DAY OF WONDERS.

Day of judgment, day of wonders!
Hark! the trumpet's awful sound,
Loud as a thousand thunders,
Shakes the vast creation round!
How the summons
Will the sinners heart confound!
See the judge, our nature wearing,
Cloth'd in majesty divine!
You who long for his appearing,
Then shall say, "This God is mine!"
Gracious Saviour,
Own me in that day for thine!
At his call the dead awaken,
Rise to life from earth and sea;
All the powers of nature shaken
By his looks prepare to flee.
Careless sinner!
What will then become of thee?
But to those who have confessed,
Loved and served the Lord below,
He will say, "Come near, ye blessed,
See the Kingdom I bestow,
You for ever
Shall my love and glory know."

Andrew Fuller and Missions.

A correspondent has sent us the following anecdote related of Mr. Fuller, remarking that it will no doubt prove interesting to many of our readers, and enforce the importance of contributing to the cause of God from right motives. He says—

"It is related of this worthy man, remarkable for his ingenuities, that on a tour which he made for the purpose of soliciting donations for the British Missions in India, he called on a certain wealthy Lord, in England, who was not personally acquainted with Mr. Fuller, but had heard of his disinterested labors, in the cause of missions, and the report of his talents and piety. After he had stated to him the object of his visit, the lord observed, that he thought he should make no donation; and Mr. Fuller was preparing to retire; when the former observed, there was one man, Andrew Fuller, to whom, if he could see him, he thought he would give something for the mission. Mr. Fuller immediately observed, 'My name, sir, is Andrew Fuller.' On this the nobleman with some coldness, gave him a guinea. Observing the indifference with which the money was presented, Mr. Fuller, looking the nobleman in the face with much gravity, addressed him with this interrogation, 'Does the gift, sir, proceed from your heart? If it does not, I wish not to receive it.' The nobleman melted and overcame with this honest frankness, spontaneously took from his purse, and presented him ten guineas more, with this remark, 'There, Sir, that comes from the heart.'"

It was an important idea with Mr. Fuller, to enforce this sentiment, that men should do good from a good motive. On a certain occasion, when he preached a charity sermon, after stating to his hearers their duty in the case, he warned them against giving from the opinion of thereby meriting the favor of God; and instead of flattering them in order to draw from them their money, he plainly stated to them: "If any of you propose to give with such a corrupt motive, I warn you of the danger of such conduct."

Wives and Mothers.

The wives and mothers of our farmers need more encouragement in the labor of love that falls to their lot. Their round of duties often seems monotonous, their lives ungraceful, their home lacking in refinement. How often the sigh escapes them, "O for more intellectual food for myself and my children!" When they go out into the world, will they not feel themselves so far behind their fellows, that discouragement will take the place of noble ambition, and their lives will become a failure. There is a charm against this which every mother should understand. Childhood demands simply that its tastes shall all be fed, like its body, on simple, coarse fare. Give them just enough for growth, and culture and pruning will come in after years. All that a mother need feel solicitous for in early childhood, is alimony enough for the healthy growth of all the faculties. The tendency in country life is to neglect the finer elements belonging to the region of the ideal, while the practical, the unpoetical, is cultivated and praised, till the child feels that nothing is truly valuable that cannot be counted in dollars and cents. The city is liable to the opposite extreme. External grace must be cultivated often at the expense of truth and integrity.

My observations have convinced me that no mother need despair who uses even the most limited means for the culture of her children. I remember some little girls who were to love colors, and they could gratify their artistic tastes in no way but by expressing the juice of leaves and flowers. They were rude works of art which the little artists produced, but they kept alive the soul of art. Years have fled, and now their homes are rendered beautiful by artistic hands, and their children's garments are beautified by such embroidery as the wealthy purchase at great cost, but to them it is the filling up of moments of half leisure, when the presence of a guest compels them to forego coarser avocations. Now, as formerly, this is their recreation. I thought of the mother who had encouraged their little efforts, and fed their little love and taste, so that now they were able to both appreciate beauty and poetry, and to contribute largely to their production.

How to become interested in books.

A celebrated divine has said:—
"I know how hard it is to some men, especially to those who spend much time in manual labor, to fix attention on books. Let them strive to overcome the difficulty by reading subjects of deep interest, or by reading in company of those whom they love. Nothing can supply the place of books. They are cheering or soothing companions in solitude, illness, affliction. The wealth of both continents would not compensate for the good they impart. Let every man, if possible, gather some good books under his roof, and obtain access for himself and family, to some small library. Almost any luxury should be sacrificed to this."

THE GREAT ASSIZE.

The following is a copy of a placard said to have been written by the late Rev. Rowland Hill, on the occasion of a new and very popular Performance being advertised at one of the Metropolitan Theatres, many years ago, and which, when printed, he caused to be posted about the streets side by side with the notice of the new play. A more startling and pointed warning to the unconverted perhaps never was penned by man. What the result of this somewhat eccentric act upon the public mind was, we have no means of determining, but "the day shall declare it!"

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR IN SPIRIT.

"By Command of the King of Kings, and at the Desire of all who 'Love His Appearance.'"

AT THE THEATRE OF THE UNIVERSE.

On the Evening of Time, will be performed "The GREAT ASSIZE, or DAY OF JUDGMENT."

The Scenery, which is now actually preparing, will not only surpass everything that eye hath seen, but will infinitely exceed the utmost stretch of human conception. There will be a just representation of all the inhabitants of the world, in their various and proper colors, and their customs and manners will be so exactly and minutely delineated, that the most secret thought will be discovered.

For GOD shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good or evil. Eccles. xii. 14.

This Theatre will be laid out after a new plan, and will consist of a PIT and GALLERY; and contrary to all others, the Gallery is fitted up for the reception of people of high or (heavenly) birth, and the Pit for those of low (or earthly) rank.

N. B.—The Gallery is very spacious and the Pit without bottom. To prevent inconvenience, there are separate doors for admitting the company; and they are so different, that none can mistake that are not fully blind. The door which opens into the Gallery is very narrow, and the steps up to it are somewhat difficult; for which reason there are seldom many people about it. But the door that gives entrance into the Pit is very wide, and seems commodious, which causes such numbers to flock to it that it is generally crowded.

N. B.—The straight door leads towards the right hand, and the broad one to the left. It will be in vain for one in a tinselled coat and borrowed language to personate one of high birth, in order to gain admittance into the upper places; for there is one of wonderful and deep penetration who will search and examine every individual, and all who are not savingly converted, but die in their sins; all who have not learned the language of Canaan, and cannot sing the song of Moses and the Lamb; all who are not born again, and baptized with the Holy Ghost; all who have not received a white stone and a new name written thereon, all those must be turned to the left hand.

THE PRINCIPAL PERFORMERS

are described in 2 Thes. i. 7, 8, 9; Matt. xxi. 31, 32; Dan. vii. 9, 10. But as there are some people much better acquainted with the contents of a Play-bill than the Word of God, it may not be amiss to transcribe a word or two for their perusal. "The Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and obey not the Gospel," but "to be glorified in his saints. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him; thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him; the judgment was set, and the books were opened. And whosoever was not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire." Revelation xxi. 15.

The First Act

OF THIS GRAND AND SOLEMN PIECE, will be opened by an ARCHANGEL WITH THE TRUMP OF GOD! "For the Trumpet shall sound and the Dead shall be raised." 1 Cor. xv. 52.

Act the Second

Will be a procession of THE SAINTS IN WHITE, Consisting of Patriarchs, Prophets and Apostles, the noble army of Martyrs; with all the redeemed of every kindred, and people, and tongue; WITH GOLDEN HARPS: The Music accompanied with the New Song of "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, for ever and ever."

The Third Act

Will be an Assemblage of all the Unregenerate, with Liars, Whoremongers, Murderers, Drunkards, and whoever loveth and maketh a Lie; when instead of Music and Divine Songs, there will be Lamentations, and Mourning and Woe, accompanied with Weeping and Gnashing of Teeth. To conclude with an ORATION by the

SON OF GOD,

As written in 25th Matthew, from v. 34, but for the sake of those who seldom read the Scriptures, I shall here transcribe two verses: "Then shall the King say to them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. Then shall he say to them on his left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels."

After which the Curtain will immediately drop!

WHEN

The everlasting doors shall then the saints receive,
Above you angel powers in glorious joy to live;
Far from a world of grief and sin,
With God eternally shut in.

While those who trampled under foot his grace,
Are banished now forever from his face,
And with the huge celestial bodies
Roll, amidst the universal fire,
And shrink to see a yawning hell.

O THAT THEY WERE WISE, THAT THEY UNDERSTOOD THIS, That they would CONSIDER THEIR LATTER END. Deut. xxi. 9.

Tickets of admission into the Pit are sold at every place of temptation, where the "lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye, and the pride of life" are displayed. The price is, giving way to these things, and sinning against an all-wise God.

For, thus saith the Lord, "THE SOUL THAT SINNETH IT SHALL DIE." Ezekiel, chapter xviii. verse 4.

Tickets of admittance into the Gallery may be had, gratis, at the fountain opened for all sin and for uncleanness (and no where else, Acts iv. 12), but will be given only to those who are willing to deny all ungodliness, and take up the cross daily; to forsake all self-righteousness, and follow Christ in the regeneration.

N. B.—This is not required of infants, as appears from 2 Cor. vii. 12, and that they are saved, is plain from Rom. v. 16, compared with Ezek. xlvii. 2, 3, 4.

"HE THAT HATH EARS TO HEAR LET HIM HEAR." Matthew x. 15.

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked." "For whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." Galatians vi. 7.

Tickets not transferable, and no money will be taken at the door. All who are admitted into the Galleries must be sprinkled with the blood of Christ, and sealed with Immanuel's signet; therefore, Prepare to meet thy God. Amos ix. 12. For in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh. Matthew xxiv. 44.

A Mother in the last Century.

Our age has been notable for its numerous theories pertaining to "women's rights," and for the remarkable success achieved by women in the walks of popular literature, but it will hardly be claimed by any that the mothers of our generation have more sterling or more practical wisdom than the mothers of earlier days. One might search widely without finding an original for the following portrait of Jonathan Edwards' mother, which we find in Zion's Herald:

Devotely pious, consecrated to her work, and entering into all her husband's plans of usefulness, she was, at the same time, remarkably intellectual. Her concealed metaphysics broke out amidst kitchen and parish duties; and even in her devotions, she was a philosopher without knowing it. Inferior to her husband in taste and years of life, she possessed a more stern and powerful intellect; fond of reasoning, of studying philosophy, and pondering the deepest problems of theology. Had Paul's prohibition been out of the way, she might have eclipsed her companion in the pulpit, and anticipated the fame of her immortal son.

As it was, her ambition was content to operate in her sphere; to train the family, to instruct the ignorant, to bless the stranger, and in all her ways, to aid her husband in his work. She assumed the entire care of the family, managing all the temporal affairs, in doors and out, and thus permitting him to devote all his time and efforts to his charge and his studies. In addition to these duties, which were by no means slight, she contrived to find time to read all the great theological works of the age. A new book was not long in the house before she devoured it, which was about synonymous with the digestion of its contents.

In later life, after the death of her husband, and when she had passed the bounds of ninety years, she found a season of leisure which was devoted to study. Most persons, at that advanced age, would have passed their days in dreamy musings, with faculties nearly perished; but she had her books, and every day, invited in her neighbours to read with her, when she would make remarks that exhibited her extensive and acute research, and the almost undiminished powers of her mind.

BEAUTY.—That which is required, in order to the attainment of accurate conclusions respecting the beautiful, is nothing more than earnest loving, and unselfish attention to our impressions of it, by which those which are permanents, may be distinguished from those that are eternal.—Ruskin.

The mark of the Meek of Christ is the only mark that can save us from destruction.

When the angels are separating the children of Adam into two companies at the last day, if we are found marked with the atoning blood, we shall never have been born.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

TROY, OHIO, August 30, 1855.

Mr. PERRY DAVIS—Dear Brother: I feel it to be my duty to bear testimony to the efficacy of your infallible Pain Killer. I have used it for years, for complaints of the stomach and bowels, having formerly been subject to severe attacks of diarrhoea, and cholera morbus, but for the last twenty years I have not had occasion to use it or any other medicine for my digestive organs. I had a very severe attack a few days ago of the ague, and such a pain in my back, for three days and nights, that I could get no rest. I demanded of my physicians, after several things had been tried, to give me something to relieve my back and head of pain. He said I must bathe, and walk, till the ague wore off, and the pain would wear away. I had too much pain to feel easy, and sent and got a 25 cent bottle of the "Vegetable Pain Killer." I took a little inwardly and bathed according to directions, and one application has removed all the pain, and I am able to write to-day, though with a tremulous hand. The application was made last night about 9 o'clock, and I had a sweet night's rest, I have recommended it for several years, as I have travelled a good deal, and it has given universal satisfaction. It has been used according to directions.

Yours, gratefully,

L. PERRY CHILDS.

Pastor of Baptist Church, Troy, Ohio.

A letter from Rev. Charles H. Hildner, of this city, has been handed us for publication, from which we make the following extracts:—"Providence Jour. NEWTON, MAINE, June 6, 1855: Dear Father, I have been intending to write for a supply of Perry Davis' Pain Killer for months, but have let other things prevent hitherto. Will you kindly say to Mr. Davis that Mrs. Hildner and myself, and indeed I might add all who came out with me, feel very grateful for the box of Pain Killer which he gave us, when we left our native land for Burmah. I have used it for Coughs, Cold and violent internal pains, summer complaints, burns, bruises, and for the stings of Scorpions, and with uniform success. The only severe spasm of the stomach which Mrs. Hildner has had in Burmah, was instantly relieved by the Pain Killer. We always keep it where we can put our hand on it in the dark, if need be. Although I took Mr. Davis' box as a present, I have my own bottle returned to America, still it is all gone but three or four bottles, and that would have been gone long ago if I had not refused to part with it. The Karens also, are beginning to learn its value, and all the testimonials are coming in from the ignorant, for I would not think of being without it. With Dr. Jayne's Family medicines and the Pain Killer, I feel myself well armed against disease, that is in all ordinary cases. They are indispensable, and seldom fail me when I need them. Rev. C. H. Hildner.

This unparalleled Preparation is receiving more testimonials of its wonderful efficacy in removing pain, than any other medicine ever offered to the public. And these testimonials are not alone from the ignorant, but from persons of every degree of intelligence and every rank of life. Physicians of the first respectability, and perfectly conversant with the nature of diseases and remedies, have recommended this one of the most effective of all the lines of preparation for the extinction of Pain. The Pain Killer is used internally and externally, according to the nature of the complaint. It has been found to be an excellent remedy in Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, Ague, Asthma and Phthisis, Pain in the Head, Kidney Complaints, Piles, Rheumatic Complaints, Bruises and Sores, Severe Burns, Canker, Bites and Rings, Weak Stomach, and General Debility. Pain in the Broken Breast, Bowel Complaints, and Dysentery, Cholera, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Toothache, &c. &c.

The genuine PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is now put up in two bottles, with words "Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer" blown in the glass, and with two steel engraved labels on each bottle—one an excellent likeness of PERRY DAVIS, the original Inventor of the medicine; the other a steel engraved Note of Hand—both of which are blown in the glass.

Price of bottles—12 1-2 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1, respectively.

For sale of most of the medicine dealers throughout the Kingdom.

KENNEDY'S MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

The Greatest of the Age.—MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds, a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, and restores the system to its normal state. Pimples. He has tried it in over seven hundred cases and never failed except in two. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore milk.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of bile.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure the salt rheum.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed, growing in the pastures, and along old stone walls should cure humor in the system; yet it is so.

Set it to work, and you have a humor that is sure to start. There are no its no outside about it, no eruptions
