The recent Riot in Portland, Me., resulting in Bloodshed and the loss of Life.—Subsequent trial and acquittal of Mayor Dow.

Saturday the 3d inst., has been presented to 6.35 A. M. the public in contradictory statements made by interested parties. The consequence is that a good deal of excitement has been produced, truth of the case. We have therefore taken a good deal of pains to look over the several papers referring to this subject, and if we misers to give a just verdict in relation to this 8000 killed and wounded-Allies victorious daring outrage committed against law and driving the Russians to the heights.

Aldermen under the direction of the pro- tained. per authorities, had procured from New York quantity of liquors to be disposed of by the City Agency according to Law. These were stored in a room in the City Hall. It was soon reported through the city that these licenses were the personal property of Neal Dow, and that he brought them there as a matter of speculation to make money. The papers in favour of the traffic and opposed to Mayor Dow seized upon these malicious reports, and demanded that Mr. Dow and his liquors should be dealth with the College will be held on Monday, June 18, and Wednesday, June 20, commencing each day at 9, a. m. At this stage of the proceedings the City Marshall accompanied proceedings the City Marshall accompanied by several of the Police, all armed with pisols, entered the hall, and soon the mob began to throw stones against the door, breaking the glass, &c. The Marshall warned them upon the peril of their lives to desist, but to no purpose. The ring leaders used violent language, haranged the mob, and called upon hem to come on. A rush was then made for the door, and the Police fired, but intenionally aimed over their heads. This gave a momentary check, but they soon renewed the conflict, saying there was no danger, and the conflict, saying there was no danger, and a second rush was made for the door. The colice fired again and one man, named Robins, the mate of an Eustport vessel, fell mortally wounded. About this time the Ribins and Second Research of the Guards were called out, and Mayor Dow placed himself at their head. They marched through the crowd into the house, and orders a second rush was made for the door. The bins, the mate of an Eustport vessel, fell mortally wounded. About this time the Rifle Guards were called out, and Mayor Dow hrough the crowd into the house, and orders were given to them to fire. They obeyed, one man was killed, and several severely wounded. Obituary.

THE DEATH OF MRS. BANCROFT.—Our valued Brother, the Rev. Samual Bancroft, is called in the Providence of God to part with the companion of his youth and of his riper years, who departed this life on Friday the 8th inst. Her remains were intered in the Rural Cemetery on Sabbath afternoon, and in the evening her death was improved in the Germain Street Baptist Chapel, in a discourse by the Pastor, founded upon the 14th chap, of the Revelation and 13th verse. "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord," &c.

Mrs. Bancroft was the daughter of the widow M. Davis, of Westport, N. S. She professed religion in her native place some 25 years ago, and was baptized by the Rev. Thomas Ansley. From that time until her death she manifested an unwavering regard to the Lord's people, and to the interests of religion. For many years she has been subject to much depression of mind owing principally to the loss of her health. This depres- | RYE, sion occasioned her much anxiety in the prospect CORN MEAL, of death; but as she drew near the closing scene PORK- Mess, her confidence in the Divine Promises seemed increased, and she was enabled to repose her trust alone in her Saviour. She was with her daughter Mrs. Fowler during the last few months of her life, from whom she received every mark of respect and attention which a daughters love could suggest Her husband was also with her to smoothe the pillow of death for her, and to offer his fervent prayers continually to heaven in her behalf. We cannot but express our deep sympathy for our esteemed brother and his bereaved family in this season of affliction. Our which shall work together for their good.
