W. moments to the consideration of the Devote a TONIC EXTRACT.

A Medicine which possesses extraordinary virtues and has made many cures.
The proprietor has been for years experimenting and endeavouring to discover a medicine, which could be relied upon in the above complaints, and is happy to inform the afflicted that he has at last succeeded beyond his expectations; having never known an instance where the timely administration of the Tonic Extract failed to do good.

It is necessary, however, to use this medicine according to the printed directions which accompany each bottle. This may, in some cases, involve self-denial on the part of the patient, but is the only course, which will bring about restoration to health.

This Medicine is not introduced for the sole purpose of making money, it is a useful article and ought to be generally known. The Proprietor pur poses to supply the afflicted poor without charge, upon the recommendation of a respectable party, on condition that the patients, will from time to time, make a statement of the effects of the medicine.

The Tonic Extract will make the flesh firm, give a good appetite, and bring about a regular state of the system, when this happens, of course the spirits will be enlivened, and there will be a prospect of health and a long life.

The Proprietor takes the liberty of using the name of the Rev. J. Blakey, Baptist Missionary, for a reference in support of the good qualities of this Medicine.
The Tonic Extract is put up in four ounce phials—price 1s. 3d. per phial.

THE SAINT AND HIS SAVIOUR—By Rev. C. H. SPURGEON. 1 Vol. 12 mo. Price $1. SHELDON, BLAKEMAN & CO., Publishers, 115 Nassau-st., New York.

Men to be Reconciled to God through Christ, By R. S. Storrs, Jr., D. D. The Ancient Worthier, Our Example, By Thomas M. Verulam, D. D. Incentives to Seek Companionship with Israel, By John Kennedey, D. D. The Cross Contemplated, By John McClintock, D. D. The Straight Gate, By E. J. Hishcock, D. D. Men's Perdition not of God, By Edwin F. Hatfield, D. D. Duty of Repentance, By Asa D. Smith, D. D. Religious Insensibility, By S. D. Burchard, D. D. The Life Battle, By Jesse T. Peck, D. D. True Religion a Service, By R. D. Hitchcock, D. D. Not far from the Kingdom of Heaven, By Wm. Adams, D. D.

The publisher of this volume, believing that Christians in other parts of the country will be glad to enjoy some of that truth which God has so peculiarly owned and blessed as preached in the great metropolis, have requested these pastors of different denominations to furnish one of their ordinary discourses delivered in the midst of the present great awakening, for the purpose of making a MEMORIAL VOLUME of this work of God.

These sermons are the earnest, pungent expressions of their heart and mind at a time when God is doing great things in his churches; whereof they are glad. And although they would not have committed these Sermons to the press had they looked merely to the praise of men, they are willing that we should send them forth to be read in public and private, in city and country, in the remotest regions where our language is spoken, as their testimony to the truth, and its simple power under the Holy Spirit, in turning men from the error of their ways to the love and service of God.
