The Royal Mail steamer Phobe arrived at ymouth yesterday, after a very fast passage of days. I cannot ask you not to grive, Or stry your tears,—for "Jeaus wept;" Even he, the life of all that live, Mourn'd at the grave where Lazrus slept.

No -oft must fall the starting tear On each memento he has left, On every thing he valued here,-Yet moura not, as of hope bereft.

Remember that assuring word, Uttered in nature's mortal strife. Of trust in his ascended Lord, And hope of an undying life.

Then father, mother, sister, tread Where heavenly guidance leads you on;

Till you rejoin your cherished dead, And bow before the Eternal throne. Thes shall the loved and lost be found, Thus shall he welcome you to heaven,

Then shall your goldon harps resound The exulting song of the forgiven. T. S.

Gentlemen: —Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think It due. My are is about 50 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it begun to turn grey, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. I was however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that was not only the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the grey hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff (eased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among many obligations I owe to her sex I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profe by my example, and use it if
