

Domestic.

At the Meeting at the Mechanics' Institute on Friday evening last, it was stated by Mr. Whitman, the Colonial Agent for the New York Industrial Exhibition, that the Provincial Executive had resolved to advance £250 immediately, to enable the Institute and New-Brunswick Society to forward articles to the New York Exhibition, and that application would be made to the Provincial Legislature for a further grant towards promoting the object.

It is greatly to be desired, that our mechanics and artisans will exert their utmost ingenuity, in producing such specimens of skill, as will ensure New-Brunswick an honourable position in the great Exhibition, and thus redeem the credit which our careless neglect deprived us of at the memorable "World's Fair" of London.

STEAMER COMMODORE.—This boat has recently been purchased by a company, who, we understand, are giving her a thorough repair in every respect, it being their intention to employ her on the route from St. John to the Bend, Dorchester, and Sackville.

C. Boultenhouse, Esq., is the active party in the above Company, and from his well known energy and business habits, we feel confident that no exertions will be wanting to make her, what the public require.—Courier.

The steamer Admiral arrived on Wednesday morning from Boston, being her first trip for the season. She has undergone a thorough examination at New York, and was found to be in perfect order. She has the same officers as last year, and she is as well managed as ever.

PORK.—Mr. Hayward, of King's County, bro't into market on Wednesday, a splendid lot of pigs, a sow and her litter of eight, equalling, we believe far surpassing, any thing of the kind exhibited in the city before. The sow, said to be not quite three years old, weighed 686 lbs. The others were but 104 months old, and the only one weighed was found to be 467 lbs. The pork was of the very best quality. Mr. Hayward, it was said, was offered and refused 5d. a lb. and a dollar a pig besides, requiring 54d. So fine a show of prime pork attracted many admirers.—Freeman.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday night a man named Jeremiah Collins fell down stairs in a house at the foot of Union street, nearly opposite Drury lane, and died in a few hours in consequence of the injuries received.—Id.

A. C. Morton, Esq., C. E., the Consulting Engineer of our Provincial Government, proceeded to England from New York by steamer, a few days ago. He will, doubtless, there acquire proficiency in all recent Railroad improvements, and thereby increase his future usefulness in this Province.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—A dreadful accident happened on Wednesday evening last. A poor, old coloured woman by the name of Amelia Heath—better known to all the neighborhood as "Milley"—was burnt to death in a most shocking manner. She resided in the basement story of a house in St. George's Street. About seven o'clock, groans were heard by some of the neighbours, and smoke was seen to issue from the premises. An entrance was forced, and the poor old woman was found upon her knees, her clothes all on fire. A bucket of water was thrown upon the flames. On examination it was discovered that one side of her was literally roasted. She lingered in dreadful agony until one o'clock on Thursday morning, when death put an end to her sufferings. "Milley" was a kind creature. Every one who knew her respected her. She was a member of the Methodist communion, and was thought very much of for her piety and Christian virtues. She was 85 years of age, and resided alone. It was supposed that her clothes had caught from a candle.—News.

MAILS TO ST. JOHN.—Col. FAVOR has just returned from Washington, where he effected negotiations by which the mail facilities between this city and St. John, N. B., will be very much enhanced. The Colonel is an enterprising and public spirited man.—Boston Bee.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.

Satisfactory Proof that Dyspepsia can be cured. BOSTON, January 16, 1851.

Messrs. Reed, Bates & Austin, Gents.—Regarding all patent medicines with distrust, and generally more as a cause than a remedy of disease, it was not until I had been reduced to helplessness, and confined to my bed, and after the skill of physicians had failed to benefit me, that I could be prevailed upon by solicitations of friends, to try your Oxygenated Bitters, for dyspepsia, a disease from which I have suffered in all its most terrible forms, for about eleven years.

Some four weeks since, I commenced using these Bitters, and the trial has proved the virtue and efficacy of the medicine in my restoration to health.

I am glad of an opportunity to use my influence in recommending this medicine to those afflicted with this horrible disease, believing, that in all cases of Dyspepsia, it will prove a positive benefit, if not an effectual cure.
