THE BELIEVER IN HEAVEN TO A FRIEND ON EARTH. I shine in the light of God. His likenes" stamps my brew; "deathmy feet have trod Through the valley of And I reign in glory now. No breaking heart is here; No keen and thrilling pain ; No wasted cheek, where the frequent tea Hath rolled; and left its stain. I have found the joy of heaven ;

I am one of the angel band ; To my head a crown is given, And a harp is in my hand. I have learned the song they sing Whom Jesus hath made free ; And the glorious walls on high still ring With my new-born meledy.

No sin, no grief. no pain ; Safe in my happy home : My fears all fled-my doubts all slain; My hour of triumph come. Friend of my mortal years ! The trusted and the tried ! But I am at thy side.

Do I forget ? Oh no ! For memory's golden chain S' all bind my heart to the heart below Till they meet and touch again.

Each link is strong and bright. And love's electrical flame

Flows freely down, like a river of light, To the world from which I came.

Do you meurn'when another star Shines out from the glittering sky? Do you weep shen the noise of war

And the rage of conflict die ? Then why should your tears roll down, And your heart with grief be riven. For anoteer gem in the Saviour's crown,

And another soul in heaven ?

This was now baked so hard by drought that the prairie-braking plows would not run in it, and the trial of sod plows was abandoned in consequence. Notwithstanding this fast, the inventor was so confident of success that he gave tye order to put the plaws to work in this almost impervious soil. After a little delay in regulating this brick-like surface, the engine moved forward, when six furrows were turned, side by side, in the most workman-like manner. The excitement of the crowd was beyond control, and their shouts and wild huzzas echoed far over the prairie, as there beneath the smiling Autumn sun lay the first furrow turned by steam on the broad | Messre B. The following interesting case came under my own observation. Her attending physician prohibited cathar-tics, because she was to weak to endure the opera-She had little hope of recovery, and her taining a power unequaled to turn up the lower neighbors said "her work was done." I ordered strata of soil, so rich in potash, in phosphates, in a teaspoonful of your Compound Sarsaprilla three times a day. On the third day she was entirely relieved, and has continued so six months, during which time her appetite became good, her strength increased, and her bowels became regular. She is now managing her domestic affairs, and nursing a sick husband. I have prescribed it in many other cases, and it has never disappointed me.

I recommended the Neuropathic Drops in air. For this he had toiled ; for this his hands case of nervous prostration, with nausea, flatu-had become hardened, and his face mad, sworthy lence, and internal pains. The patient derived more benefit from it than from all other remedies, recommends it heartily to her neighbors, and is never without it. I have given it in Toothache and other diseases with marked success.

"The melon is the last I have, sir; and though it looks very fair, there is an unsound spot on the other side," said the boy, turning it over.

"So there is," said the man ; "I think I will not take it. But." he added, looking into the boy's fine open countenan e. " is it very business-like to point out the defects of your fruits to your customers ?"

"It is retter than being dish onest air," said the boy modestly.

"You are right, my littfe fellow : always remember that principle, and you will find favor with God, and man also. You have nothing else I wish for this morning' but I shall remember whur little stand in future. Are those claims fresh he continued, turning to Ben Wilson's

"Yes, sir; fresh this morning. I caught the n myself," was the reply, and a purchase being mede, the gentleman went his way.

"Harry, what a fool you was to show the gentleman that spot in the melor. Now you can take it home for your pains, or throw it a vay .-How much wiser is he about those clams I caught yesterday. Sold them at the same price I did the fresh ones. He would never have looked at the melon until he had gone away."

"Ben, I would not tell a lie or act one either. for twice what I have earned this morning. Besides. I shall be better off in the end, for I have gained a customer, and you have lost one."

And so it proved, for the next any the gentletleman bought nearly all his fruit and vegitables of Harry, but never invested another penny at the stand of his neighbor. Thus the season passed ; the gentleman finding he could always get a good article of Harry, continually patronized him, and sometimes talked a few minutes with him about his future hopes and prospects. To become a merchant was his great ambition, and when the winter came on, the gentleman, wanting a trusty boy for his store, decided on giving the place to Harry. Stead ly a d sur-ly he advanced in the confilence of his employer, until, having pass d through various gradations of cle.kship, he became at length an honored partner in the firm.

Messre B. O. & G. C. Wilson. Gentlemen : For eight or nine years I have been troubled with a corn of the worst kind ; I had it cut out as often as once in from 4 to 10 weeks, and sill continued very lame. February 9th, 1857, I noticed that your Neuropathic Drops were used for corns. I applied the Drops, night and morning, rubbing them on with my fingers for 10 or 15 minutes each time, for each time, for two weeks, which so effectually cured it that it has given me no trouble since.

July 30, 1857. Messrs B. Q. G. C. Wilson .- I ber to state that from personal knowledge of some of your Botanic Medicines, I believe them to be of supe-rior character. During the existence of the Choles in this City, in the summer of 1855. I was called, as minister, to visit a women said to be dying with that dreadful disease. She had beer attended by physicians during the night, and was left by three, only a few minutes before I entered, to die. On seeing her condition, from what I had before witnessed, I believe there were hopes. I immediately commenced administering doses of your Neuro, athic Drocps and Dysentery Syrup, and ordered them continued at short intervals. In two hours she was much better, and in about six hours, sat up. She fully recovere. Other cases nearly similar of which I had personal knowledge, occured during the existence of the, Cholera in this City, by the use of your Drops.

The above Medicines although here serviceable in Cholera, are no less useful in Diarrhea Dysentery &c. and have worked a cure when al other means have tailed.

D., Albion, Monroe co., lows. weites, Sept. 6, 1845 : "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable." We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some so buman all can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort. Astor House, New York City, March 5th, '56:

Docton MYBR, LOWBLL :--- I feel it a duty and a pleseure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral haboring under the dangerous symptoms of Con-sumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, commonded a trial of your medicine. We bless s kindness a we do your skill, for she recovered from that day. she is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Vours, with gratitude and regard,

OBLANDO SHELDY, of shelbyville

Consumptives do non despair till you have tried Ayer's Charry Pectoral. It is made by one of the first medical chemists in the world, and its cures all ound us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.— Philadelphia Ledger,

D. D. Arthur, S. L. Tilley, G. F. Everett, G. S. Reed, G. C. Irish & Co., Thomas M: Reed, J: G. Simpson, and alldealers in medicine.

During our visit to Lowell we were shown through the Labratory of our celebrated coun-tryman, Dr. J. C. Ayer. scarcely could we have believed what is seen there without proof boys id disputing.

They consume a barrel of solid Pills, about 50. doses, and 20 bartels of Cherry Pectora!, 120,000 deses per diem. To what an incor ceivable amount of human suffering does this point ! able amount of human suffering does this point! 170,000 doses a day !! Fifty millions of doses per year!!! What acres and thousands of acres of sick beds does this spread before the imagina-tion! And what sympathies and woe! True, not all of this is taken by the very sick, but alas, much of it is. This Cherry Drop and this Sugared Pill are to be the companion of pain and anguish and sinking sorrow-the inheritance our anguish and sinking sorrow —the inheritance our mother Eve bequeathed to the whole family of man. Here the infant darling has been touch-ed too early by the blight that withers half our race. Its little lungs are affected and only watch-ing and waiting shall tell which way its breath shall turn. This red drop on its table is the ia-lisman on which its life shall hang. There the blossom of the world just just bursting into wo-mannood is stricken also. Affection's most as-siduous care, skills not, she is still fading away iduous care skills not, she is still fading away. siduous care skills not, she is still fading away. The wan messenger comes nearer and nearer every week. This little mediciment shall go there, heir last, perhaps their only hope. The strong man has, plan ed in his vitals this same disease. This red Drop by his side is helping him wres-tle wich the inexorable ememy; the wife of his bosom, and the cherubs of his heart are waiting in sick sorrow and fear lest the rod on which they lean in this world, be broken. O Doctor ! Spare no skill, nor cost, nor toil to give the perishing sick the best that human art can give. Gelession Zenes News.
