

per foris.—A sapper, who was exposed to the batteries of the Redan just as the cannon were evacuating the town, discovered a large cable which he cut in two below of an axe, and then called the attention of the officers to it. On further examination it was found to be a thick metallic cable covered with a coating of gutta percha, and used for a very large powder magazine under the Redan, and the discovery highly made the boldest tremble, when they saw the light of the explosion from which they had escaped.

The wire came from across the town as the sea, which it crossed to the other side, from whence the electric spark was despatched to set fire to the volcano. It was discovered just at the nick of time, as the soldiers had not yet evacuated the magazine, and the fort blew up one after the other, filling up the trenches with the ruins of the Carving Room, the Flagstaff Battery, the Central Battery, the forts of the bay, the cannon, and all the principal edifices crumbled to the ground, and the combined action of shells, fire and mines. The Redan and the Malakoff alone remained up standing, the former saved by the sapper, as just mentioned, and the latter saved by a shell which, by the direction of Providence, had not exploded.

THE CAPTURE OF THE REDAN.
The following is an extract from a letter of officer of the Light Division:—"Sebastopol, Sept. 18.—By the way, I must give you a history, in a few words, of a few hours in the life of a hero, and, depend upon it, of a great man, as his life is. He is of the regiment to us, and I have the details of a wounded sergeant of ours who lay near me during the day and night of the 8th. I saw him lying on the ground, of the 19th—believe me, the youngest officer of the army.
He is now known as 'Redan Massy,' for there is none of the same name in the regiment.
His noble boy, in the absence of his cousin, the Grenadier Company, and was about to first man in the corps to jump into the ditch of the Redan, waving the sword, and calling on his men, who nobly stood by him, left for nearly two hours without support, and stood by a fear of being blown up, they retired. Young Massy, borne along, endeavoured to disengage from the crowd, and stood alone, facing round frequently to the batteries, with head erect, and with a calm, proud, disdainful eye. Hundreds of shot were aimed at him, and at last, when leading them climbing the ditch, he was struck and his high broken. Being the last, he was of course left there. Now, listen to this. The wounded around were groaning, and some even loudly crying out. A voice called out faintly at first, loudly afterwards, 'Are you Queens Victoria's soldiers?' Some voices answered, 'I am! I am!' Then, said the gallant boy, 'let us not shame ourselves; let us show those Russians that we can bear pain, as well as fight like men.' There was a silence as of death, and more than once he had it renewed by similar appeals. The unquar-ter spirit of that headless boy ruled all around him. As evening came on the Russians crept out of the Redan and plundered some of the wounded, at the same time showing kindness, and in some cases giving water. Men, with bayonets fixed, frequently came over the body of young Massy. One fellow took away his haversack. Sometimes he feigned death.
At other times the pain of his wound would not permit him. A Russian officer, with a drawn sword which the young hero still grasped.
Seeing that resistance was in vain he gave it up. The Russian smiled gently and compassionately on him, fascinated probably, by his youth, and by the bold, unfaltering glance which met his. When the works of the Redan were blown up in the night by the retreating Russians the poor boy had his right leg fearfully crushed by a falling stone.
He was found in the morning by some Highlanders, and brought to his regiment almost dead from loss of blood. Great was the joy of all at seeing him, as he was about to be refused as 'killed' or 'missing.' Dangerously wounded' was substituted, but he is now doing well."

THE CAPTURE OF THE REDAN.

Gold has been found in Oregon. A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says:—
"The country is greatly excited at this time by recent discoveries of gold near Fort Colville, in the country of the Upper Columbia.
Nearly half the population of Oregon and Washington territories is on the wing for the new gold mines. But I fear the rush in that direction, and in such numbers, is premature."

Santa Anna and family are safely installed in and near Carthage. He has a beautiful residence but a few miles distant from the city, where he lives like a prince.

It is stated that the Executors of the estate of Mrs. Emily C. Judson, have made arrangements with the Rev. Rufus Griswold, to prepare a memoir of her life and letters. It is expected that the book will be published next spring.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

A most destructive fire occurred at St. John, Newfoundland on the 19th inst. It is said that 200 houses were consumed, and that 400 families making 3,600 individuals were rendered homeless.

NOVA SCOTIA.

We learn from the Transcript that at a recent meeting of the Congregational Union of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick it was decided to rebuild Gorham College in Halifax. The Roman Catholics have a College in Halifax, the Free Church people have a College there, and there is also Dalhousie College, and now if the Gorham College be added to the list it will give four Colleges for a population of about 20,000 people.
The good citizens of Halifax will not be likely to suffer for the want of collegiate instruction. If Halifax can sustain four Colleges, surely St.
John might venture to establish one.

ACADIA COLLEGE.

A telegraphic dispatch just received from the Rev. Dr. Cramp informs us that the Rev. A. W. Sawyer has accepted the situation of classical Professor in Acadia College, and will enter upon the duties of his office in a few weeks. The educational attainments of Mr.
Sawyer, are spoken of in high terms of commendation, and we doubt not he will be a valuable acquisition to our College Faculty.

THE TRIAL OF OUR SAVIOUR.

Such is the singular title given to an exhibition to be seen at St. Stephen's Hall in this city. The trial is represented by statuary embracing twenty-three figures the size of life. These figures are intended to represent the several persons who took part in that fearful tragedy. They are somewhat imposing in their appearance and calculated to bring vividly to the mind those startling scenes associated with the most important event in the world's history, namely, the crucifixion of the Son of God.

PICQUET, OCTOBER 18.—BARK VOLIGER.

Capt. Cameron, from Greenock, arrived here on the 15th inst. reports, passed on the 2nd inst., in lat.
47° 30', lon. 44° 30', a wrecked bark, apparently of colonial build, and 500, or 600 tons burthen.
She was timber laden and had deck load of deals, bull painted black, had a white arch on her stern, and light yellow or cream color about the decks.
There was a house on deck aft, and a top gallant forecastle forward. The wreck had been evidently boarded previously, as the mizenmast which was standing, was stripped of rigging. Shortly after passing the wreck, saw a mast with a quantity of rigging on it.

COLLISION.—Early on Wednesday morning

last, the Concord Steam ship Africa ran into the bark Proteus, of and from Shelburne, bound to Miramichi. The Proteus was not observed by the steamer until the collision occurred. The damage to the steamer was trifling; the bark had her stern stove in and was considerably damaged.
She is owned by Joshua Snow, Esq., and was towed into Halifax by the Africa.—News.

DOMESTIC.

We are informed that the Executive Council, at a meeting held in Fredericton last week, appointed the Hon. W. B. Kinnear, Clerk of the Peace for the County of St. John, and W. R. M. Burtis, Esq. Common Clerk of the City. These appointments we believe to be judicious, and will doubtless give general satisfaction.

UNITED STATES.

LAWRENCE.—The population of Lawrence, Mass., is ascertained to be 16,114—males 7, 331; females, 8,783—Americans, 9,401; Foreigners, 6,719. Increase in ten years, 16,014.
If any New England town can beat this, it deserves a high premium. There are in the city 3 persons 90 years of age; 15 between 80 and 90; 51 between 70 and 80; and 218 between 60 and 70.

It should be borne in mind, that Dr. Kane has discovered the northern coast of Greenland, likewise never before visited by man. He proceeded on that coast a long distance in the Porlar Ser, towards the Atlantic Ocean, and would have entered that Ocean, and thus cirumnavigated Greenland, had it not been for the ice.

A store has been opened in Boston, with a capital of $100,000, as an agency for the sale of flour at Western prices, with the addition of the cost of transportation and incidental expenses. The Boston Post says, some of the better class of our moneyed men are ready to advance sums for the purpose of establishing stores of this description.

There are now three lines of passenger steamboats running directly between Albany and New York, and the strife for passengers and freight is being carried on to a ruinous extent.

It is stated that Lord Brougham's contribution to the Edinburgh Review are soon to be published in a collected form, in three volumes, under the heads of Political, Historical, and Miscellaneous.

Henry Warr Beecher has recently commenced a lecturing tour 'out West,' for which he is to receive $125 a night, and all expenses paid.

Two African girls joined together at the back on an exhibition in London. They are represented lively and intelligent.

Judge Thos. Clingman, of Carroll Co., Mo., was murdered, on Tuesday last, by one of his field slaves. The murderer was instantly hung by Lynch law.

There are in New York and Brooklyn not less than 5,000 'ladies,' whose dress bills annually $2,000 each, or ten millions in all.
