REVIVAL WONDERS.

A sea-faring man writes to the Independent number of remarkable cases which occurred in connection with the Greenwich street prayermeeting, among which are the following :

A destitute English emigran; was landed at Castle Garden from ship Chicago, and strolled accidentally into the Greenwich street noonday prayer-meeting. Here he became interested and soon gave evidence of a change of heart, and at once commenced the work of missionary, selecting the Castle Garden emigrants as his parish. For several weeks he labored zealously and successfully, until a letter from his wife in England informed him of her conversion, when his desire became so strong to return home that he decided to do so. A steerage passage in one of the packets, and a good supply of tracts for distribution were provided for him, and he left with the best wishes of many friends.

John T., of B., (Maine,) though a man of some forty years of age, yet being notorious for his habit of incessently swearing, was always called John T. So great was this habit that when in the course of the revival he began to grow thoughtful and tried to check himself from swearing quite so much, every one noticed it and wondered. To be brief, he became converted and a Christian man, his family alter is erected, and his Bible. which until lately he was an utter stranger to, he now reads often and prayerfully. At one time recently, while speaking in prayer-meeting, he shouted in the genuine Methodist style, but immediately paused. Said he "This shouting is new language to me. I can, or could swear scientifically, but this shouting Glory to God is strange language to my lips."

Capt. D., of Maine, for many years a ship-mas ter, but of late a shipbuilder, together with his daughter and sister-in-law, (being all of his family,) recently became converted, and has erected his family alter. His house, that was formerly the resort of card-players, is now the house of prayer, and he himself never loses an opportunity to "stand up for Jesus."

Mr. R., a prominent merchant of B., (Maine, arose deliberate in one of our morning prayermeetings, and avowed his intention of trying to lead a new life, and asked the prayers of Christians in his behalf. His family altar seemed the next important step, and accordingly he resolved to erect it that very evening. Evening came, and his wife was sick; something said to him, "Better put it off for the present, until your wife is better." "No you don't, Devil ?" said he, "if this is to be our first battle-ground, let's have it out and see who beats." So he took his Bible and went up to his wife's roomand there, himself, wife and sister, joined in their first prayer to the throne of grace. He had hardly finished his prayer, when his sister came and flung her arms around his neck, and burst into tears. "That embrace." said he, "from that sister, more than paid me for all the cross had cost me," His wife and sister have both, since that, embraced religion, and united with

It was said that this was kept up Peristaltie Pills, even after he had risen for prayers, and many suppossed him insincere. After he was converted, however, he stated that he had used every purpose had kept up his drinking and playing but to no purpose. He could find no peace until he found it in the source of all peace. He is now an earnest, zealous, and consistent Christian, and a marked change has come over his late

CHERRY PECTORAL FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness. Brimfield, Mass., 20th Dec., 1855.

Dr. J. C. AYER :- I do not hesitate to say the est remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness. Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a cold, is cherry Pectorial. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the ast tenyears has ment of these complaints. EBEN. KNIGHT, M. D. A. B. Mortley, esq., of Utica, N.Y., writes: "1 have used your Pectoral myself and in my family since you invented it, and believe it the best medisine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad old a hearty breakfast and went on his journey. should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bettle than to do without it, or take any other remedy."

Probably no one remedy has ever been known nose the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

Astor House, New York City, March 5th, '56. DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL:-- I feel it a duty and pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months aboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consum; tion, from which no aid we could procure gave ner much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice. commended a trial of your medicine. We bless s kiudness as we do your skill, for she recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard, OBLANDO SHELBY, of shelbyville.

Do not the poor suffer daily! It is true they do for the want of a medicine which they are unable to purchase. The proprietor of the Vegetable Cough. Candy has obviated this difficulty by inventing a Medicine compounded of twenty-nine different and gredients, extracted from the Vegetable Kingdom, and sold at a price, which will place it within the reach of all. It is well known that many ingredients when used singly are inefficacious, but a semisombined with others are highly salutary and an MACER'S VEGETABLE COUGH CANDY contains the most essential ingredients of which other Cough Candies are composed, with several additional kind, the combined power of which is sufficient to heal, in part, every malady to which the human system is liable (which does not require the aid of a surgeon), if attended to in season. The numerous ingredients composing this C. ad have been recommended by many physicians of eminence, some of whom are among the most celebrated in the United States. The pleasantness of this medicine gives it an isdvantage over others, while it is unnecessary to use any persuasion to induse chidren to use it. City and County.
