THE GREAT EASTERN. It was announced that the Great Eastern would sail from Southampton to New York on Saturday, the 16th inst. The ship started on a trial trip on the 9th, running 12 hours out to sea, and 12 hours back. The trial was regarded as satisfactory, although the rate of speed attained did not at any time exceed twelve and three-quarter knots, the average being twelve and one-half knots. The very foul state of the vessel's bottom and the fact that her trim was anything but fovorable for speed, account in a measure for the minimution from the rate attained last year .-There was some difficulty, however, in getting the full amount of steam, and the revolutions of her paddles and screw never exceeded ten and one-half and thirty-nine respectively, which is considerably below the number attained at form-

The ship answered her helm with marvellous ease and rapidity, so much so, that Mr. Murphey, the New York pilot, expressed the utmost astonishment, and declared that the vessel could go anywhere where there was water. Sundry minor improvements suggested by the trial would be concluded by the 12th, in order to give three clear days for the crew to get accustomed to their proper stations. It was confidently expected the ship would reach New York inside of ten days. It is intended to moor her close to the city.

LATEST. The moneta y and Commercial Times city article of Wednesday afternoon says :-- "The English funds opened with a rather better appearance that morning, and closed with an improvewent of &, which is rather a feeble response to the buoyant movement on the Paris Bourse."

Political rumors, with regard to Sicily and Germany, coupled with the manifesto of Prince Gortzchakoff, on the Tu kish question, are considered to strengthen the belief that no new European war is desired by France in 1860, but are far from having any effect in causing the future to be regarded with increas d confidence.

In the discount market to-day the demad has been less active. The bank bought £5000 in gold to day.

FRANNE.-It is asserted that trade was never more dull in Paris and in the Provinces than at present. Accounts of the growing wheat crop were unfavorable, and produced a further rise in the market for breadstuffs.

COLONIAL KNIGHTS .- The number of Colonial Knights is on the increase, as will be seen from the London Gazette of May 24 :-

The statement that the Neupolitan squadron had seized two ships conveying volunteers and arms to Sicily still lacks confirmation. The Neapolitan Envoy to Paris returns to Naples without visiting London, under the conviction that his mission would be useless. The Royal conference at Baden was attracting attention. The Prince Regent of Prussia arrived there on the 14th, and Napoleon on the next day. It was reported that the kings of Saxony, Hanover, Bavaria, Wurtumberg, and other German Princes, will join the Conference. There are various speculations as to the cause and effect of the meeting, but nothing authentic. English Parliamentary proceedings unimportant. The explanations given in both Houses of the outbreak in New Z aland, are confirmatory of newspaper accounts. Suffice to say, it is a thorough EVANGELICAL NON-SECTARIAN RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER; influenceed by no party or denomination, but aiming at general useful-ness, by edapting itself to the wants of the country. What it is, it will continue to be. It contains a digest of the News of each week. Foreign and Domestic; and in this department also knows no party or men; its object being to inform its readers of gurrent events. It is intended for, and is acknowledged by many of those who receive it, as a first class Family Religious Newspaper. It pays particular attention to Family reading giving weekly a large amount of such as the Editors believe will INTEREST and BENEFIT the YOUNG. The present Proprietors assumed the responsibility of its publication at a time when it was greatly embarrassed, and had much influence against it; but they have great pleasure in now amounting that with God's blessing, they have surmounted the difficulties they had to contend with, and they believe it is now established on a firm basis, and its continuance-with judicious management-insured.

They tender their sincere thanks to their friends and patrons who have stood by them in their struggle. The PREPAYMENT system, adopted by them, has proved to be the saving of the paper. The RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER is published in St. John every Friday. Term, SEVEN SHIL-LINGS and SIX PENCE, ALWAYS in ADVANCE. We solicit subscriptions. Will our present friends and patrons please aid us in increasing its already wide circulation, by recommending it to their neighbours and others as far as they conscientiously can. ONE DOLLAR, enclosed to our address, will procure the Intelligencer eight months; Seven and Six Pence, one year. E. McLEOD, G. A. HARTLEY. Office, No. 20, up stairs, Germain Street.
