DELHI NOT FALLEN.—MORE MUTINIES AMONG THE TROOPS.

The Atlantic Telegraph Cable Broken!

The Atlantic Telegraph Cable is broken and operations for the present suspended. The British steamer Cyclops had returned to Valentia, with Mr. Field on board, and that gentleman immediately repaired to London to confer with the Directors on future movements.

Her Maj's steamer Leopard arrived at Portsmouth, Friday evening 14th, and reports that the Atlantic Cable was lost at quarter before 4 o'clock, on Tuesday morning, 11th inst., after having paid out successively 335 nautical miles of cable, and lost 100 miles of it in water over two miles in depth, and the greater part of this at a rate of rather more than five knots an hour.

At Bathurst, on the 28th ult., Mr. James Whitehall, in the 61st year of his age—a useful man in the County of Gloucester, and his loss is much regretted by the inhabitants.

At River Charles, near Dalhousie, on the 26th ult., James M'Pherson, Esq., aged 80 years. He was a native of County, Scotland, and settled on the Restigouche in 1819, where he was much esteemed for industry, charity and integrity.
