PERSONAL .- Rev. George Sealy has closed his pastoral engagement with the church at Salisbury, and is now supplying at Carleton. On his retirement the church gave him the following satisfactory testimonial. 10 Treased a Treasurall bon 75

REV. GEORGE SEALY-Dear Brother : I am directed by the unanimous vote of the first Church at Salisbury, to take this method of expressing to you the high appreciation in which your ministerial la-bors have been held, during the four years and upwards that you have labored among us. Our numbers have been greatly increased under your ministry. As in the Previdence of God you are about to assume the responsibilities of another field, we can truly say we feel sad at the thought of parting after so long having teiled together; and we earnestly recommend you as a faithful minister of the Gospel of Christ, to any people with whom you may labor. We humbly beg an interest, as a church, in your earnest supplications at the Throne of Grace. We trust your health may continue to improve, and that your labors in the cause of the DIVINE MASTER may continue to merit His choicest blessing. In conclusion, we beg to assure you that whereso-ever your lot may be cast, we shall ever cherish the liveliest interest in the welfare of youself. Mrs. Sealy and the family. Yours, in Gospel bonds, (in behalf of the Church.) J. SHERMAN COLPITTS, C. Clerk. Salisbury, March 22d, 1864.

Rev. E. N. Harris reports to the "Christian Messenger" of the 28d inst., revival indications in the church over which he presides in the town of Liverpool. Multitudes attend upon the ministry of the word, and baptism administered twice recently. At Milton the word of God preached by Bro. Amon Weaver, who spent a tew Sabbaths in this City last summer, is productive of good effects, and he is encouraged in his work, and other portions of Queen's County are expecting "times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord." in this beat man t

CANADA .-- A correspondent of the "Watchman and Reflector" from Western Canada reports as follows :--

The church in St. George, Rev. Dr. Davidson pastor, is enjoying peace and prosperity. The pastor of the Onondaga church has recently baptized thirtythree persons, among whom were Lydia and her household. The infant church in Strathroy is being augmented by new converts. The Whittey church, Rev. J. King pastor, have lately added to their sanctuary a new baptistery, and are already making good use thereof. The Park Street church, Hamilton, is prospering. Three new converts were recently baptized. The congregation is increasing so that the church edifice will have to be immediately enlarged. I am very sorry, however, to say that the esteemed pastor, Rev. R. J. Wilson, (late of Philadelphia,) is prostrated with nervous debility. I do trust that this faithful laborer will be speedily raised to health and usefulness. On the 16th uit Bro. John Trenaman, late of Madison University, was ordained pastor of the First Yarmouth church. Rev. C. T. Lane, late of the Primitive Methodists, has changed his views and become pastor of the Second church, St. Catherines. The Eev. J. E. Vining, formerly of the New Connexion Methodists, has also found "a more excellent way," and is now supplying the Simcoe church. Donation parties, eminently an American institution, are just now the rage in this province, the following, amongst others, being recipients: Revs. Dr. Caldicott, of Toronto, W. Henry Jones, of Port Hope, J. Cosper, of Aylmer, B. W. Rogers, of Virgil, and Dr. Davidson, of St. George. May the contagion be wide spread 1 Ministerial changes are few since my last letter. Rev. Mr. Baldwin exchanges Vittoria my last letter. Rev. Mr. Baldwin exchanges Vittoria for Ingersol, and Rev. P. Clerihew leaves Paris for Vittoria. Bav. W. Henry Jones, after a successful pastorate of nearly three years, during which time the congregation has trebled, and the church more than doubled, leaves Port Hope for Woodstock, on the 1st of May. This is an important field. The Literary Institute is there located, and it is a great Baptist centre. May our brother find prosperity there also. The open-communics and Free-Will Bap-tists have united in starting a new weekly paper, entitled the Baptist Freeman. The second number lies before me. It is a small sheet, a dollar a year. It will be likely to have a stragging existence. Our It will be likely to have a struggling existence. Our Parliament is in session, but the members are doing little save browbeating one another. Our politics are rotten. When will our legislators learn wisdom? Your civil war still attracts attention here, and with your success, secessionists are rather fewer or less outspoken. Soon may the great Republic be at peace, soon may slavery be exterminated and justice, truth and right prevail. This is the earnest prayer Yours, HENRY.

We observe that the Provincial Secretary has moved resolution in the House of Assembly " for the appointment of four delegates to confer with a like delegation from Nova Scotia for the arrangement of a union of the colonies, such union to take place after the different Provinces shall have legislated to that This is no doubt the proper course to pursue. Most persons seem to approve of the general principle of a union of the colonies, but do not agree on the details, and it is well that the whole subject should be calmly weighed and considered before it is submitted to the people. - Witness.

The Educational Bill recently adopted by the Nova cotia Legislature, is a decided improvement on all previous acts in that Province or this. Messrs, McMillan & Co., Prince Wm. Street, have placed upon our table a pamphlet of 62 pages, containing a full report of the trial of the Chesapeake captors before the Police Magistrate, as also the decision of Judge Ritchie. It is very neatly got up, and we are informed meets with a ready sale.

The Portland Advertiser learns that Messrs. Allan ropose to increase the facilities of their Liverpool ine by additional steamers. The Halifar Reporter informs us that on the 23rd inst., Mr. Longley moved a resolution in the N. S. Legislature, providing that the Dalhousie act of 1863 be repealed, and also that the S5000 loaned to that institution by the Province several years ago, be demanded. His resolution was sustained by a temper-ate and conclusive speech. The Provincial Secretary replied to Mr. Longley, and moved in amendment, that the House go into committee on the state of ducation. The hon. Attorney General sustained the amendment. Strong and numerous petitions have been submitted in opposition to the Dalhousie act of last session, but if opposed by the Attorney General ohnston and Secretary Tupper, they will not be likely to prevail.

Musical Thear. — For, C. E. Bill's Juvenile Con-certs at the Baptist Vesky on Thursday and Friday evenings were a decided success. The hall was filled to repletion, and upwards of ane hundred persons went away the first evening, being unable to gain admittance. The performances of the juveniles were highly satisfactory, displaying therough training and knowledge of singing for their age, and excellent dis-cipline. More than one hundred children, all pupils of Prof. B., took part in the exercises. We never saw so many children gathered together here on such an occasion before, and the proficency they displayed was the subject of general admiration. Considering the short time they have been under Mr. B's instruc-tion he has certainly accompliabed wonders with them. The spring campaign, about which so much has seen said and written, has not fully opened. All eyes are fixed upon General Grant as the man who is to smite effectually General Lee, and bury him and his brave soldiers in one common grave of ruin.
