wick, offer our thanks to Your Excellency for your Speech at the present Session. We acknowledge with satisfaction the propriety of Your Excellency's having recurred to the sense of the people, and believe that so judicious an exercise of the power entrusted to your Excellency by the Constitution, will not be attended with the most beneficial effects.

The Law which prohibits the importation, munufacture of, and traffic in, Intoxicating Liquors, affecting as it does the social and financial interests of this Province, is a subjert for earnest deliberation, and any mea sure bearing thereupon, which may be submitted to us, will receive that grave consider-ation which its importance demands.

and in We cordially agree with Your Excellency that the maintenance of liberty and order can only be secured by a uniform adherence to the principles of the Constitution, and by preserving in their just balance the rights of each Branch of the Legislature. We feel assured that your Excellency has no wish but to consult the general welfare and preserve unimpaired the Constitution, and we regard the promptitude with which your Excellency has called the Legislature together, as affording an additional proof of your watchful care for the public interests. We shall proceed to our labours with the hope, that under the guidance of Providence, they may conduce to the peace and prosperity of the Province.

To-day were introduced-A Bill to enlarge the powers of Justices of the Peace with res pect to the Gaol limits, by Mr. Gilmour :- A Bill to amend the Charter of the Moncton Rural Cemetary Company, by Mr. Botsford -read a first and second time ;- A Bill to prevent certain persons from holding seats in the Assembly, by Mr. Smith ;- A B.II to encourage the destruction of Bears, by Mr. Kerr ; - A Bill to Incorporate the St. Andrews Rural Cemetary Company, by Mr. Boyd. The Bill to provide for the expenses of the Legislature, introduced on Thursday by Mr. End, was read a second time. The pay is the same as last session; but the pay of the Speaker and President of the Council for the short session, limited to £50.

Mr. Fisher gave notice of an address for the Minute of the Council, respecting the ap-pointment of Postmaster, and what regulations were made in the department since the appointment.

Mr. Hatheway presented the petition of Mr. MacNaughton, making allegations respecting the election at Gloucester, and conduct of scruiny, and praying that the return be amended. Mr. Gillmor gave notice of an address for the copies of the petitions presented to the Governor for a dissolution, with signatures and date of reception, as there was much difference of opinion on this subject. The Attorney General seemed to promise that it would be furnished.

It was the duty of the Council to resign before asked to prepare a Proclamation, but the Proclamation prepared by the Secretary of strange symptoms in the head since Jan. had no force of law, as it was not signed by last, and was becoming quite deaf. We the Governor, who did not dissolve until the learn that the doctor is having good success try was convinced that to continue the law, would lead to demoralization, lawlessness, Acc., and that it was un-read the article in the Religious Interna-that the Government is composed of Puseyites and Catholics, polluted Protestantism and Ro-manism, and regretted deeply the introduction of such elements, and did not understand why he was called Puseyite, and called on any one of who could charge him with any act of bigotry, of who could charge him with any act of bigotry, function to trample on the rights of any de-ment to put one up or who are to trample on the rights of any de-ment to put one up or who are to trample on the rights of any de-ment to put one up or who are to trample on the rights of any de-ment to put one up or min any standard discussion of the s of the dissolution, asking him to join with him in any Government, was a member of the same denomination as the Intelligencer, and he did not know why any were called dissenters, and the appointments of the former Council, to the Legislative Council, proved whether they were liberal in that respect. ed it to be understood that if the Government, as constituted, did not suit the country it must be changed ; but he believed that the feeling of the House and the country was, that while any Government discharged its duties faithfully and to the satisfaction of the public they should get fair play.

He contrasted the positions he and his col leges held at last elections and previous with that held on the poils by the members of the late Government. He never had lost the con-fidence of the people, they heard much of liber-ality, but he was assured that those who made the loudest professions of liberality had pass-ed a resolution not to employ those who had voted against them at the St. John elections. He denied he was inconsistent in joining the Government in 1851; he and the present Judge Ritchie agreed on some 18 divisions, while they differed on some 40 that year, and he never pretended to agree in all political views with that gentleman. He spoke of Constitu-tional Government in 1854, in which a leading man was Judge Richie, who held a seat belonging to Mr. Goddard, nine persons having vot-ed for Mr. Ritchie—each three times, and Mr. Brown, another member, being low on the poll Charlotte. House adjourned at 1 o'clock, until 10 had not o'clock to-morrow.

PREDERICTON, July 19. This morning the Attorney General announced in the House that the vacant offices in the Government would be filled up immediately. Mr. Smith's bill to exclude certain persons from holding seats in the Assemby, was read a second time.

Notice of an address to His Excellency was given by Mr. Gillmor, for the purpose of having copies of all petitions on the subject of the dissolution laid before the House.

The Address in reply to the Governor's Speech was taken up shortly after the reading of the Journals.

Mr. Boyd, as the mover, made a short speech, eulogizing the act of the Governor. Mr. Fisher spoke for two hours on the subject of Constitutional Government, and against the course pursued by His Excellency in dissolving the House. Mr. Hatheway spoke briefly in support of the address, and in reply to Mr. Fisher. A long discussion arose in reference to question of order, after decision of which the House adjourned one hour for dinner. Several menbers warmly opposed the recess at

In the afternoon Mr. End opened the de-bute in a speech eulogizing the Governor and the Address.

Mr. Johnson spoke at considerable length in opposition to the course pursued by the Go-vernor, and explained the points upon which he was opposed to the Address. Mr. Wilmot spoke briefly, but the hour-being late, he discontinued with the under-standing that he will resume the debate on Monday morning.

The discussion on the Address will probably occupy Monday and Tuesday. It is not expected that any amendment will be offered. Messrs Hill and Graham have entered into contract for reporting and publishing the de-bates of the present session, a Committee having been authorized to make the arrange-

FREDERICTON, July 21.

Wilmot opened the debate soon after ten, gain stated that he would have voted for the repeal of the Government measure, and that no similarity existed between the case in '52 and '54, as the Council never consulted in '52, and the revenue from liquors was larger b2, and the revenue from hquors was larger in that and the following years than in any previous. If he had been placed in the same position as Johnson after opposing the Bill, he would have resigned rather than sign a docn-ment recommending the Governor's assent; he was always prepared to resign when those views were not acted on, and as was known to many, he was never an office seeker; he would have preferred to stand outside the Government at the late elections untrammeled by office, but that he felt it his duty to accept office and responsibility. He asserted that the break up in '54 was a foul blot on responsible government then turned out—had been returned at the head of the poll in several of ties, and he believed the people wished the to retain office, he might have remained flice if he would. The majority in the House ished it, but he refused to change his prin-

News of the Week

On Monday night, the 14th inst., the body of a man named Francis Totton was found near Tisdale's fam, on the Marsh Road, about two miles from the city of St. John, by two policemen. The deceased bore marks of having received violent treatment. There was a severe wound on the forehead, another on the small of the back, end it was also reported that his neck was broken. A woman named Ellen McDonald was near the spot, when the body was found, stated that deceased came and fetched her from the Alms House, and took her to the house of a Mrs. Grey, after which they went to Mrs. Hayes' on the Marsh, and got some ale and gin. They then left the house and was followed by two men with caps over their eyes, who on coming up, knocked Totten down and ran away. The inquest was held on Tuesday and the inquiry lasted four days when the jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against Thomas Smith as principal, and James has given himself up to justice, but Smith and Culbert are still at large. It appears that the of-ficers who found the body, took no immediate steps to discover the murderers, but remained with the body in the dead house for about two hours. This certainly does not look like the vigilance we expect to find in officers appointed to look after the property and lives of the people.
