ing like beavers, and we have taken already this winter more than £100 worth of their work. They are now clearing a piece of land at "Mount Micmac," and have chopped and piled up in the most workman-like manner about one hundred cords of wood worth six shillings and three pence per cord on the spot. It will never do again to say the Indian will not work though you will give him ever so good a chance and pay him ever so well. We have upset that theory, and with the blessing of God we shall upset others equally false. I don't despair of seeing them tamed, notwithstanding the frequent exclamation, "you can't tame an Indian. They are just like the wild beasts—the wolf, the duck, and the partridge." The assertion is false, and were it true the Author of the Bible has long ago contradicted the theory based upon it.—He declares that "every kind of beast and of birds and of creeping things, and things in the sea—is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind." I imagine he knows all about it.—Dear Brother, I wish I could feel and pray for their conversion as you and I felt and prayed one sleepless night in Halifax, for the salvation of sinners. But God can bestow the right kind of feeling, and give the "power" that can convert and save us and them.

My own hopes and views are expressed in the enclosed Hymn,—(Hymns you know, need not be very poetical always,) composed one day last autumn, when kept in doors by a storm, at Caledonia, not far from the residence of the celebrated "Rev. Tim Carthy," whose letter of recommendation and encouragement you may have noticed in the Christian Messenger.

Our dear brother, Burton, is here, and is laboring faithfully and with great acceptance. The prospect just now is encouraging. We are about holding a series of meetings. May the good Lord meet with us!

Yours very truly,
S. T. RAND.

SPRINGFIELD, Feb. 21st, 1855.

DEAR BROTHER,—Since I last sent you an extract from my journal, I have laboured six weeks in the service of the Board, during which time I have preached 30 sermons; attended one conference, and two prayer meetings, and paid as many ministerial visits to families as my strength and time would permit. On the districts in Cambridge and Johnston, where we have lately commenced missionary operations, the cause of God is in a low state, the churches are waking up to see their scattered condition, and there appears an enquiry among the unconverted. We hope soon to be able to write of the Lord's cause being built up here. May the Lord magnify the richness of his sovereign grace, in bringing many souls to Himself. I am dear brother, your's in the hope of eternal life,

JAMES TRIMBLE.

General Intelligence.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Cunard steamer Canada arrived at Halifax on Thursday with the English mail of the 18th February.

The news is important.—Parliament reassembled on the 16th. Lord Palmerston, in announcing the intentions of Government, stated that many improvements would be effected in the sanitary and commissariat departments in the Crimea. Lord John Russell had been appointed British plenipotentiary at Vienna. His acceptance is spoken of in high terms, and no doubt if a peace can be agreed upon the interests of the English people will not suffer in his hands. Several changes have taken place in the ministry, Mr. Sidney Herbert taking the Colonial Office, and Sir Geo. Grey the Home Department. The Baltic fleet will soon leave for the north under the command of Admiral Dundas. A rumor is afloat that it is the intention of the present Ministry to recall Lord Raglan from the Crimea. This is a measure which nothing but the strongest necessity could justify, but, if there is any foundation to the report, it will be one which in the present state of public feeling, will meet the approval of the whole country.

From the Crimea we have little reliable intelligence. Up to the 6th February nothing decisive had taken place. The weather was getting milder, and the condition of the soldiers gradually improving. Considerable reinforcements had been received by the Russians, and an attack was daily looked for by the Allies. The eighth division of the French army, consisting of 10,000 men, had reached Hamiesch. 30,000 Turkish troops had landed at Eupatoria, and more were expected from Varna. The works on the railroad were to be vigorously carried on; three miles of the line had been marked off. Prince Menschikoff telegraphs from Sebastopol on the 8th.—"The general situation is unchanged, we continue to disturb the siege. Deserters affirm that the French guard the trenches in consequence of considerable losses of the English army."

All Europe is in arms. The smaller powers are gradually giving in their adhesion to the Western Alliance. Neutrality on the part of Prussia can scarcely be allowed to continue, and we doubt not, that before the end of the present year the war will have become general.

LIVERPOOL TIMBER MARKET.—Messrs. Cuthbert & Co's circular of the 16th states, that since last Mail advanced prices have in some instances been obtained, and, although there is no great demand at present, there is continued confidence in rising prices. St. John 18-inch Pine is quoted at 1s, 8d. to 1s. 9d.; Birch, 1s. 6d. to 1s. 10.; Spruce Planks, per standard hundred, £7 10s. to £8 18s.; Pine Boards, per std., £8 5s. to £9; Palings, per M., £3.

The Corn market has continued through the week in the same inactive state previously noted—the business transacted being of the merest retail character, with prices tending downward.

The London Stock market on the 16th was rather buoyant, and prices had an improved tendency. Consols for Money at noon were quoted at 90¾ ⅞, and for the account 90¾ ⅞, and at the close at four o'clock they had improved, and stood at 90¾ ⅞ for the account, and 90¾ ⅞ for money.

The failure of Messrs. Kirk and Furness, general merchants, of Liverpool, is announced. This firm has been brought down by the previous suspension of other houses.

The failure of Messrs. Keen, Rippin & Co., of London, a young but respectable firm, with liabilities of between £50,000 and £60,000, is also announced.

It is stated that Carter & Co., of London, consider themselves able to pay all their creditors in full, with interest, if time be given them, and it has been agreed to allow them twelve months, in which time they propose paying up their liabilities by six instalments.

There is great distress at Liverpool owing to the dullness of trade and bad weather. Fifteen thousand people are supposed to be out of employment—five thousand owing to the non-arrival of vessels from America.

The Mersey was partially frozen over on the 16th, and large bergs of ice floated about in the centre of the river.

Vienna Conferences.—All five Powers have formally signified intentions to confer, and Congress postponed from 15th meets at Vienna on the 26th. Lord John Russell represents Britain; M. De Bourguency, or perhaps special Minister, France; Count Buol, Austria; Rizza Bey, Turkey; Gortschakoff, assisted by M. Fitoff, ex-Minister to Constantinople, Russia. It is reported that Prussia will be permitted a seat at the board, and that business will be limited to offering Gortschakoff a categorical "yes" or "no."

It is stated that Lord Raglan had another escape when he visited the trenches of the left attack on the 26th: With his usual contempt of danger, the Field marshal rode out from this trench upon the open ground in front. Two Russians at once came forward, and one took a steady aim at him, but ere he could fire, a sharpshooter of ours shot him, and the other was hit an instant afterwards. The story goes that Lord Raglan asked the soldier his name, and said he would remember him.

The first notice we have had of the enrolment of the foreign legion, is the announcement of huts being about to be erected at Heligoland for the accommodation of the recruits.

Her Majesty's ship "Hecla," that played so prominent a part in the late cruise in the Baltic, has been wrecked off Gibraltar.

Lieut. O'Reilly, first lieutenant of the "Retribution," so well known from his sketches of the fortresses and coast of the Black Sea, appears to have been particularly popular with the sailors, who, on the ship being paid off, unanimously agreed to "volunteer for him if so be they knew he was to be the skipper."

The number of Russian prizes captured by our cruisers to the end of the year was 93.

The subscriptions to the Patriotic Fund already amount to £647,000.

The London Times launches its thunder against the military system, and boldly charges its defects to the aristocratic element in the government. Other London papers has followed up the attack. Douglass Jerrold, in the Weekly Newspaper, has the following bold language:

"The aristocratic dry rot in our military system has been exposed and doomed. The whole fabric, the structure of a century and more of the most shameful injustice, the vilest jobbing, and the most selfish ingorance, fell with a crush on Monday night, and can never be pieced together again. Henceforth, we must have generals and officers from the great mass of the people, and now from a few coteries. Genius, and wounds, and service, must henceforth purchase military rank, and not cash. Scars may buy promotions, but not bank checks.

And the time is fast coming—present events hurry it onward—when the people of England will no longer be the property of two or three houses—(coronetted Noddles and Doodles; imbecilities that 'came in with the Conqueror' and will go out with the coming of the conquering mass)—but will supply their own statesmen. Brains will rule, and not baubles."

THE CAMP RAILWAY.

Our Paris contemporaries publish a letter from Constantinople of the 22d ultimo, in which, after dwelling on the wealth of comforts and conveniences accumulated there, the writer says:—"If the railway were terminated, all would soon be destributed and set up in 48 hours. Unfortunately, the railway meets with unexpected obstacles. Between 600 and 800 Croatians were engaged to work at it. Every needful measure taken—they had their passports en regle, and had even received advances of money. But on the day fixed for the departure on one presented himself. It is impossible to conjecture the secret motive of this desertion en masse."

THE SARDINIAN TROOPS.—The auxiliary corps which the kingdom of Sardinia is about to send to the East will consist of four brigades of infantry of the line, two battalions of Rifles, two regiments of cavalry, four batteries of artillery, and a company of carbineers. One-half of the men are armed with lances. The artillery is very efficient, and the baggage train well organized. The greatest enthusiasm is shown by the troops selected for the expedition, and officers of every branch of the service eagerly seek the honour of joining it.

LOSSES OF THE RUSSIANS.

The cemetery which is situated outside the walls, tells in unmistakable language that the mortality in the town must have been very large. Not only the cemetery itself, but all around it, is completely covered with mounds and fresh-made graves, which would seem to indicate that some thousands had lately been interred there. If this is the case with the only cemetery exposed to our fire, it is not too much to presume that others more sheltered and to the north had been even more crowded.

STOVES AND FUEL FOR THE ARMY.—The managers of Price's patent Candle Company have announced that the Government has given an order for 250 "candle stoves" and and 2000 boxes of fuel, for hospital use in the Crimea, and at Scutari and Smyrna. A good number, which have been purchased by the Crimea Committee, will be sent out for the use of the army.

FRENCH SURVEY OF SEBASTOPOL.—General Neil, an officer of engineers, in the confidence of the Emperor of the French, has been despatched to Sebastopol, to report upon the actual state of the siege, the troops, &c., preparatory to any attempt to assault the town. Everything will depend upon his report. If he should represent the condition of affairs as unfavourable to the attempt, the siege will be suspended, and the troops retire to a short distance from the fortress, and occupy a position contiguous to the Bay of Kamisch.

A DESERTER FROM THE BRITISH CAMP.

A deserter went over from our lines to the enemy on the 25th, leading a packhorse, or bat pony. He was perceived by the men in "No. 4. Battery." Muskets were fired at him, still he went on; at length a gun was laid on him, and a shot sent after him. The ball knocked up the earth near him, but the fellow only quickened his pace towards the Cossacks, and, as another shot was equally unsuccessful, he was allowed to join the Russians unmolested.

HUT-BUILDING MAKES LITTLE PROGRESS.

The huts, I am sorry to say, make no progress. One has been erected to each brigade, to serve for hospital purposes; but beyond these three or four, the men are under canvas as usual. Thank Heaven, we may now look forward to fine weather. It would be hoping against hope to rely on the wooden huts, which, even if we could continue at our present rate, will not be erected much before the summer is well in.

MENSCHIKOFF'S GALLANTRY.

The Morning Post's correspondent, writing on the 18th ult., relates the following laughable incident, and vouches for its accuracy:—An English officer, now a prisoner in Sebastopol, had a letter sent him from a young lady in England, to the effect that she "hoped when he took Menschikoff prisoner, that he would send her a button from his coat, for her to keep as a relic." The letter was yesterday forwarded by flag of truce into Sebastopol, with other letters for prisoners now in the enemy's hands. This letter fell into Menchikoff's own hands—of course to be read ere delivered. On coming to the above passage, he immediately cut a button from his coat, and sent it out under flag of truce, to be conveyed to the lady, with a remark to the following effect:—"That he had no idea yet of being taken prisoner, but rather than disappoint a young lady of so simple a request, he would fulfil her wish himself before that time arrived.

THE TURKS.

The Turks in the Chersonese do not seem to amount to more than 5000 or 6000, judging from the size of their encampments. These unfortunate troops are becoming a little less unhealthy. They have received supplies of new clothing and uniforms from Riza Pasha, the War Minister at Constantinople, and are assuming a respectable appearance. They seem better hands at building huts than the English or even the French, and their covered stables for the officers' horses are excellent. They crowd too much together, and their want of personal cleanliness, combined with the quantities of filth and offal left to accumulate in the immediate vicinity of their encampments, generates and fosters disease.

DOMESTIC.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 27.

A Bill was brought in by Mr. Connell for leasing Copper Mines in the County of Carleton, upon which progress was reported, after some discussion.

Mr. Tibbetts moved for information on the progress and expenses of the Canadian Boundary Line.

The House took up a Bill brought in by the Hon. Mr. Smith, for reducing the fees on Registration of Deeds and Wills, from one shilling and sixpence per hundred words. Progress reported.

Election Bill next taken up and Speeches made in its favour by Botsford, M'Pherson, and Ritchie. Against it by Ryan and Gray. Ritchie justified the extension of the franchise on the basis of taxation. Street taking copious notes.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 28.

A large number of grants was put on the Supply Book this morning. About an hour was spent in discussing an appropriation for a wharf in Albert; strongly advocated by Mr. Smith.

The House afterwards went into committee on the Election Bill. Cutler leading; speech generally was in opposition, but especially to the franchise qualification. Mr. Connell followed, in favour of the Bill, which he would fix solely in its extension to rate payers. End came next and in an eloquent speech defended the Bill generally. Mr. Wilmot followed, arguing among other things the unequal tendency of taxation in different places, consequently its inapplicability and his opinion of the abuses of the Ballot.

FREDERICTON, March 1.

The Election Bill was introduced at 12 o'clock, and Hatheway led off with a powerful Speech, adverse to the late Government, and in favor of the present one and the Ballot.

M'Phelim and M'Lellan followed in favor of the Bill, and Montgomery and Hayward against it.

Gillmour followed in its favor, and M'Naughton also. Strong words, almost amounting to a quarrel, arose between Montgomery and Johnson with reference to some allegations concerning the late Government

Hon. Mr. Smith came next, stating, that if the Collegiate system were not remodelled to his satisfaction, he would after another year resign his seat in the Council. Mr. Smith's Speech concluded the debate for the evening.

FREDERICTON, March 2.

The debate on the Election Bill was resumed to day, when his Honor the Speaker, in a short but forcible speech, sustained the Registration and Vote by Ballot, but denounced the Extension of the Franchise—would however vote for the whole bill rather than loose it. Harding followed, and then Steadman—both making clever speeches, but sorry that the franchise had not been extended further. Gilbert and Stephens next, in favour of registration and vote by ballot but not extension of the franchise. Next, Mr. Street—in an amendment on the 1st section—moved to continue the existing law and made a long and forcible speech. He was followed by the Hon. Solicitor General, who said—that the adoption of the amendment would destroy the whole bill, when the government must either resign or appeal to the people. Gray came next, and in a brilliant speech alluded frequently to the last St. John election; and then Tilley, in reply, very clever and conclusive. Tibbitts followed in support, and Hayward is now (half-past six) engaged in a rejoinder. Several of the last speeches have been in the gas light, and there is more than common excitement.

House divided—28 for the bill; 10 against.

SATURDAY, March 3rd.

The Election Bill has been under discussion during part of the day, and several amendments proposed, but sustained by only small minorities. It will pass like the Revenue Bill, without a single amendment.

March, 5

This morning, after the return of the members from the various committees, the details of the Election Bill were taken up and the various polling places fixed throughout the Province. After which Mr. Street gave notice that he would divide the House on the third reading. The House next took up Mr. Boyd's motion on the witholding of grants from sectarian schools, and this was followed by an amendment by Mr. Connell which while it sustains the general principle of the motion affirms and rejects several propositions beyond it. Opinions, varied as the faces of the members, followed; Counell and Boyd closed, the latter affirming that sectarian schools got £3,045. Vote on the amendment minority 5—M'Leod, Wilmot, Gray, Connell, Tibbitts; on the motion 10 minority—M'Pherson, M'Leod, Wilmot, Gray, Connell, Tibbitts, Gilbert, M'Adam, M'Phelim, End.

FIRE.—At about one o'clock last Friday morning, a fire broke out in the building lately erected by Mr. Ritchie, on Princess Street, which in a short time was almost entirely destroyed. The front and rear walls are still standing, however, and it will immediately be re-built. The fire, it is supposed, originated from one of the stoves kept by the plasterers to dry their work. The building is insured for £5000 sterling, in English Offices, which amount will probably cover the loss.

Letters and Monies Received.

Rev. George Rigly, rem. (4 sub.). John Whitman, Nictaux, Feb. 22nd. Rev. John Magee, 26th, rem. Rev. James Blakeney, 21st. Bro. HYGEANA.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all the diseases of the lungs. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which, he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavities of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at the Druggists' throughout the country.—[New York Journal Jan. 14.

See advertisement of Medical Ithalation in another column of this paper.

☞ Sold by FELLOWS & Co., St. John, and by al Druggists throughout the Province.

VERY IMPORTANT INPORMATION.

Dr. JOHNS, one of the most celebrated physicians in New York, writes as follows:

Dr. CURTIS—Dear Sir—Having witnessed the excellent effects of your Hygeana, or Inhalling Hygean Vapor, and Cherry Syrup, in a case of chronic Bronchitis, and being much in favor of counter irrtation in affections of the throat, bronchil tubes and lungs. I can therefore cheerfully recommend your Medicated Apparatus as being the most convenient and effectual mode of applying any thing of the kind I have ever seen. No doubt thousands of persons may be relieved, and many cured, by using your remedies.

You are at liberty to use this in any way you may think proper. Respectfully. yours, &c.

C. JOHNS, M. D. No. 609 Houston St., New York.

Prof. S. CENTER writes as follows:

Gentleman—I have recently had occasion to test your Cherry Syrup and Hygean Vapor in a case of chronic sore throat, that had refused to yield to other forms of treatment, and the result has satisfied me, that whatever may be the composition of your preparation, it is no imposition, but an excellent remedy. I wish, for the sake of the afflicted, that it might be brought within the reach of all.

Rev. Dr. Cheever writes:—

New York, Nov. 15, 1854.

Dear Sir—I think highly of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, in a remedy to diseases of the throat and lungs. Having had some opportunity to test its efficacy, I am convined that it is a most excellent medicine, both the Syrup and the inhaling application to the chest

The Hygeana is for sale at St. John by FELLOWS & Co., wholesale & retail. See Advertisement in another column. jan. 5.—1yr.

MARRIED.

On the 20th Jan., by the Rev. John Rowe, Mr. John M. C. Irvine, to Miss Susan D. Oulton, both of Westmorland County.

On 7th Feb., by Rev. J. Rowe, Mr. Richard Woodland, to Miss Mary Colter, both of Wallace, N. S.

DIED.

At Douglas, on Sunday, the 11th inst.. Mr. Nehemiah Easty, aged 84 years. Father Easty experienced religion under the labors of the Rev. Henry Allen,—he loved the Gospel's joyful sound; his house was always open for meeting until houses were built for that purpose; he took the lead of singing in his younger days, in which exercise he took great delight; his favorite hymn was Watts 7th, 1st book,—Let every mortal ear attend, &c.; he was very upright and moral in his deportment through life,—esteemed by all who knew him as a good man; his end was peace. Funeral on the 14th, at Kingsclear, improved by the writer from Psalms 89th. chap., 15th verse, first clause. Brother T. W. Saunders also took part in the services. Attendance very large and solemn.

At his residence in Hill Street, Newry, Ireland, on February 5th, after a lingering illness, Alexander Gillis, Esq., formerly of St. Stephen, N. B., most deservedly esteemed by all who knew him.

Melancholy Occurrence.

We regret to state that Mr. James Burrell, Merchant of this city, was summoned this morning suddenly to exchange worlds. He was engaged in doing something to the gas fixings hung at the ceilmg of his shop, when he fell from the ladder upon which he was standing, a distance of of about ten feet, fractured the back part of his skull, and expired almost instantly.

Mr. Burrell was 26 years of age, an only child, and has left a widowed mother, a beloved wife, and one child to deplore this unexpected and afflictive bereavement. He was a young gentleman highly esteemed in this community for his uprightness and integrity of character, and his death is deeply deplored by a large circle of acquaintances. Surely in the midst of life we are in death.

NEWLY IMPROVED MODEL MELODEONS!—A full assortment of these instruments will be kept constantly on hand for the future, at the Cabinet Warerooms of the Messrs. Lawrence, (at the head of King Street, over the Drug Store of Chaloner & Hunt,) who will be happy to wait upon parties wishing to examine or purchase. The price of these instruments vary from £16 to £48, according to size and style. They are believed to be unsurpassed in all the essential points pertaining to good instruments, especially in regard to Equality, Power, Sweetness of tone, Promptness of Action, and Style of Finish. Each instrument has a fixed price, from which no deduction can be made. Hence persons incapable of judging of an instrument stand in no danger of deception.

From a large number of recommendations voluntarily given by distinguished Musicians, the following have been selected:

[From Wm. B. Bradbury.]

Messrs. Mason & Hamlin,—Gents,—I heard with pleasure of your commencing the manufacture of Melodeons, feeling assured that you would be able from your practical skill, ample facilities, and peculiar advantages, to effect important improvements in the construction of these Instruments Having now had an opportunity of examining a number of your instruments, I am by no means disappointed in the result. You are certainly producing Melodeons, which, in all desirable characteristics are, so far as I can perceive, faultless. An Instrument possessing so many beauties, is admirably adapted to the parlor and the church, and I am satisfied that so soon as the public become acquainted with the superior merits of your instruments, your only trouble will be to supply the demand.

New York, June 2, 1854. WM. B. BRADBURY.

[From Lowell Mason.]

"After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs. Mason and Hamlin, I am enabled to say, that, in my opinion, they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted."

New York, July 1, 1854. LOWELL MASON.

[From George F. Root,]

Henry Mason, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—Having had an opportunity of examining Mason & Hamlin's "Model Melodeons," I'm happy to bear testimony to their great excellence.

In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of Tone and Tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours, very truly, GEORGE F. ROOT.

New York, May 25, 1854.

[From Edwin Bruce.]

Mr. Henry Mason,—Dear Sir,—It is with much pleasure that I offer my testimony as to the excellence of the improved "Model Melodeons" manufactured by Mason & Hamlin. I have examined them with much satisfaction, am prepared to express my congdent opinion, that they are the most perfect Instruments of the kind manuactured, so far as I know. I might mention several points, in which I think they excel, as the following: the Tone, both as regards Quality and Quantity; the Action, which is exceedingly prompt, and the tune, which is as perfect as any instrument well can be. I have no doubt that the "Model Melodeons" are destined to become universal favorites, as they really deserve. Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

Conductor of Music as Bowdoin Street Chiusch.

Boston, May 31, 1854.

Believing these instruments to be decidedly superior to those of any other make, and having full confidence in their ability to give perfect satisfaction to the most fastidious, I have accepted the Agency for this Province, and will supply Instruments at the manufacturer's prices, with the single addition of the duties. The Manufacturer's price list may be seen at the Warerooms.

Every Instrument fully warranted.

March 8. M. A. STEVENS.

TO HOUSE-KEEPERS, SHOP-KEEPERS, AND CHILDREN.—For one dollar, postpaid, I will send 50 choice and valuable recipes, not generally known. Those that are in the shop line can realize a little fortune from them; invaluable to housekeepers, and to children; they save their pennies, and have the pleasure of manufacturing their own confectionary. Among them are Temperance Cider, a healthful and pleasant beverage for summer, does not grow hard, but improves on age—this recipe cost me $10,00. Excellent Mineral Water, equal to that manufactured in Boston, can be made in half an hour—this cost me $500. Many new kinds of Cakes and Candies, Candying corn, Sugaring parched corn, Nuts, Cookery for the sick,—a most valuable recipe for Sudden Stoppage, &c., &c.

Being left alone, superannuated, and an invalid, I take this method of imparting my knowledge or a few choice recipes, out of many hundreds, not only for my own benefit, but for the world, "before I go hence, and am no more seen." Address C. W. C.,
Rockland, Maine
