACE has now become so extended, that it would become mere so-pererogation to enter into any elaborate detail of its construction. Since the period of its first appearance, it has attracted the attention, and gained the encomiums of many individuals, who hold high rank in the scientific world—and completed an entire revolution in the construction of
"HOUSE WARMERS."

The antiquated and now exploded notion, of obtaining a sufficiency of pure warm Air from a small surface of Red Hot Metal, in contact with which, an inadequate supply of Cold Air disseminates into the apartments above a slip-pish current of burnt deoxygenated Hot Air, unfit for respiration, is rapidly being supplanted by the introduction of our new House Warmers, which, from its peculiar construction, can never become overheated, and by its extensive and well proportionate surface, is capable of warming a large volume of atmospheric air.

Another prominent peculiarity of our Furnace, is its complete adaptation for Wood or Bituminous Coal; the flues being so arranged that they cannot become closed by soot or ashes: this point has never before received the attention of Furnace Manufacturers, and is indeed the only article in which this description of fuel can be used to any advantage.

And when we take into consideration the fact, that this has become the standard on which all new Furnaces are founded, and the only Heater on which attempts at infringement are constantly being made; and add thereto, that it has received numerous Medals and first Premiums from various Scientific Institutions—not to make mention of the "World's Fair," (where, in competition with articles for similar purpose, from all parts of the world, it received the GREAT PRIZE MEDAL.)—it must convince every unprejudiced mind that this Furnace already holds the highest rank for the purposes to which it is applied.

Any information respecting our Furnace, or the general subject of "Heating and Ventilation," together with our pamphlets containing Cut of Furnace &c., and an Appendix of over 1000 References, will be promptly forwarded to all who address the Subscribers by Post.

We are also the Agents for, and have constantly on hand, an assortment of the Patent Mirror Marble Chimney Pieces—a new, cheap and elegant substitute for Marble—at prices varying from $18 to $150 each, a sample of which is in possession of the Editor of this paper.
Besides the above, we have always in our Warehouse a large stock of Cooking, Office, Hall, and Parlor Stoves, Ranges, Registers, Ventilators, &c., &c., which we are happy to present for inspection at 51 and 53 Blackstone Street, Boston.
