The French Minister of War has received a despatch from Gen. Pelissier, dated 6th inst., 8 A. M., which contains the following intelligence .- On the night of the loth inst., a great fire took place. It was caused by the wind left New York on the 29th of March, and which was suchored in the Bay of Sebastopol.

The British steam sloop Promethens, while on the Biff coast near Mebilla, approached the shore to make out some boats that were obon the latter, approaching within range a heavy 93.000 votes for Governor, as follows:-Morrill fire of muskets was opened on her, which killed the boatswain, and wounded some others. The sloop replied with shot, shell and musketry. and caused apparently, considerable slaughter. At Keipe Keni, a village on the road to Kars, a skirmish of cavalry took place, and afterwards the Russians broke up from before Erzeroum and retired on Kars across the Soghanli range of hills.

Letters say that Omar Pasha will not go to Kars, but will move on to Tiflis, with the twofold objects of menacing the communication of the Russians with Georgia, and cutting off their retreat; and also of presenting to the Gircassians and other mountain tribes an opportunity to join him.
