SUDDEN BEATH .--- A man named Cathers said to be an Engineer in Messrs. Harris and Allen's Foundry, died suddenly in a house of all-tames on Sunday evening. A Coroner's inquest was heid yesterday, but we have not learned the particulars. tak

The bulies of several of the crew of the schr. Geneva, lost at Sciuate, near Bosion, have been washed ashore, among which is reported that of John Romsey, (cook,) of St. Joen N. B.

Mr. William Colwell, Junior, has been ap pointed to the office of Postmaster in Carle. ton, in the place of Mr. George F. Harding, resigned. There is to be a fixed salary annexed to this office of £35 per annum.

J. L. Bent, Esq., of this place wis driving his fiery young Arabian horse, on Wednesday last, when opposite the residence of Mr. Z. Tingley, the animal became frightened, (we have not heard from what cause) bolted, and passing Mr. Josiah Tingley's gate, shop, house and barn with amazing velocity, (which smushed the sleigh) and by plunging into a snow bank was fortunately stopped. We are happy to say Mr. B. escaged unhurt .--Borderer.

The Journal says ;- The Annual Report f the Nova Scotia Electric Telegraph Comany presents a very full and satisfactory ccount of the concerns of the institution and hows a large increase in the amount of busiess, and a still larger increase is anticipated e coming year, from the Newfoundland and e Trans-Atlantic line, expected to be at ork in Ju.y. The wires have been broken Nova Scotia 118 times, forty of which, aliciously.
