THE SABBATH.

Sidney Smith pronounced the following sonnet one of the most beautiful in the English language.

With silent awe I hail the sacred morn,
Which slowly wakes while all the fields are still;
A soothing calm on every breeze is borne,
A graver murmur gurgles from the rill.
And echo answers softer from the hill,
And softer sings the linnets from the thorn—
The sky-lark warbles in a tone less shrill,
Hail! light serene: hail! sacred Sabbath morn.
The rook floats silent by in airy droves;
The sun placid yellow luster shows;
The gales that lately sighed along the grove
Have hushed their downy wings in sweet repose;
The hovering rack of clouds forgets to move;
So smiled the day when the first morn arose.

A DOVE IN THE MARTS OF TRADE.

Yesterday we were passing in haste down Geneva Street, when our foot almost fell upon a dove. The sidewalk was thronged by careworn men hurrying by, and ladies sweeping in gay colors. The din of wagons arose from the usually great. But the dove picked its food quietly in the street, and hopped up on the sidewalk, barely keeping from under the feet of pedestrians.

The beautiful bird did not seem out of place in the midst of trade. It came with its guileless harmless nature, a suggestion to the frequenters of the street. Trade has no triumphs so complete, as to excuse the surrender of the pure and meek virtues of which this is a symbol. What a ray of brightness those glistening feathers threw on the hard walks, into the hard heart of business! How it seemed to go up and to invite the thoughts upward, above the din and bustle, the pride and fashion of the street.

Yet the dove was not frightened. It said as plainly as it could, "Here in the marts of trade I am at home. The virtues I symbolize may be rare in the office, the counting-room, the store but here, even more than in retirement, a voice impressively whips to all, if ye be wise as serpents, be certainly harmless as doves."

We could not help thinking as we hurried on, how much better, as well as pleasant, it would be, if doves and the virtues they symbolize were more frequent in the marts of trade.—Utic Herald.

A TRUE HERO.

Paul and James were brothers, one nine and the other twelve years of age. They attended the same school. James, the youngest, was ill tempered and obstinate, but much beloved by Paul. The teacher one day was about to punish James, when Paul stepped up and said to him—

"I wish you would punish me and save my little brother."

"My dear Paul," said the teacher in surprise, "you are one of my best boys. You have done nothing to deserve punishment. I can not punish you, my boy." "But," said Paul, "I shall suffer more to see my brother's disgrace and punishment than I should from anything you can do to me."

"Why, Paul," said the teacher, "what do you mean? I can not punish you."

"My brother is a little boy, younger than I am," said Paul. "Pray, sir, allow me to take all the punishment: I can bear anything from you, sir. Do take me and let my little brother go."

"Well, James," said the teacher, "what do you say to this noble offer of Paul?"

James looked at his brother, and said nothing.

"Do let me be punished, and let my brother go," urged Paul.

"Why, Paul," said the teacher, "do you wish to receive stripes instead of James?"

"Jesus gave his back to the smiters," said Paul, "and receive stripes for the good of his enemies. James is my brother. Oh, sir, do forgive him and let me be punished."

"But James does not wish me to forgive him," said the teacher. "Why should you feel so anxious about it? Does he not deserve correction?"

"Oh yes, sir," said Paul, "he has broken the rules, and is snivel and wilful, and somebody must suffer. Do take me and spare my brother."

Paul threw his arms around his brother's neck and wept as if his heart would break! This was more than James could bear. His tears began to flow, and he embraced his generous brother.

The teacher clasped both in his arms and forgave James, for he was more sorry for his conduct than if he had been punished ten times.

BITUARY.

Died, in Coverdale, July 22nd, 1858, William Blakeney, in the 88th year of his age. He was born in South Carolina, Dec. 12th, 1770, emigrated to this Province with his father, in company with other Carolina Loyalists the year before the close of the American Revolution. He was awakened to a serious concern for the salvation of his soul, under the preaching of the Rev. Mr. Earley, a Minister of the Wesleyan connection; he was baptized by the late Rev. Theodore Harding, when in company with the late Rev. Joseph Crandall, they were baptizing a number of willing converts, it being the first time that the ordinance of baptism had been administered in the Parish of Salisbury by immersion, he united with the First Baptist Church in Salisbury, when it was first organized and continued until his death a valuable and consistent member, he was chosen a Deacon many years ago, and discharged the duties of his office with perseverance and faithfulness, he was punctual in attending the means of grace. His last sickness was comparatively short; when first taken, the power of unbelief pressed heavily upon him, so that he was led to fear he had been deceived, but these despairing feelings soon passed away the light of Jehovah's countenance again shone upon him, and as then expressed himself, "he longed to be away, and be at rest." He was called to pass through deep waters of affliction: his beloved companion, and some of his children being for a number of years greatly afflicted, in his experience truly the words of the Psalmist have been verified. "Many are afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivereth him out of them all." Several of his children survive him; one a beloved Brother in the Ministry, "whose praise is in all the churches," and others who are pious, and devoted members of the church.—His funeral was numerously attended and the mournful occasion improved from the language of Paul to Timothy—2 Tim Chap 4th, 6th, 7th, and 8th, verses: I am now ready to be offered, &c.—Com. CHERRY PECTORAL, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness. Brimfield, Mass., 26th Dec., 1855.

Dr. J. C. AYER—I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a cold, is Cherry Pectoral. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. Utica, N.Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than to do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza. Springfield, Miss., Feb. 7th, 1858.

BROTHER AYER—I will cheerfully certify you Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternal in the South, appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. Hiram Conklin, M.D., Amos Lee, Esq., Monterey, La., writes, 3rd Jan., 1856.—"I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief, finally tried your Pectoral and in a few days of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicine is the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic and Bronchitis. West Manchester, Pa., Feb. 4th, 1856.

SIR.—Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvelous cures in this section. It has relieved several alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

Henry L. Parks, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSAY, M.D., Albion, Monroe Co., Iowa, writes, Sept. 6, 1854:—"During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort. Astor House, New York City, March 5th, '56.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL.—I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We blessed kindness as we do your skill, for she recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours, with gratitude and regard, ORLANDO SHELLEY, of Shelbyville.

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

If you want Pills, take Ayer's Pill. Nothing has ever appeared in this market that can compare with this new invention for chasing out the distempers that fasten a nd grow upon us. They are the Philosopher's elixir of life, that bids defiance to disease, and will leave us no alternative but die of old age.

GENERAL DEBILITY AND EMACIATION CURED, AFTER ALL OTHER REMEDIES FAILED.

BY THE USE OF THE COMPOUND SARSAPARILLA.

Messrs B. O. & G. C. Wilson.

The following interesting case came under my own observation. A lady, between sixty and seventy years of age, afflicted with general debility, uneasiness, and pain in the stomach, loss of appetite and great emaciation, applied to me for aid. Her attending physician prohibited cathartics, because she was to weak to endure the operation. She had little hope of recovery, and her neighbors said "her work was done." I ordered a teaspoonful of your Compound Sarsaparilla three times a day. On the third day she was entirely relieved, and has continued so six months, during which time her appetite became good, her strength increased, and her bowels became regular. She is now managing her domestic affairs, and nursing a sick husband. I have prescribed it in many other cases, and it has never disappointed me.

I recommended the Neuropathic Drops in a case of nervous prostration, with nausea, flatulence, and internal pains. The patient derived more benefit from it than from all other remedies, recommends it heartily to her neighbors, and is never without it. I have given it in Toothache and other diseases with marked success.

ISAAC SMITH, M. D. Foxborough, Mass., May 27, 1857.

FROM REV. S. S. LEIGHTON.

I have used B. O. & G. C. Wilson's Wild Cherry Balsam in Coughs, Colds, and other Pulmonary Complaints; and three cases have come under my own observation, in which all similar remedies failed, which were completely restored by taking less than one bottle.

It is, in my opinion, an invaluable remedy, happily adapted to remove the diseases for which it is designed. S. S. LEIGHTON. West Townsend, Mass.

CASES OF CHOLERA CURED.

Geo. B. Estabrooks came to my house late at night. He was taken ill in the night, with violent cramps, and walked the floor all night, in great distress. When I arose in the morning he was much alarmed about his recovery. I told him I could cure him. I gave him a teaspoonful of Neuropathic Drops, and in ten minutes he was entirely free from pain, and ate a hearty breakfast and went on his journey.

ANOTHER CASE.—Mr. William Wilson was going to a fair at Springfield, and came to my house about midnight, very sick indeed, with violent pains,—thought he had the Cholera, and was going to die. He wished to leave his money with me for his family. I gave him a teaspoonful of your Drops, which relieved him. In twenty minutes I gave him another, and about an hour after a third, which entirely cured him, and he went to the fair in the morning.

JOHN HAYES. Norton, King's County, N. B.

DYSENTERY.

I have resorted to B. O. & G. C. Wilson's Dysentery Syrup, in all kinds of bowel complaints, and it is always sure. One dose is generally a perfect antidote. For Dysentery, one to three may be necessary. In very severe cases, I generally add fifteen to thirty Neuropathic Drops to each dose, which never fails; and my experience is, like that of hundreds of individuals who come to this city on business, and have visited the store of B. O. & G. C. Wilson, under circumstances which rendered a trial of the Syrup necessary, who have been perfectly astonished at the result, and the shortness of the time in which it effected a cure. The medicine can't be beat.

DANIEL GUNN, Printer, 41 Congress St.

THE NEUROPATHIC DROPS WILL CURE CORNS AND CHILBLAINS.

CHELSEA, June 26th, 1857.

Messrs B. O. & G. C. Wilson. Gentlemen: For eight or nine years I have been troubled with a corn of the worst kind; I had it cut out as often as once in four to 10 weeks, and still continued very lame. February 9th, 1857, I received that your Neuropathic Drops were used for corns. I applied the Drops, night and morning, rubbing them on with my fingers for 10 or 15 minutes each time, for each time, for two weeks, which so effectually cured it that it has given me no trouble since.

E. L. MERRIAM.

Saint John, N. B.

Messrs B. O. & G. C. Wilson.—I beg to state that from personal knowledge of some of your Botanic Medicines, I believe them to be of a superior character. During the existence of the Cholera in this City, in the summer of 1855, I was called, as a minister, to visit a woman said to be dying with that dreadful disease. She had been attended by physicians during the night, and was left by three, only a few minutes before I entered to die. On seeing her condition, from what I had before witnessed, I believe there were hopes. I immediately commenced administering doses of your Neuropathic Drops and Dysentery Syrup, and ordered them continued at short intervals. In two hours she was much better, and in about six hours, sat up. She fully recovered. Other cases nearly similar of which I had personal knowledge, occurred during the existence of the Cholera in this City, by the use of your Drops.

E. McLEOD.

The above Medicines although here serviceable in Cholera, are no less useful in Diarrhea, Dysentery, &c. and have worked a cure when all other means have failed.

Messrs B. O. & G. C. Wilson.

I have found the Dysentery Syrup and Neuropathic Drops when taken together an invaluable remedy for Diarrhea & Dysentery, and I consider them Medicines that every Family should keep themselves supplied with.

Superior and Genuine Vegetable COUGH CANDY. E. H. Y. MACER'S Vegetable Cough Candy, for curing Coughs, Colds, Croup, Irritation of the Throat, Asthma, and is particularly calculated to relieve the Whooping Cough, and all complaints tending to Consumption. It is particularly recommended to the attention of Public speakers, singers and all persons, who use the voice freely as an efficacy for Charming the Voice is truly astonishing! There has been practiced under the pretence of furnishing the public with superior medicines that the inventor of a GENUINE ARTICLE only, begs that each one would try for himself, for society demands that should be made public. Even those who do possess some virtue are held at such exorbitant prices, that they do not come within the reach of the poor; while they, above all, are the most liable to suffer from the consequences of neglect and exposure. Do not the poor suffer daily? It is true they do for the want of a medicine which they are unable to purchase. The proprietor of the Vegetable Cough Candy has obviated this difficulty by inventing a Medicine compounded of twenty-nine different ingredients, extracted from the Vegetable Kingdom, and sold at a price which will place it within the reach of all. It is well known that many ingredients when used singly are inefficacious, but when combined with others are highly salutary. MACER'S VEGETABLE COUGH CANDY contains the most essential ingredients of which other Cough Candies are composed, with several additional kind, the combined power of which is sufficient to heal, in part, every malady to which the human system is liable (which does not require the aid of a surgeon), if attended to in season. The numerous ingredients composing this Candy have been recommended by many physicians of eminence, some of whom are among the most celebrated in the United States. The pleasantness of this medicine gives it an advantage over all others, while it is unnecessary to use any persuasion to induce children to use it. Sold by Druggists generally throughout the City and County. General Agent. F. A. CUSGROVE & CO., Dec. 18, 1857. 75 Prince Wm.-st.
