THE WARRIOR'S ADIEU.

BY THOMAS BLAKE, ESQ.

Adieu to the valley, the home of my childhood,
Farewell to the cottage, the river, the glen;
Sweets scenes where I wandered from boyhood to manhood,
Farewell, oh, farewell, we may ne'er meet again

Yet, when I'm alone in the land of the stranger,
I'll think upon thee, oh! loved home of my heart;
And when battle surrounds every footstep with danger,
Fond memory shall ne'er from thy presence depart.

Hark! the roll of the drum on the soft air now
soundeth,
And calls me away from the land of the free;
Its soul-stirring sound every heart-pulse reboundeth.
Adieu, if for ever, farewell home to thee.

M'KIM &amp; CLEAR,

MANUFACTURERS of Monuments, Tomb Tables, Gravestones, in Italian, American Marble, and Free Stone. Chimney Pieces and Centre Tables.

Every description of ORNAMENTAL WORK executed with neatness at their Establishment, Union Street, (third house East of Mr. Peters' garden.)—Monuments, Head Stones, &c., of the best material, executed in the most improved styles and fully as cheap and durable as any which can possibly be obtained on this continent.

After a long experience in business, both in ENGLAND and SCOTLAND, M'KIM & CLEAR feel satisfied they can execute work equal in every, and superior in many respects to any thing in their line manufactured in this City; and, while they are fully prepared to allow all honest competitors "a clear stage and no favor," they feel convinced they can produce, at all times and on all occasions, workmanship in every respect superior to that of those Americans who advertise their wares at "twenty five per cent less than any shop in the City!" and who, unimpaired and unmediated in their art, can only attract attention by prosecuting the rather unenviable and unprofitable business of denouncing (as keepers of the pettyshops that are springing up) those who have carefully given their undivided attention to the study of their business, and who fairly and honorably enter the arena of public competition, determined to stand or fall by the superior excellence of their workmanship as judged by a discerning public.

For sale—a large quantity of Soap-Stone, suitable for Stores.

A "Diploma" and Prize were awarded to R. A. M'KIM for Excellence in CARVING, at the last New Brunswick Provincial Exhibition. St. John, Nov. 25.

The Safe was surrounded by a quantity of spokes and felloes, and fell into the cellar on a pile of hickory and oak lumber, and was sometimes seen at a white heat, yet, when it was opened, nothing was found to be injured, except the binding of the books, which were stained by the steam.
