GENERAL WALKER.

The Tribune expatiates as follows upon the reception of this wholesale murderer at New Orleans:—

The New Orleans newspapers are resplendent with the details of William Walker's ovation, the glories of which were only dimly and dubiously foreshadowed by the telegraph. The reporters, not having anything practical of the "O-be-joyful" description to publish, drew largely upon their imagination, and by a singular transmogrification hailed the conquered as a conqueror—a style of proceeding which will be infinitely encouraging to all defeated fillibusters and other unfortunate highwaymen. To extract blood from a turnip has therefore been held to be beyond the chemistry of a Liebig, nor has the extraction of sunbeams from cucumbers been considered an operation particularly practicable; but something more astounding than either of these feats has been exhibited by the ingenuity of the people of New Orleans, who have managed to found an ovation upon the Nicaraguan discomfiture of King William. One could hardly believe in such a preposterous triumph, if the descriptions were not well authenticated. The Delta is particularly jubilant, and exhibits the purest command of the "highfalutin" style. Its report reads like a Napoleonic bulletin—with a difference:—"The gallant young American was welcomed, as a brave warrior should be welcomed, by the thundering and martial roar of cannon." "Again and again he waved his hat." "It was a gallant sight." "He of the blue-gray eye, the man of destiny, looked on the excited crowd with emotions, perhaps, as lofty as ever filled his brave and unconquered heart." "The scene was almost equal to that of the return of Napoleon Bonaparte from Elba." There is more fustian silliness of the same kind, but we spare the feelings of our readers.

And this was the reception which the City of New Orleans tendered to one of the greatest rogues and most selfish rascals of the nineteenth century—to a freebooter, who in his short and most inglorious career has nothing to boast of but blunders—to a leader of banditti, who has not shown one of the conventional virtues of Jerry Abershaw, or Jack Sheppard, or Dick Turpin—to a desperado without talent or cunning—to one who comes back from his marauding without a sprig of laurel, and upon whom rests the dark responsibility of a thousand murders and a hundred wholesale arsons—to a general who runs from the accusing cries of starving women and children, and from the ghostly battalions of the dead. It is well for us to have lived to see of what small stuff heroes can be manufactured in New Orleans.

But we will not believe that these consolers of Walker were fools enough to waste their wind and spend their cash without an ulterior purpose. The discomfited highwayman means to take the road again, and there are knaves and fools to urge him on. With matchless impudence, Walker assured those who carried him upon their shoulders to his carriage, that "the cause of Nicaragua would never fail." Evidently, throughout the menial and unthinking crowd, there was an indefinite feeling that another raid is in contemplation, and that we are to have, in the name of liberty, a repition of the cruel and illicit barbarity.

When we find a man who has just failed in one felony, bragging of his intention of trying his hand at another, we naturally look about us for the Government sworn to prevent such violations of law. Walker is a criminal, clearly amenable to a very plain statute of the United States. Is he arrested? O no! Small villains sneak in corners and dodge the policemen. Mr. Wm. Walker, being one of the largest sort, marches directly for the august seat of Government. What kind of reception will he receive? Will he be embraced? Will he be treated with indifference? Will he be sent at once to the Calaboose? We shall see. But Mr. Buchanan ought to understand, if he does not, that now or never must the fillibustering spirit be crushed.

Four Days Later from Europe.

ARRIVAL OF THE ERICSSON.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Steamship Ericsson, from Liverpool 27th ult., at noon, arrived at her dock at six o'clock this evening. Her advices are four days later than by the last European arrival.

The Cunard steamer Africa, from New York, arrived at Liverpool on the 24th ult.

The British were occupying the Island of Peritt and demanding an entrance to the Red Sea.

Liverpool.—Cotton was slow of sale; prices unaltered. The sales of the three days amounted to 14,000 bales, of which speculation took 1000, and exporters 1,800.

Flour was buoyant, and had advanced 1s. Wheat was the same, and had advanced 2s, the market for all closing quiet.

Provisions.—The market generally closed steady.

Consols.—The closing price of Consols was 93⅝ a 93¾ for money.

The Mexican-Spanish negotiations were at a stand, waiting despatches from Mexico.

The Neufchatel protocol was reparted signed.

Bullion continued to ebb from the Bank of France.

The French had siezed the territooy of Dakkar, in Senegal.

The relations between Sardinia and Austria, and between Naples and the Western Powers continued without change.

The screw steamer Argo, from Bremen, would sail from Southampton for New York, with 400 passengers, on the 27th.

BRITAIN.—In Parliament the annuity of £800 a year to the Princess Royal, passed without a division, Mr. Roebuck making a feeble remonstrance.

The Dowry, of $40,000, was brought before the Committee of supply, when Mr. Conyngham moved that the pension be reduced to £6000 and the dowry be omitted. Fourteen members voted with him on his first motion, and sixteen on the second. The bill was read a first time.

A new writ was moved for the seat of Thomas G. Baring, who was appointed a Lord of the Admiralty.

Attention had been called to the continued importation of slaves into Buba, and the inadequate British force on that coast. Lord Palmerston said that Lord Clarendon had renewed his representations to the Spanish Government upon this subject, and no effort would be wanting, as far as diplomatic negotiation could go, to induce the government at Madrid, to take effectual steps to put down the trade.

The East India Company have taken possession of the Island of Perim, in the Straits of Babelmandel, and completely commanding the entrace to the Red Sea. The ostensible cause is, that, two years since, an English ship, which was wrecked on the coast of Barbary, was pillaged by the natives. An artillery garrison from India is already placed on the Islannd.

The Paris Journal Des debats confirms the ratification of the Persian treaty of peace.

It is asserted that the protocol of the Neufchatel question was signed at Paris on the evening of the 26th.

Preparations were making at Portsmouth for the reception of Grand Duke Constantine.

The negotiations of the Mexican Envoy with Spain, are understood to be impeded by some failure in diplomatic form, which will have to be referred to Mexico to be ratified.

The French commander-in-chief on the coast of Africa has siezed, in the name of the French government, a tract of land called Dakkar, said to be one of the most important pieces in Senegal.

A French gentleman belonging to the medical profession is now in this city, and proposes to teach the French Language. He will enable pupils to speak F. in one hundred and twenty lessons. In the first course by practise of sixty lessons the scholar learns to speak 2000 words of common use. In the second course by rule of sixty lessons Grammar and books are used. Each lesson which is given both in the day and in the evening at the pupils residence, in schools, or in private classes, takes up but fifteen minutes of each scholars time. It is necessary to walk before we run; first we begin to talk, afterwards to read and write. In the first course the scholar has no need of books, but afterwards he must learn a lesson every day and contract his mind to the daily lesson so as to commit it to memory, this is the only true and safe system of learning to speak a foreign language, to begin with the grammar is to retard the progress, a truth which can be testified to by thousands who for many years have been uselessly learning French but cannot speak a word. Information about the Teacher may be obtained from Drs. James Paterson, Boyd, S. Bayard, Botsford, Millar, W. Bayard, Arnold, Travers, Livingston, Fisk, Humphries, Fitch, Beatty, Forster, Walker, Skinner, Hatheway, Robinson, Alward, Hains, and Thomson.

Those desirous of learning may leave their orders at the "Colonial Book Store," at the Book Store of Messrs. H. Chubb & Co., or at No. 28, Scammell Hotel.

A PHYSICIAN.

A GOOD SIGN.—In these days of quack medicines and humbugs, it is refreshing to find a modest advertisement, like that of Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy for Asthma. One of the most severe cases on record, was cured by it, and the sufferer was induced to try it because as he says, "it didn't pretend to cure everybody and everything."

Jack, the Giant Killer, has long been the wonder of children, but the modern giant, Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, is always victorious over his great antagonist, pain, in what form soever he may present himself. Sold by S. L. Tilley.

A VALUABLE TONIC.—We believe no medicine has ever given such astonishing proof of its efficacy as the Oxygenated Bitters. In cases of Dyspepsia and General Debility it acts in the most agreeable manner, restoring health and cheerfulness, when all other remedies have failed.

Davis' Pain Killer.

NORWICH, Conn., June 15, 1852.

FRIEND DAVIS:—Although a stranger to you, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you, for the purpose of saying a few words in favor of your invaluable medicine. I have used your Pain Killer for a number of years, for bowel complaint and burns, and in fact for pains of all kinds. I think it pre-eminent.—I have had several attacks of dysentery, one very violent.—I was attacked at three o'clock in the morning, and at sun-rise I was not able to get off my bed. I sent and got a twenty-five cent bottle of your Pain Killer, which I commenced taking according to directions, and at 6 o'clock in the evening my bowels were regular, and I was up and moving about, although somewhat weak. I would recommend all similarly afflicted to avail themselves of your invaluable medicine. ELMER WILLIAMS.

M'Lane's Liver Pills, Prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa.

From the unsolicited testimony continually offered from all quarters of the country, it is impossible to resist a conviction of the great excellence of these Pills in all diseases of the Liver and Stomach. The following letter from Toronto, Canada, is one of the many the proprieters have received:

TORONTO, April 27th 1854

MESSRS FLEMING BROS.:—Sirs:—I take this opportunity of informing you of the benefits I have derived from Dr. M'Lane's valuable Pills. I have for two years past been afflicted with a severe pain over the eyes, accompanied with a nervousness and sense of dizziness; a malady beyond the power and skill of our physicians to relieve and cure, caused, as far as I myself could judge, by a diseased state of the liver and stomach. Some of the doctors tried bleeding, and various other remedies were tried, but all in vain, for the deep-rooted disease still stuck fast. At last I procured a box of your valuable Liver Pills from a Druggist here, and feel, after taking a portion of them, that the disease and painful sensation over the eyes has almost entirely left me. I will close by advising all those afflicted as I have been, to procure the valuable medicine at once, and save much time, and pain, with little expense. With sincere gratitude and respect, I remain yours, respectfully,

GEO. W. RUSSELL, Toronto.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of PITTSBURGH, PA. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BDOS.

Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy for Asthma,

Is worthy the attention of all who suffer from this distressing complaint. The success which has attended its use has induced the proprietors to publish some account of its wonderful properties, and to offer it for the benefit of those afflicted with Asthma.

The late JONAS WHITCOMB, of Boston, so well known and so universally esteemed for his sterling integrity and generous disposition, visited Europe a few years since for the benefit of his health, which was much impaired by frequent attacks of Spasmodic Asthma.

While in Germany, an eminent physician who became interested in his case, promised him relief. He followed the treatment ordered, and to his surprise and joy his asthma almost instantly disappeared. He procured the receipe which had accomplished so much for him, brought it with him to this country, and it became the property of the present proprietors. Within the past two years this remedy has been used in upwards of one thousand of the worst cases in Boston and its immediate vicinity, with astonishing and uniform success, and it is now offered to the public with full confidence in its merits. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and any infant may take it with perfect safety.

Prepared by JOSEPH BURNETT & Co., Boston. For sale by dealers generally. Price, $1.00 per bottle.

Letter from a well known Physician.

HAVERHILL, Mass., June 1, 1856.

S. W. FOWLE & Co.,—Gentlemen:—While suffering from Dyspepsia some years since, and trying almost every thing for its removal without any benefit, I was accidentally led to make use of the "Oxygenated Bitters," and after a short trial of them, found my health improving, and in time my disease radically removed. Since then I have used them in my practice, and generally with good success. I know of no medicine so well adapted to the cure of Dyspepsia, in many of its aggravated forms. I have seen the most stubborn cases which had resisted almost all the preparations commonly used for Indigestion, yield as by magic upon the administration of a few doses of these Bitters. Such results have increased my confidence in their medicinal powers, and strengthened my convictions of their superiority over all other instrumentalities, in the treatment of the complaints for which they are recommended.

I would certainly advise those troubled with Dyspepsia to use the Bitters, and I am confident all who do so, will reap great benefit if there is nothing to contra-indicate their use. A. R. PORTER, M. D.

DEATHS.

Died of Consumption at Waterborough, April 22nd 1857. Brother James Fanjoy aged forty-five years, formerly of St. Martins, and for the last twenty years a resident of this place. His fore-fathers were members of the St. Martin's Baptist Church.

He had lived an exemplary moral life, but last summer he was brought to see the great necessity of having something more than morality to rest upon, and was enabled by grace to believe in Christ as his Saviour and to be baptized. He then became a member of the Baptist Church at Mill Cove. His Christian career was short, but he was a consistent member until his death. His seat was never vacant while he could attend. As his wife stood weeping by him, he endeavoured to give her all the comfort he could. When he could not speak he pointed upwards, signifying he was going to heaven. He said to his brother-in-law, Isaac MacLean Esq., that he had a view of the celestial world, and also saw the awful end of the wicked, saying if they could only see their end as he saw it, they would prepare to meet their God.

I visited him occasionally and was pleased to find him resigned to the will of God. He wished me to preach his funeral sermon, which I did from Job. vii. part of 16th verse—"I would not live alway." May the Lord sanctify and bless this bereavement to his mournful widow, children and friends.—Communicated by G. BURNS.

At Long Reach, on the morning of the 10th inst., Mrs. Mary French, aged nearly 85 years. She has left a husband surviving in his 90th year. Mrs. F. professed faith in Christ many years ago, maintained her interity through life, and died triumphantly. She has left two sons—one of which is Elder R. French—and four daughters, besides numerous grand and great grand children.

At Springfield, K. C., on Friday morning, 15th May, after a protracted illness, Miss Sarah Davis, in the 33rd year of her age. Her end was peace. She has left a widowed mother, a brother and sister, with a large circle of friends, who feel that their loss is her gain. She was much esteemed by all who knew her.

On Thursday evening, after a severe illness, Mr. Thomas Gow, plumber, aged 30 years, a native of Scotland, leaving a wife and one child to mourn their loss.

On Thursday, of a short illness, Ada, aged four weeks, second daughter, of Capt. Wm. Simpson.

At Fredericton, on the 2nd inst, Mr Richard Jeffers, a native of Ireland, in the 74th year of his age. Mr. Jeffers was for many years an esteemed member of the Methodist Church in that City.

On the 2nd inst, at Petit Rocher, County of Gloucester, in the 84th year of his age, and after an illness of two days, much and deservedly esteemed, the Rev. Joseph M Madram, Roman Catholic Priest of the Diocese of New Brunswick.

UNION HOTEL, Union Street,

Between Charlotte and Sydney Streets, (South side.)

THE Proprietor of this Establishment, thankful for favours received during the period he occupied the New Brunswick Hotel, and convinced of the necessity of more and better accommodation for the public, has erected a large and substantial Building in Union Street, capable of accommodating from 70 to 80 Boarders. This House is well ventilated, the sleeping rooms are large, and every flat is well supplied with water, and also lighted with gas. The proprietor is determined to leave no means untried to merit the patronage of the community. Travellers arriving late at night will find the house always open, and ready to receive them; while the conveniences and moderate charges will render it emphatically the home of the stranger. The tables of the house will be supplied with the best the market affords, and the Proprietor is determined to adhere strictly to the Total Abstinence principle. ☞ Two large Stables have been erected on the premises, capable of accommodating 60 or 70 horses.
