

A regiment of cavalry is authorized to be raised in Colorado Territory. One of its leading citizens says it will furnish 3 or 4 companies.

A number of prominent gentlemen are now here. Their business is connected with the supplying of arms to regiments in their respective States.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The Post's special Washington despatch says Gen. Fremont will not be removed, but his movements will be so impeded as to force him to resign.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23.—Charles G. Ramsey, the proprietor of the Evening News, was arrested this afternoon by order of the Provost Marshal, and taken to headquarters for examination. His offense was publishing an editorial article to-day entitled "Fall of Lexington," reflecting in bitter terms upon the authorities of the Department of the West. His paper was suppressed, and all the manuscript found in the office seized, and the building is now in possession of the Provost Guard. The name of the author of the article was divulged, and it is thought the publication of the paper will be allowed to continue.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—An attempt was discovered last night to destroy the train due from Albany on the Hudson River road, between 102d and 118th Streets. Heavy rocks were piled up on the inside track extending a long distance. The police removed the stones. The train was said to be a special one conveying a regiment from the interior. It came through safely. There is no clue as yet to the fiends.

LEAVENWORTH, Mo., Sept. 20.—The Times learns that a fight took place at Mariawton, Mo., Tuesday, between 6000 Federals under Co. Montgomery and Johnson and about 1000 rebels in Fairfax county, which excludes Massachusetts. It is their intention to attempt to take some of the upper Potomac.

They had moved a large portion of their army to that vicinity, and hoped to cut off General Bank's division.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23.—Ship Maroon, which arrived from Sardinia to-day with salt, was seized by the United States authorities, her owners belonging in New Orleans.

DARNESTOWN, Md., Sept. 23.—Yesterday, Major Arnold C. Lewis of the 48th Pennsylvania regiment, was shot dead by private Lanahan. The act was willful murder.

CANADA.

A SHOCKING AFFAIR.—On Saturday, as a down freight train on the Grand Trunk Road was leaving South Paris depot, Maine, a young woman approached the train with the seeming intent of throwing herself in front of the engine, but seeing that she was noticed, drew back until the engine had passed, and then, between the second and third cars. The truck frame pushed her partially backward as she fell, but the wheels of one car passed over her head, crushing the top and back of it in the most horrid manner, but inflicting no bruises on her face or person. When taken up she was dead. Her name was Dunn, and she formerly belonged to Portland, Maine.

THE GIRL IN SEARCH OF HER SWEET HEART.—On Friday the girl who was discovered in Hume's tavern, dressed in men's attire, was furnished with a full suit of clothing belonging to her own set by the Worshipful the Mayor. She was much pleased to get word of the coat and unmentionables, and her appearance was much improved when she was attired in a neat dress and cape with hat to correspond. In the afternoon a railway ticket was procured for her and she left for home by the evening stage, and expressing her heartfelt thanks to his Worship and other gentlemen who had shown her kindness. She was discharged from custody by the Police Magistrate, without being subjected to the ordeal of appearing before the Police Court.

The second daughter of Sir Allan McNab, and Dillon, son of Sir Dominick Daly, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony at Hamilton, C. W., a few days since. Fourteen bishops, were told, assisted to tie the magic knot. The bride wore a dress of rich white satin, on her head a queen of the most delicate lace which was a gift of Lord Limerick. Three bridesmaids, dressed in white lace, graced this brilliant company.

It is reported that Sir E. W. Head will leave this country in October. Being going, we believe he will be followed by Lord Marnock, for the purpose of fishing and again enjoying the charming scenery which everywhere greets the eye from that beautiful sheet of water.

ENGLISH TRAVELLERS.—The Honourable Mr. Bourke, son of the Earl of Mayo, and brother of Lord Naas, who was Secretary for Ireland under Lord Derby, is here in company with Sir Lewis Ferguson, and a guest of our city member. Mr. Bourke is a Parliamentary barrister, and author of the well known work, "Burke's Practice of Parliament." We may mention that he talks of Lord Mayo, the future Governor General of the highest rank, a man of excellent and most genial temper, with, at the same time, sufficient firmness of character.

SHOCKING MURDER AND SUICIDE.—A shocking murder followed by the suicide of the perpetrator, occurred near Newburgh on Thursday, the 12th inst. We gain the following particulars from a letter written by a lady in Newburgh to her brother in Kingston:—"Mr. William Asseff, a young man residing within a few miles of Newburgh, called yesterday upon Dr. Rutan, stating that he was labouring under a violent attack of fever, and was in the most dangerous state. The doctor, after examining him, pronounced him to be in a state of collapse, and advised him to go to the hospital, and he would soon be relieved of such apprehensions. He returned to Mr. James Wilson's, his father-in-law. Mrs. Wilson stepped outside the door to speak to a friend—Dr. Harry. As she was passing Asseff, upon her return to the door, he seized her by the throat with an axe, killing her instantly. He then struck her lifeless corpse two blows with the axe; then entered the house, drew a razor across his own throat, staggered back to where she was lying, and dropped dead at her side. Before the family could interfere, there lay two lifeless members. The murder and the suicide. The one was a husband and a large number of step-children. The other a young wife and child. We read such calamities with indifference, when both the parties and locality are unknown. But when in our very midst and well known by many, it impresses us as a reality, and enables us to sympathize with the bereaved. This same family but a few years ago suffered severely from the cholera. The mother and several minor members were its victims almost without a warning. But its fall had not been a slight pang to this visitation of insanity, murder, and suicide."

PRINCE NAPOLEON IN MONTREAL.—The Prince arrived last night by steamboat at Lachine from Niagara. Thence he came into town by railway. On his arrival at the station he was received by a large crowd of persons, mostly soldiers, and a band of music. The Prince was accompanied by his mother, the Empress Eugenie, and his sister, the Princess Mathilde. They were all in high spirits, and the Prince was particularly cheerful. He was received by the Mayor of Montreal, and then proceeded to his residence at the Hotel de Ville. The Prince will remain in Montreal for some time, and then will proceed to Quebec and then to Ottawa.

DRATH OF CAPT. FRANCIS LEVITT.—A telegram was received in this city on Wednesday evening last, relative to the severe illness of Capt. Francis Levitt, who was then in New York. Telegraphic advices were received yesterday to the effect that he died in the morning—18.

The body of Comatius Mariner, drowned some time ago, from the steamer Empress, at New York, was found on Saturday, on Niagara River, and taken to the city.

A man named Turner was lost overboard, yesterday morning, from the schooner "Queen of the Forest," two miles south of Queen's Light—Continued.

Three buildings in St. Stephen, occupied respectively by Messrs. Eaton, Welch and Lamer, were destroyed by fire on Thursday morning—18.
