

Poetry.

MY BIRTHDAY.

BH THOMAS MOORE.

"My birthday"—what a diff'rent sound
That word had in my youthful ears?
And how each time the day comes round,
Less and less white its mark appears!

When first our scanty years are told,
It seems like pastime to grow old;
And, as youth counts the shining links
That time around him binds so fast, Pleas'd with the task he little thinks How hard that chain will press at last.
Vain was the man, and false as vain,
Who said "were he ordained to run
His long career of life again,
He would do all that he had done."
"Ah, 'tis not thus the voice that dwells
In sober birthdays, speaks to me;
Far otherwise—of time it tells,
Lavished unwisely, carelessly;
Of counsel! mocked; of talents, made Haply for high and pure designs,
But oft, like Israel's incense, laid Upon unholy, earthly shrines;
Of nursing many a wrong desire;
Of wandering after Love too far,
And taking every meteor fire,
That crossed my pathway for his star.
All this it tells; and could I trace
Th' imperfect picture o'er again,
With pow'r to add, retouch, efface
The lights and shades, the joy and pain,
How little of the past would stay!
How quickly all should melt away—
All—but that Freedom of the Mind,
Which hath been more than wealth to me;
Those friendships, in my boyhood twin'd,
And kept till now unchangingly;
And that dear home, that saving ark,
Where Love's true light at last I've found,
Cheering within, when all grows dark,
And comfortless, and stormy round!

MANUFACTURERS of Monuments, Tomb Tables, Gravestones, in Italian, American Marble, and Free Stone. Chimney Pieces and Centre Tables.

Every description of ORNAMENTAL WORK executed with neatness at their Establishment, Union Street, (third house East of Mr. Peters' garden).—

rial, executed in the most improved styles and fully as cheap and durable as any which can possibly can execute work equal in every, and superior in many respects to any thing in their line manufactured in this City;

and, while they are fully prepared to allow all honest competitors "a clear stage and no favor," they feel convinced they can produce, at all times and on all occasions, workmanship in every respect superior to that of those Americans who advertise their wares at "twenty-five per cent less than any shop in the City!" and who, uninstructed and uneducated in their art, can only attract attention by by prosecuting the rather unenviable and unprofitable business of denouncing (as keepers of "the pettyshops that are springing up") those who have carefully given their undivided attention to the study of their business, and who fairly and honorably enter the arena of public competition, determined to stand or fall by the superior excellence of their workmanship as judged by a discerning public.

For sale—a large quantity of Soap-Stone, suitable for Saves.
