LOND BROUGHAM ON ROBERT HALL -At a meeting at Accrington on Saturday evening, held for the purpose of distributing prizes and certificates awarded by the East Lancashire Union, Lord Brougham (who has not, it appears, gone to Paris, as stated by The Times correspondent pondent) was in the chair. In the course of his remarks he said :-- "I understand there is a great complaint of my having (not, however, founded upon fact) declared myself, at the Bradford So-cial Science Congress, a convert to the Maine Law. I did not declare that I was a convert to the Maine Liquor law. I said that we were not prepared in this country for anything of the kind. and that it would take a long time to prepare for that, But I said that the greatest care should be taken not to encourage intemperance if we did not discourage it; nay, that the greatest care should be taken by all lawful, moderate, and rational means to discourage it, whilst the public mind is being prepared; which it will take a long course of discussion, and controversy, and enlightement of the public mind to effect. I did not say the Maine Lequor Law, but a legislative repression, should be at plied to the sale of intoxicating liquors, which fills our jailwith criminals and our workhouses with paupers. It is niways disagreeable, as well as un; ofitable, for the cause one supports to commit any exaggeration. It is an old saying that you diminish all you exagg-rate. It is a turning of the telepear great, you make objects appear distant, this is the effect of exaggeration. Therefore I would carefully avoid all exage ration, and yet I have the very high authority of one of the most el quent preachers who ever appeared in this country-I would say the most eloquent preacher - I speak from havi g read his sermons and from having had the advantage also of hearing him on one occasion. When went with my late lamented triend. Lerd Denman, the chief justice, to hear Robert Hall, I can only say that at one part of the admirable sermen which he then preached, we both, as if by one impulse, turned round to one another and said, 'Plunkett,' comparing him to the greatest orator of the times, since Pitt, Fix, and Sheridan, the greatest erator by much that has been known in his country. Well Robert Hall was applied to one morning by a reverend friend of his, who was farigued with his walk, and he asked him to give him a little brandy and water. "I will, said Robert Hall, 'if you will give it its right name.' What is it?' said his friend. Distilled dampation.' Now, Robert Hall was a man of great elequence, and I give you this as an instance to show that I might have gone a scope round the wrong way, and instead of bringing distant objects near, and making them ap-than I did at Bradford upon this subject." THE BUILDERS' STRIKE .- The builders' strike appears to be near its termina ion. The men, after sixteen weeks of soffering, have tirtually abandoned their position. They have estire ywitndraws the demand of 10 hours pay tor9 nours work, and have declered the strike at Messes l'ollope's to be at an end. They now simply ask the masters to withdraw the, "dec aration." The effect of this movement will be that any workman can now take employment without forfeiting the membership of the trade society. The news will be received with gladness in all par a of the great deal further, upon very high authority,

On Saturday Mr. Gladstone was elected by the matriculated students to the important office of Restor of the University of Edinourgh. He had a majority of 116 over his opponent, Lord Neaves, one of the judges of the Court of Sean sion; the numbers for the respective candidates being 643 and 527.

THE ROYAL CHARTER - At the adjourned in quest on Friday, the jury returned the following verdict: "Having carefully attended to the evidence, we are unanimously of ostnian that James Walton and others unfor unately sa their lives on board the Royal Charter, by pure accident; that Captain 'Laylor was perfectly soner; and that his conduct proves that he had done all in his power to save the ship and the lives of the passengers." Mr. Smith, collector of cusreceived from the solicitor of the merchant's shipping department of the Board of Trace, an nounce that the Board of Trate and directed an inquiry into the loss of the Royal Charler; that the inquiry would be held at Liverp of; and that the witnesses who had given evidence before the Coroner would be required to attent. The divers have got up a gold bar about 41br. weight, and valued at 2001. The bar lay at the stern of the vessel. The divers also picked up a cash box, which is greatly crushed and buttered In the interior a portrait has been found packed up and addressed to "J. Howkins, Esq., High street, Wel's, Somersetshire." The box also contained some papers and a cheque book, with the cheques drawn in favour of a person named Lyons, and a copper card plate with the name "Mr. Hawkins" engraved on D. Another of the bodies cast ashore has been identified. It is that of Mr. Watkins, 84, Seal street, Liverpool. Several of the deceased's relatives have left Muel-fra without discovering any traces of those whose remains are sought; but mourners are constant ly arriving to make new researches.

Romanism.—The Remanist archit shop of Tuam, Ireland, has written to Lord Palmerston declaring that the Roman Catholics of that country "are ready, not only to defend the soiritual authority of the Pope over the entire world, but likewise to assert his temporal as well as his spiritual power throughout the range of his own diminions."

DR. LAVINGSTONE IN AFRICA.- We are informed that Dr. Livingstone finds it impossible The British Schooner Marian Zagury, Capt. to proceed up the Zamberi ricer much further Mathews from Malaga, arrived at New York on THE RELIGIOUS AWAKENING IN IRELAND .-

We are glad to hear that the special effort now heing made by the Ban ist Irish Society has engaged, to a very considerable extent, the sympathy and aid of the Coris ian public. Many liberal contributions have been spontaneously pre sented, and reveral ministerial bretteren have offered personal service. The committee are endeavouring to discharge efficiently the important trust committed to them. We hope they will be encouraged by having placed at their command even a larger sum than that for which they asked for the prosecution of a work so well adapted to meet the present necessities of Ireland.

Brougham, has expressed his intention to subscribe to the fund for the purchase of arms to be placed at the disposal of Garibuldi.

THE CASHMERE PRESENT TO THE QUEEN. This costly and gorgeous gift from the Mahara-jah has been briefly mentioned. Some details are now published. One part consists of a canony of the finest Cashmers work, supported on New York, four tent-poles of solid silver, eight or ten feet long erch, with silken cords to secure the same. Beneath this is a carpet of the most elaborate pattern and brilliant colours, similar to the material. On the carpet is a tent of crimson Irvine, Cook, do. silk, "flushed" with gold outside, the inner lining being richly embroidered, and finished in an elaborate manner. In the tent is a bedstead and hed furniture. The bedstead is of solid gold exquisitely chased, and of picture sque design. The tasses and fringes are also of solid gold, and surpass all previous specimens, while the hangings, counterpanes, pillows, &c. are one mass of the finest embroulery work which was ever executed y hand, and which bears the closest scrutiny by the most powerful glass. Added to the above presents are several coarly shawls and dresses of the finest workmanship and colour, and heavy with the rold interwoven. The entire value is said to be £150,000 sterling. The present is accompanies by a long address, most exquisitely comblazoned, exputrating in glowing terms on the beauty virtue and influence of Her Majesty, " at whose footsteps the likes rise and bloom, whose voice in peace is the music of the sph res, whose power in war is the thunder of heaven.

Died, in Ladlow, Miramichi, Nev. 22d. 1859, JACOB DUNPHY, Sentor, in the 53d year of his age, after an illness of apout five months continuance, which he wore with christian patience and pressed great satisfaction in the thought, that his accumulated offlictions were bounded by time, and all beyond has one blesful, happy, eternal rest, which he fondly anticipated enjoying, through the merey of God, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Brother Dunphy professed religion at profession of his faith in Christ, in the Parish of DR. Wist Donglas, in the County of York, and ever after this season of the seaon of the year, as well as at all wards manifested an artachment to the ca se of Christ, and to the principles of religion as manifes od by the Baptists of New Brunswick. He has left, to mourn their irreprarable loss, an affectionate wife and eight children—four sons and four daughters—and a very large connection of friends and acquaintances, all of whom sympathize with the hereaved family, and regret the loss of so valuable a member of the community. Ladies and Gentlemen in all pures of the world testify to the efficiency of Prof O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A lew testimated only can be here given see circular for more and it will be impossible for you to doubt at Wall-street New York, Dec. 20th, 1856.

Gentlemen :— Your note of the 15th inst., has been received, saying that I had been benefitted by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think It due. My age is about 30 years; the color of my hair auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn grey, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff form upon it. Each of these d isagicabilities increased and for about four months since a fourth was udded to them, by haif falling of the top of my head and threatening to make me baid.

In this unplessant predictment, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that grey hair could never be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that was not only the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the grey hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among many obligations I owe to her sex I strongly, recommend all husband; who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing grey or getting flaid. Very respectfuly
