THE GREAT REVIVAL.

We continue this week the interesting ac counts of the Great Revival in the United States taken from the New York Tribune :-

What's the News !

The following lines were read a few days since at the noonday prayer-meeting held in the "Old Methodist Church" in John street, and published in The Tribune of the following day, at the request of the meeting. Mr. George H. Stuart of Philadelphia, who was present at the meeting, remarked that "the chief interest in the verses arises from the fact that they were written by a young man now dead, who was insane on almost every subject except that of religion, on which he continued to the last to be in his right mind and intellignnt ;"

Whene'er we meet you always say, What's the news? What's the news? Pray what's the order of the day? What's the news ? What's the news ? Oh, I have got good news to tell! My Saviour has done all things well, And triumphed o'er death and hell-That's the news! That's the news!

The lamb was slain on Calva:y-That's the news! That's the news! To set a world of sinners free-That's the news !... That's the news ! Twa's there his precious blood was shed. But now he's risen from the dead-That's the news! That's the news?

To heaven above the conqueror's gone-That's the news! That's the news! He's passed triumphant to the throne-That's the news! That's the news! And on that throng He will remain Unit! as judge He comes again, Attended by a dazzling train-That's the news ! That's the news !

His work's reviving all around-That's the news! That's the news! And many have redemption found-That's the news! That's the news! And since their souls have caught the fluine, They shout hosanah to His name, And all around they spread His fame, That's the news! That's the news!

The Lord has pardoned all my sins ---That's the news! That's the news! I feel the witness now within-That's the news! That's the news! And since He took my sins away, Taught me how to watch and pray, I'm happy now from day to day-That's the news ! That's the news

And Christ the Lord can save me now-That's the news! That's the news! Your sinful hearts He can renew--That's the news! That's the news! This moment, if for sins you grieve, This moment, if you do believe, A full acquittal you'll receive--That's the news! That's the news!

And then if any one should say-What's the news! What's the news! Oh, tell them you've begun to pray-That's the news! That's the news That you have joined the conquering band ; now with joy at God's command. Youre marching to the better Land-That's the news! That's the news!

SPEEDY CONVERSION.

A young man, who had not previously been in a church for nine years, was induced a few days since, to attend the Union Praver-Meeting held in the Thirty-fourth street Methodist church, in this city, where prayers were offered for his conversion. In the evening of the same day he attended a similar meeting in the North Presbyterian church Ninth avenue, corner of Thirst first street, where his case was also mentioned, and he was made the subject of special prayer. On the following day he again attended the meetings held in both these places, and on that evening experienced conversion.

A young man, in a store in Park place, was met by a stranger who asked him the question, " Are you a Christian ?" to which, on his replying "No," the stranger said to him, " If you will pray to-night, I will pray for you." Next morning the stranger met him in the same place, and after a solutation, was surprised to learn that he had been converted since the previous day.

A young man attending a Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, received a copy of the tract-circular of the Young Men's Christian Association, accompanied with a printed card of invitation to the John street prayer-meeting. A day or two alterward, at this meeting, he introduced himself to a member of the Association, and stated that he had experienced conversion through the instrumentality of that tract.

A law-student in this city was handed a tract, by a person before unknown to him, who also gave him a card containing his address. Shorly afterward the distributor received a note from the student, saying, "1 feel very serious on the subject of religion, and I hope I may be soon converted. Pray for me." His conversion took place immediately afterward.

A young man, formerly a Suuday-School scholar, recently received a tract from a gentleman, who inclosed it in a note, with a request to attend some one of the noon prayer meetings. Shortly afterwards he wrote, "I received your kind tract. I have been often warned of the dangers of city life, and have been trying to come to the Savior. I hope I may soon be changed in heart." In a day or two afterward he called upon the person who sent him the tract, and said, "I have found God."

A resident of New Haven formerly a clerk in a bank in New York, while on a temporary visit to this city, was converted through the agency of one of the mid-day religious meetings. On his return to New Haven, he interested himself in the spiritual condition of a younger brother, who within a week was also converted. They are sons of a prominent minister in that city.

A gentleman who is greatly interested in the progress of the revival, recently called at the store of a friend to whom he wished to present the claims of religion. His friend was not in, yet he, being unwilling to go way without having accomplished some good, spake to one of the clerks-a young man about 18 years of age-to whom he was a stranger, on the same subject, and after a few days was apprised of his conversion through the instrumentality of this conversation.

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIRED, MISS., Feb. 7, 1866. SROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your Pectorial is the best remedy we possess for the cnre of Whooping Cough. Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fra-ternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D. AMON LEE. Eso. Morganet

ANOS LEE, Esc., MONTEREY, IA., Writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally fried your Pectorial by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs less than one half the bottie made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we es-teem you, Doctor, and your remedics, as the poor man's A stheman.

Asthma or Phthisic and Bronchitis.

Astantia of Phthisic and Bronchitis. West Manchestrer, P.A., Feb. 4 1856. In this sect via. It has relieved several from alarming symp-toms o. can umption, and is now curing a man who labored under an affection of the langs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant A. A. RAMSEY. M. D., Albion, Monson Co., Iowa, writes, Sept. 6, 1845: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectorial for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or caring such as merchile." We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convinc-ing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects Consumption Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cur ed so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no hu man aid can reach ; but even to those the Cherry Pectors affords relief and comfort.

nflords relief and comfort. Astor House, New Year City, March 5, 1866. Doctor Avers, Lowellt : I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife, She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could pro-cure gave her much relief. The was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, re-commended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours, with gratitude and regard, ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBY VILTE. Consumptives, do not depair itil you have tried Ayer's
