

for the succession of unprofitable harvests. The extent of the injury cannot be fully determined as yet. Corn has suffered greatly; rye was just in bloom and the most sensitive condition; garden vegetables of several descriptions are believed to be completely cut off; and fruit also must have been seriously affected. Such was the severity of the frost, as several farmers represented that the stalks of grass in the meadow were frozen together, and it was difficult to walk through. The frost must have fallen upon a wide extent of country, and at this time was indeed a public calamity.

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN.

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTH AMERICAN.

Cape Race, June 20.
The North American left Liverpool 1.30 p.m., 9th Derry 10th; Hibernian Liverpool early morning and City London p.m. 8th.
Ship Rockingham, from Calao to Queenstown, was burnt by the Alabama, April 29d, lat. 15 south, long. 33 west. Alabama was spoken on the following day by a vessel at London.
In the House of Commons 8th, a bill for closing public houses on a two-third vote of the surrounding inhabitants was defeated by 259 majority.
Dano German Question.—Conference was to meet p.m. 9th.
The Conference met again on the 9th, and then adjourned to the 10th. No settlement of the dispute has yet been effected, and fears are entertained that hostilities will be commenced.
The Paris Constitutionnel learns that Austria and Prussia consent to promulgation of armistice for a fortnight. It is pointed out that the question of the frontier is recommended for the Danes as the line of the Schlei is first strategic importance, while frontier proposed by Germany is perfectly indefensible. It would leave the Danes always at the mercy of the Germans, hence the line of Schlei is understood to be Danish ultimatum.
It is confirmed that the Emperor of Russia has transferred to House of Oldenburg all claims of Imperial Family of Russia to Holstein successor.
France.—Politics unimportant. Bourne steady 688. Emperor's health appears to improve for commutation of his sentence.
Russia.—M. de Risseloff, Russian minister at Rome is recalled. This is regarded as a mark of the Czar's displeasure at the recent proceeding of the Pope relative to Poland.
Duty upon most kinds of goods exported from Russia and Poland for the purpose of European commerce has been abolished.
News from other parts of Continent is entirely unimportant.
London Market.—Discount demand continues very moderate and open market, easy bank rate is unchanged owing to demand for gold for continent. Funds quiet but rather firmer.
London.—The House of Lords debated Federal recruiting in Ireland. Strong remonstrances were urged.
Russell complained of non-attention to Lyon's representation.
Conference has adjourned to June 23; made no advance in settlement. Fears hostilities will be resumed.
Breadstuffs quiet steady. Consols 90½.

THE SEAT OF WAR.

The following are the official letters of Mr. Stanton, the Secretary of War, embodying a despatch from Grant detailing his operations up to Friday evening: WASHINGTON, June 18, 1864.
WAR DEPARTMENT, 10 p.m.
To Major General Dix: The following despatch from Gen. Grant, dated yesterday at City Point, has been received by this Department:
"The 9th corps this morning carried two more redoubts forming part of the defenses of Petersburg, capturing 450 prisoners and four guns. Our successes are being followed. Our forces drew out from within fifty yards of the enemy's entrenchments at Coal Harbor, made a flank movement of an average of about fifty miles march, crossing the Chickahominy and James rivers, the latter two thousand feet wide and eighty-four feet deep at the point of crossing, and surprising the enemy's rear at Petersburg. This was done without the loss of a wagon or a piece of artillery, and only about one hundred and fifty stragglers were picked up by the enemy. On covering the movement, Warren's corps and Wilson's cavalry were sent forward by the enemy, each losing from fifty to sixty killed and wounded, but inflicting an equal if not greater loss on the enemy. The 18th corps (Smith's) was transferred from White House to Bermuda Hundred, by water, and moved into the rear of Petersburg on the night of their arrival, and surprised, or rather captured, the very strong position of the enemy at Coal Harbor, which could not be taken by force, but to hold them. He was joined the night following this capture by the second corps, which in turn captured most of the redoubts. Further south this corps was followed by the 9th, with the result above stated. All the troops are now except two divisions covering the wagon trains, and they will be up to the night of the 20th. The 9th corps, which at Petersburg abandoned their entrenchments in front of Bermuda Hundred. They no doubt expected troops from north of the James River to take their place before we discovered it. Butler took advantage of this, and moved at once on the railroad and plank road between Richmond and Petersburg, which I hope to retain possession of. Too much credit cannot be given to the troops for their gallant conduct for the energy and fortitude displayed the last few days. Days and nights have been all the same, no delays being allowed on any account."
LATER.—Unofficial despatches show that at 5 o'clock this morning the enemy still occupied Petersburg. Major Morton was killed in an assault yesterday. (Signed) E. M. STANTON, Secy. of War.
WASHINGTON, June 19, 45 p.m.
To Major General Dix: This evening a despatch from City Point, dated at 9 o'clock this morning, has reached the Department.
"It reports that our forces advanced yesterday to within about a mile of the enemy's entrenchments, when they found the enemy occupying a new line of entrenchments, which, after successive assaults, we failed to carry, but hold and have entrenched our advanced position. From the forces of the enemy with in the enemy's new line it is inferred that Beauregard has been reinforced from Lee's army.
No report has been received by the Department concerning the movements of our army in its operations since crossing the James River, except the death of Major Morton, mentioned yesterday.
Gen. Sherman reports that the enemy gave way last night in the midst of storm and darkness, and at daylight our pickets entered his lines from our right to left. The whole army is now in pursuit far as the Chickahominy. I start at once for Marietta.
No military intelligence from other quarters has been received to-day. (Signed) E. M. STANTON, Secy. of War.
Gold reached the enormous price of 206 Tuesday evening in the New York money market, notwithstanding the passage of a law making it a penal offence to traffic in gold, or in other words—
"1st. To purchase or sell gold coin or bullion deliverable and payable the next day.
"2d. To purchase or sell gold coin or bullion payable the same day, but deliverable the next day.
Therefore it is a penal offence to purchase or sell gold coin or bullion which has just arrived on board a California steamer too late to be delivered on the same day.
"3d. To purchase or sell gold coin or bullion in exchange for a check on a bank or banker, no matter how large the sum, or to endorse the credit of the drawer, in the bank or at the banker's on whom the check is drawn.
"4th. To purchase or sell exchange for delivery in eleven days; but it is perfectly legal and proper to purchase or sell it for delivery in ten days.
"5th. To purchase or sell exchange deliverable to-day and payable to-morrow. It has long been customary to purchase and sell exchange on one or two days before payment, payable on that day. This now becomes a penal offence.
"6th. To purchase or sell gold coin, bullion, or foreign exchange at the Board of Brokers, at the Merchants' Exchange, in the street, or in the office or residence of any other person than the purchaser or seller."
Whereas the great amount of individual freedom exist in Russia, or in the United States?
Two Massachusetts regiments—the 9th and 35th, have returned from the fighting out their time in the late campaign of the Chickahominy. They may be said by reading the two following paragraphs which are taken from a Boston paper.
"A letter from a member of the Massachusetts ment with the army of the Chickahominy states that the regiment started on the late campaign with about 800 men and a full complement of officers. Now there are about 180 men and 5 officers."

The 9th left the front on the Chickahominy on the 10th inst., near Gaines Mills, where it was located two years ago. The number who return is about two hundred and eighty. The 9th has lost in the recent battles about three hundred men and nineteen officers killed and wounded, of whom forty eight men and five officers were killed. Only about one hundred of the original one thousand who went out with the lamented Col. Cass, three years ago, now return."

The London correspondent of the New York Times admits that the sympathies of the English people are almost entirely with the South. He says, in his last letter:—

"If England was any longer a fighting nation—if she would interfere in any quarrel, I should say that public opinion was ripe for intervention in America. The sympathy for the South, which began with the higher classes, is now working down through the middle. It is not a party question, but it is of no consequence, since there is a settled determination not to interfere. The war has worked well enough for English trade and commerce. It has helped the shipping interest and many branches of manufacture, and even in the cotton trade, it is doubtful if any but the operatives have suffered. India and Egypt have been greatly benefited. More and more cotton comes through the blockade, by way of Natal and Mexico, and the returns of trade and revenue for the last quarter are very encouraging."

Stanton's despatch says no James River operations started yesterday.
Loss severe in assault on enemy's works on Saturday.
Sherman informs Stanton that he was premature in announcing enemy had abandoned position. Enemy threw back his flank and advanced all his works in front of Kenesaw Mountain, being at apex of his position; his flanks being behind Nature and Moses Creek; Sherman pressing pretty close, but continued rain makes all movements quite impossible.

Confederates place five Federal general officers in Charleston under fire of Federal batteries.
Gen. Foster asks leave to have same number of Confederate officers sent him, to place under enemy's fire.

War Department has issued the retaliatory order. Small British blockade running steamer Syren captured at Beaufort.
Flour 5 and 10 cents higher.
Gold, 1864.

Beauregard reports to Bragg on the 16th that the Federals were repulsed in two attacks that day, two miles from Charleston. Beauregard captured two lines of Federal breastworks.

Forrest reports his victory over Sturges complete, capturing more prisoners than he had engaged. Had sent 1800 forward and more remained.

Richmond Enquirer reports that a Federal force of 15,000 under Hunter, Cook and Averill, near Lynchburg, had done great damage to the railroad.

Confederate troops captured a regular of Hooker on Cleburn's division, with great slaughter, on the 15th.

Army of Potomac despatch reports loss in 5th corps 2000; in the 2nd corps 4000 since Wednesday last.
Gold Board closed to-day. Gold being struck off from stock list, it reached 201.

(Special to the Daily Telegraph.)
BANKING, June 21.
Times despatch, 19th, says: "No positive advantage gained within last 24 hours. Federal right and left wings advanced more than a mile, center gaining little. Petersburg, however, is surrounded and within easy range."
"Burnside's men swept up River on Saturday within half mile of Petersburg City; one more line and the city falls." Herald says: "Burnside's was a severe struggle. He captured five hundred prisoners, and six guns. Beauregard commands the city with his army and portions of Longstreet's, Wilcox's and Ewell's forces. No decisive evidence of the presence of a more than a small portion of Lee's army." Herald's correspondent of Mobile, 7th, reports Confederate rank "Tennessee" and eight conscripts in full armor.

Four of the latter are partly covered with iron, remainder protected by cotton. The Federal fleet consists of sixteen wooden vessels. The Mississippi river. Military Railroad from Bangor to North Eastern Boundary favorably reported to House of Representatives to-day. Steamer Progress burned near Red River; twenty lives lost.

BANKING, June 22.
President Lincoln is visiting Gen. Grant, to look after progress of affairs on James River.
On Saturday guerrillas visited Aquia Creek, and fired round wharf; two gunboats opened on and scattered them. Portion of place burnt.
