

ALBERT COUNTY.—The Chronicle nominates J. E. Upham, Esq., of Harvey, as a candidate for Albert County. Mr. Upham is a man of ability and integrity; is popular in the County in which he resides; and would make an excellent member of the Legislature.—Times.

The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Quebec, has written a pastoral letter prescribing public prayers for the purpose of drawing down the blessing of Heaven on the allied armies of France and England in the pending war. His Grace sums up the objects of the Czar in an able manner, and alludes in terms of merited severity to the indignities to which the Catholics have been subjected in Russia, and particularly to the scourging of the nuns in Poland some years since, an atrocious act, for which the Emperor was soundly lectured by the predecessor of Pius IX.
