Prohibitory Law.

Nonton, Febuary 2, 1856. Dear Brother,-It is amusing to hear the groanings and whinings of the Rum Shops under the lashes of your excellent Prohibitory Liquor Law, and I have no doubt, from what I can learn in travelling through the country, that the friends of Prohibition will cause the law to be obeyed and respected. Already is the hydrahe ded monster, intemperance, with all the evils and miseries which follow in his train, beginning to fee away before the irresistable force of the Maine Law; the Press, the Clergy and the Temperance organizations through the Province.

Friends of the Law be not discouraged, the storm will soon be over, the victory will soon be won, and the time is near at hand when these who now oppose you, will bless God that you hved and that you so energetically laboured for the enactment and enforcement of a Law which will have brought so many blessings upon the Province, their friends, and doubtless upon themselves and their relatives.

I am a Nova Scotian, and am one of those who have been labouring for a long tune, to obtain a similar Law for our Province, and feel much interested in the working of the Law in New Brunswick, masmuch as it will have great influence in Nova Scotia.

BAPTIST SEMINARY, Feb. 9, 1856. Rev. and Dear Brother,-Since my last .communication to your valuable "Visitor," we have witnessed some displays of divine power in our midst. A number of precious souls in this place, and also in Cardigan, have publicly professed their attachment to the Lord Jesus Christ, by being baptized in his blessed name The causo seems to flourish in Cardigan. It is expected that a number more will soon own the Redeemer in that place. During the past wweeks, our congregations in this city have increased considerably. The week evening Lord." services have become deeply interesting, and have been largely attended, and the Lord's people are much encouraged.

The Seminary is in a prosperous state .--Some of the students are anxious about their soul's salvation, and have desired the prayers of God's people. Quite a number in this place have lately been called to meet their final change. This causes many in the community to feel solemn. May the Lord sanctify these occurrences to the spiritual welfare of many souls.

Three have been baptized here since my last, and six in Cardigan, making nine in all. Pray for us that the good work may continue. The Lord of revivals bless you in St. John .- I remain, yours, in a Saviour's love.

Obituary.

Some time since we put an obituary notice of Mrs. LAWRENCE PHINNEY, of Wilmot, N. S. into the hands of our printer, for insertion in the Visitor, but by some means it got mislaid, and, consequently, has never appeared. Not if she thought she would ever recover? She said no; but said she did not like to tell Pa, and the children, they would be so unwilling to give her up; and added, that they should not be, as she had been spared to them a long time; and now, if it was the Lord's will to take her away, they should cheerfully give her up. She endured seven months of severe suffering, with much Christian fortitude. When her Christian friends visited her, she would urge them to have strong confidence in the Saviour ; and those that she feared were out of the ark of safety, she faithfully warned to flee from the wrath to come, telling them that a sick-bed was no place for repentance. 1-visited her a few hours before she died. I never shall forget her anxious look as she called me to her bedside, and as I leaned over her wasted form, she told me how oft, by day and night, she had prayed that the Lord would bring me safe hrough every trial-and added, she felt the evidence that he would do so. Oh, she said, be a kind mother to your dear children-pray much for them, and God will bless them-these were her last words to me. She revived a little afterwards, and begged one of my younger brothers to give his heart to God-Will youoh, will you, my son, give your youthful heart to God? You will never be sorry. After a time she revived, and one of her neighbours stood by her bed-side, she recognized him, and calling him by name, said she was very near the port, and so it was, for in a few hours, she bid adieu to all things here below, and her happy spirit took its flight to the mansions

Long and earnestly have many of the Lord's indicative of an answer to these prayers, and of the cessation of hostilities than any thing we have had since the commencement of the war. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KIELER.

TROY, OHIO, August 30, 1855.

Mr. PERRY DAVIS .- Dear Brother: I feel it to be y duty to bear testimony to the efficacy of your in fallible Pain Killer. I have used it for years, for com-plaints of the stomach and bowels, having formerly been subject to severe attacks of diarrhoa, and cholera morbus, but for the last two years I have not had occasion to use it or any other medicine for that com plaint, it having perfectly restored my digestive or gans, 1 had a very severe attack a few days ago of the ague, and such a pain in my back, for three days and nights, that I could get no rest. I demanded of my physicians, after several things had been tried, to give me something to relieve my back and head of pain. He said I must bathe, and wait till the ague wore off, and the pain would wear away, I had too much pain to feel easy, and sent and got a 25 cent bottle of the "Vegetable Pain Killer." I took a little inwardly and bathed according to directions, and one applito day, though with a trembling hand. The appli-cation was made last night about 9 o'clock, and 1 had a sweet night 's rest, I have recommended it for several years, as I have travelled a good deal, and it has given universal satisfaction where it has been used Yours, gratefully, L. PERRY CHILDS. according to directions.

Pastor of Baptist Church, Troy, Ohio.

A letter from Rev. Charles Hibbard, missionary in Burmah, to his father, Joseph Robinson, Esq., of this city, has been handed us for publication, from which we make the following extracts.-[Providence Jour. NEWTON, MAULMAIN, June 6, 1855 : Dear Father, I have been intending to write for a supply of Perry Davis' Pain Killer for months, but have let other things prevent hitherto. Will you kindly say to Mr. Davis that Irs. Hibbard and myself, and indeed I might add all who came out with us, feel very grateful for the box of Pain Killer which he gave us, when we left our native land for Bormah, I have used it for Coughs, Cold and violent internal pains, summer complaints burns, bruises, and for the sting of Scorpions, and with uniform success. The only severe spasm of the stomach which Mrs. Hibbard has had in Burmah, was instantly relieved by the Pain Killer. We always keep it where we can put our hand on it in the dark, if need be. Although I took Mr. Nisbet's box in addition to my own, when he returned to America, still it is all gone but three or four bottles, and that would have been gone long ago had I not refused to part with it The Karens also, are beginning to learn its value, and call for its use, but I have to deny them, except in doses for I would not think of being without it. With doses, for I would not think of being without it. With Dr. Jayne's Family medicines and the Pain Killer, J feel myself well armed against disease, that is in all fidinary cases. They are indispensable, and I seldom meddle with other medicines.—Rev. C. HIBBARD.

THIS unpartalled Preparation is receiving more testi-monials of its wonderful efficacy in removing pain, than any other medicine ever offered to the public. And these testimonials come not alone from the igno-rant, but from persons of every degree of intelligence and every rank of life, Physicians of the first respect ability, and perfectly conversant with the nature o diseases and remedies, have recommended this as one of the most effectual in their line of preparations to the extinction of Pain. The Pain Killer is used in ternally and externally, according to the nature of the complaint. It has been found to be an excellent remedy for sudden Colds, Coughs, &c., Fever and Ague, Asthma and Phthisic, Pain in the Head, Kid-Complaints, Piles, Rheumatic Complaints, Bruises and Sores, Severe Burns, Canker, Biles and Ringhams, Weak Stomach, and General Debility, Painter's Colic, Broken Breasts, &c., Bowel Complaint and Dysentery, Cholera, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Toothache, &c. &c.

The genuine PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER is now put up in panel bottles, with the words Davis' Vege-table Pain Killer blown in the glass; and with two steel engraved labels on each bottle-one an excellent likeness of PERRY DAVIS, the original Inventor of the nedicine ; the other a steel engraved Note of Handnone others can be relied on as genuine. long since, the following touching letter was received from her daughter, Mrs. William Shafner, and although not written for the public eye, yet, as it furnishes a truthful sketch of the character of Mrs. Phinney, and at the same time, strikingly illustrates the power of maternal influence, we trust, we shall be pardoned by the author, for giving it a place in our columns, instead of the notice which was lost in the Office. Seldom has it been our lot to be acquainted with one more truly devoted to the service of God, or more faithful to the requirements of a genuine piety, than was this departed sister; and it is pleasing to know that hereligious instructions, blended, as they were, with a spotless example, were not lost upon those who were the special objects of her maternal love and solicitude. Read what her daughter says upon this subject :--

"Dear Mr. Bill .- I have long been thinking of writing to you, and have now resolved to do so. I feel so anxious that you would put a notice in your valuable paper, the Christian Visitor, concerning the life, as well as the death, of my dear, sainted Mother. I know there is no minister so well acquainted with her as yourself; it was under your ministry that she received her almost first religious impressions. it was you that buried her in Christian baptism-that initiated her into the Christian Church; and. I have no doubt, but you well remember the many times you have met her in Conference Meetings, where she oftimes mingled her joys and sorrows with you and the people of God. I can remember accompanying her there, and although but a mere child, my tender heart would heave with emotion when my dear mother arose to speak, and [] wished to feel as she and the people of God seemed to feel, while their hearts would melt as in Christian sympathy they expressed what the Lord had done for their souls. And is this all that can be said? Oh. no! I think she was an that can be said? On, not I think she was one of the purest every-day Christians that lived in this age. Well I can remember how oft at twilight she would gather her little group around her, and commit them to the care of her Redeemer. How oft she would tell us the story of the crucified Saviour, and strive to implant into our youthful hearts the virtues of religion. Seeret prayer was her delight.-Ever since I can remember, I have seen her at the close of evening read a portion of God's word, and retire for secret prayer; and as I grew up and left the paternal roof, it appeared to me that my prosperity was alone in answer to my dear mother's prayers. Let me be in company, or alone in sickness or in health, I felt a solemnity resting upon me at the time when I knew my dear mother was interceding at a throne of grace in my behalf. Oh what a halo her prayers has shed around my what a halo her prayers has shed around my path! And since it has been mine to be a mo-ther, what a help her exemplary conduct has been to me, when I have had to wade through the deep wafers of affliction. I have thought of her Christian resignation, and prayed for the same. Oh. I do feel to bless the Lord for such a mother, and think I can say with one of the great men of the past age— All that I am I owe to my mother. And although she is dead, she yet speaketh, for when temptation is dead, she yet speaketh, for when temptation is before me, it appears to me that I can almost hear her warning me to flee, lest I should of-fend God. Oh, how much she feared that we who professed to know the Lord, would stray, and bring a stain upon the Church, or be stum-bling blocks in the way of others; but her warning voice no more we hear. On the first of last March, she was seized with sickness that we did not at all apprehend was unto death; but it soon became evident that her sickness was unto death. I asked her once, when vis-
