THE EMPRESS OF THE FRENCH. (From the Scotsman.)

The Empress Eugenie left Elinburgh on Thursday to proceed on a short tour to the North.

The Empress, on arriving at the station, was handed from her carriage by the Marquis de la. Grange, and she repeatedly smiled and bowed good-humouredly in acknewledgement of the plaudits which resounded on every side. It was a far more ardent, as well as more extensive. ovation than the citizens had had any previous opportunity of presenting to the Empress, and her Majesty seemed to enjoy it ummensely. After she had taken her set in the Railway carriage, she several times looked out, smited and bowed ; and something having apparently occurred, either in the demonstrations of the crowd or the comments of the other occupants of the carriage, to amuse the Imperial fancy, her Majesty leaned forward once or twice seemingly convulsed with loughter. The train at last m off amid the hearty bursts of cheering from all who witnessed its departure.

The Empress would arrive at Perth a few minutes before 4 o'cleck, and was to stiy over last night in the Royal George Hotel there. We understand that her Majesty will to day prose-cute her journey to the North, and it is runnoured that she will spend some time in visiting Balmoral and other places of interest in Aberdeen-shire; after which, it is supposed that she will return either by Glasgow or Edinburgh, and s ay for some days at Hamilton Palace, before leaving Scotland for the South

The fact that the Enpress was to arrive at Perth, on Thursday afternoon, by the Scottish Central Railway, was but very partially known throughout the town, so that a mengre concourse of people was on the platform of the general sta-tion to receive her. The Scottish Central train was punctual to its time, and entered the station exactly at ten minutes to four o'clock. The train was a pretty larg. one, chiefly filed with parties coming to the railway servan's' festival, which was to take place in the ci y hall on Thursday night, and at which the Marquis of Breadalbane was expected to preside. Many of the passengers who had come in at the intermediate stations were ignorant that the Empress Eng-uie was in the train along with them, and expressed great astonishment on hearing the cheers which arose as soon as the train stopped. "Who's in the tain that they're cheerin' ?' was the question from many lips. Small as was the crowd of specta ors, her enperial Majesty was received with great enthusias, and hearty huzzatis, which she repeat-edly acknowledged with a bow and a mile. Accompanied by her saite, she walked through the terminus to a cub in waiting out-ile; and immediately drove to the Royal George Hotel, where she intended to pass the night. A considerable crowd awaited her Majesty's arrival at the hot I, and welcomed her with loud cheers. Nothing defini e is known as to her Majesty's

DEAR SIE :--I feel that it is a duty I owe to suf-fering humanity that I should give a relation of the great benefits I have derived from the use of Perry great benefits I have derived from the use of Perry Daris's Pain Killer, Last summer I had the mis-fortune to lose two of my children by that dreadful scource—the cholara—and in all human probability should have rallen a victim to the pestilence myself if a kind Providen e had not provided me help in the hour of need, I first became acquainted with the Pain Killer whist travelling on the river with my husband. A gentleman passenger had some my husband. A gentleman passenger had some with him which he recommended in the highest terms as a remedy for cholera. I thought no more terms as a remedy for cholera. I thought no more of it at the time, but the same night I was attacked by the cholera in the worst form. I resorted to vari-ous remedies used to arrest its progress, but all in vain. I was seized with violent cramps, and my dis-charges began to as ume the same character as did those of my dear children previous to their death I was looked upon as lost, but all at once thought of the Pain Killer. My husband obtained the both from a fellow passenger and administered to me a dose. I experienced a'most immediately a cessation of pain. The dose was repeated at intervals of fif-

This Journal will be INDEPENDENT in the exression of its opinions, on Political as well as on all other questions; and while advocating enlarged and comprehensive views of Public measures, will ignore all Sectional, Sectarian, and Political partizanship.

British North America is possessed of vast resources and has Geographical and Physical advantanges which are unpara leled, and Polical and Social immunities of which no other country can boast. Our own Province is in all these respects highly favored and we need bu' a vigorous and enlightened public policy to effect a most progressive development. To continue in a course of narrow selfish partizanship, with no higher aim than the petty aggrandizement or pecuniary gain of unprincipled politicians, must soon make shipwreek of all, our best interests, if inder d it be possible to escape from the impending bankruptcy and ruin which already stare us in the face. But we believe, that there is wisdom, courage virtue-patriotism enough in our country to save it ; and while it will be our vocation to sound the tocsin and arouse the people to a s nse of the dangers to which we have referred we will also afford a rallying point for the good and wise of all parties and creeds, who desire the overthrow of a system of corruption and extravagance, and the establishment of sound Liberal and Progressive Political and Commercial principles. With full fai h in these convictions and sentiments-and believeing that the heart of the country will respond to them -we run up our fig and noil it to the mast head, writing upon its ample folds out motto-

I will say nothing in reply to his remarks about the Rev. Mr. DeMill. That gentleman can speak for himself from his own paper. I will only say that he, like others, felt that the new paper was needed and consented to assume the ditorial charge. I think that in this Province his name each Station on the Railway. By Order R. JAB DINE, will have as much weight, and be as good a guarantee of loyalty to Baptist principles as that of Mr. McHenry.

Since the prospectus was issued I have had ample reason to be sarisfied with my course ; on on all sides I have had words of encouragement. More subscriptions have been promised than I ination, and fully capable of filling the "Watchman " with original articles of varied interest. So many subscribers have already come in, and thus been afforded to the new paper is a convincing proof that the "Visitor," under the controul of Mr. McHenry had forfeited the confidence of a large part of the Denomination.

I will say no more, but leave the question to the Baptists themselves, in whose frankness and tarness I folly confide. The Rev. Mr. Bill has said many things in his letter which are hard to hear, and provoke recrimination. But to these words, cruel and cutting though they be, I will jects as " Death" or " The Judgment."
