Mr. Bright advocated the reduction of the army, and a curtailment in the civ.l service salaries, as the most efficient way of bringing about an improvement.

The resolution was adopted in favour of the additional five million loan.

On the 24, in the Commons, Monkton Milnes moved an address to her Majesty, praying her to enter into negotiations with the United States for the purpose of preventing assaults and cruel-ties upon seamen engaged in the traffic between the two countries, and bringing to justice the perpetrators of such offences. The Attorney General said Government had directed attention to the subject He would never assent to the giving of jurisdiction to foreign counsels. The only method would be either to facilitate the extradition act, have recourse to the ordinary tri-bunals, or to deal with the matter to the same' mariner as with seamen's contracts. The motion was agreed to.

The Times correspondent says that the Count de Persigny has left Paris on his return to London. The Minister of War had issued an order to all colonels of regiments to send home all soldiers whose absence had been recalled after the declaration of war against Austria, and likewise all those who are entitled by their service to leave of absence for six mouths, so that they may be at the disposal of the farmers who may require them for getting in the harvest.

There is no change to be noticed in the com-mercial situations of France. The accounts from the agricultural destricts are not unfavourable. The wheat crop has not sustained much injury. The barley crop is not expected to be productive, but the stock on hand is immense The crop of oats will probably be more productive than was expected ten days since. The harvest altogether will exceed that of a given ordinary year, and there will be an overplus for exportation.

TESTIMONIALS. From a gentleman well known in the vicinity of Westfield, Mass. I WESTFIELD, MASS., 24th Nov. 1858.

S. W. FOWLE & Co., BOSTON. — Gents.: I cheerfully give you my testimony, and, moreover, am desirous that the public should know the claims which your invaluable preparation of WISTAR'S BALSAM have to

About a year since I was attacked with a severe and distressing cough, followed by emaciation, night sweats, and other symptoms of approaching disease.

I tried many remedies to no avait, and so alarming did my case appear, that my friends entertained serious fears for my recovery. or my recovery.

At this juncture I purchased a bottle of WISTAR's BALSAM, and at once began to mend, and by the time two bottles had been exhausted I had entirely regained my health and strength. I shall always keep it in my family.

DEAN GRAY, JR.,

Of the firm of LOOMIS, LEWIS, & CO. [From Rev. Henry Wood, formerly Editor of the Congregational Journal, Concord, N. H., more recently American Consul' at Beyroot, Syria, and now Chaplain in the Navy.]

CONCORD, N. H., March 2. Messrs, SETH W. Fow Le & Co. — Gentlemen: Two years ago, a sudden and violent attack upon my lungs confined me to my bed for several weeks, and when I recovered, I was so much oppressed by difficulty in breathing, that I was often unable to sleep or rest upon a bed by night. The suffering was extreme, and judging from the inefficacy of the remedies used, I supposed the disease incurable. Being persuaded to try a bottle of disease incurable. Being persuaded to try a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY Without confidence in its efficacy, I found the difficulty almost en-tirely removed before one bottle was used up. Sympathy with my fellow-sufferers induces me to make this public
