HOLSTEIN QUESTION .- The Danish froops had completely evacuated Holstein—including the six villages north of Eibes, which are geographically part of Schleswig, but had been incorporated with Holstein. London Times remarks that scarcely can it be said that peace is yet unbroken. Federal execution in Holstein distinguishable only by most discriminating from reality of war, and is impossible to tell how long even this shadow redistinction may be made to the said that the said that long even this shadowy distinction may be maintained.

King of Denmark reached Flausburg on a visit to his army in Schleswig. COPENHAGEN, 5th .- The Danish Government called out 14,000 reserve troops. Proclamation of King to the army says, "New Year finds you in arms for defence of country, our motto is, 'honour of country,' and it shall be upheld with peace, or, if necessary, by force of arms. No life too precious for salvation of fatherland. From former struggles army retained experienced leaders, whom young troops will follow with enthusiasm.— Courage, not numbers, always leads to victory."

The London Times says the Schleswig-Holstein question has reached a crisis in which the only hope peace lies in the moderation of the great German powers and their checking of the Holstein agitators. The Daily News shows Germany that if she encourages war, she does so at a greater risk than any other country in Europe.

The Dogblodet denounces the attitude of England and Russia, and says Denmark appears to have no choice but war. A report says that England urges Denmark to sacrifice Schleswig and receive compensation Holstein.

Advices from Norway say that the people have resolved to send addresses to the government, requiring it to support Denmark.

The French semi-official papers are decidedly anti-

English in tone.

Address to Napoleon was introduced in Corps
Legislatif on the 4th. It expresses hopes that beneficent results may speedily be derived by France from Chinese and Mexican expeditions. It is very pacific in tone towards Russia on Polish question, and loudly extols the Emperor's scheme for a Con-

The New York Evening Post has a very interesting letter from an Englishman who has recently made an extended trip to France. He states that the real strength of the Emperor's support lies among the common people and working men, and he knows it. He is also said to be on the very best terms with the leading men of the Republican party, and they talk with him behind the scenes. It is not meant that there is a substantial agreement in views between the Emperor and the Republican party, but the latter prefer his equal and strong rule to the state of things which would be likely to follow his death, and the Emperor courts the popular party as an offset to the enormous strength of the clergy, the one main purpose of his policy being the consolidation and perpetuation of his dynasty. In fact, there are but two parties in France, the Liberal and the Ultramontanist or priestly, and the Emperor heads the former, and the Empress the latter. Republican leaders assured the writer that the only danger Napoleon runs is from a conspiracy in the palace under Papal aus-

On the other hand the Memorial Diplomatique con-fidently reasserts that the Archduke Maximilian will occupy the Mexican throne. The understanding between the Archduke and Napoleon is said to be excellent, and that it is represented that capitalists overwhelm the Archduke with offers of money, on

The Daily News says it is understood that the extraordinary mission of Marshal Forey to Washington had for its result an understanding on the part of the United States Government not to disturb new Mexican Monarchy. In return it is believed that promises were made by France with regard to the attitude of that country towards Confederate States. The Daily News also says the Archduke and Archduchess are expected very shortly to visit Napoleon at Paris, whence they proceed to St. Nazaire to embark in an Austrian frigate, attended by a French man of-war, for Vera Cruz.

ITALY.—The King of Italy, in his New Year's address, said 1864 might bring about events, giving the desired opportunity to England.

The Polish insurgents were active.

Late news by private letter, and otherwise, from Italy, gives information of an intended agitation there on the Venetian question. Garabaldi has issued a proclamation from Caprera, urging the people to be faithful to the leadership of Victor Emmanuel. The Italian army is permeated with the idea of a speech. Italian army is permeated with the idea of a speedy war for the deliverance of Venice. During the past winter, the opening of the spring of 1864 has been looked to as the signal for the beginning of a final effort to make Italy free in fact as well as in name, and the next few months may bring us the most exciting news from Venice and Rome.

There is to be a Ouese Exercise.

There is to be a Queen Eugenia, as well as an Em ress Eugenia. The new King of Greece, George the First, is to wed Eugenia, a daughter of the Duchess of Leuchtenberg. The Duchess' eldest daughter is betrothed to Prince Humbert, heir to to the crown of betrothed to Prince Humbert, heir to to the crown of Italy. These young women are great-grand daughters of the Empress Josephine.

At Hopewell, A. C., Jan. 10th, at the residence of Elder Levi H. Marshall, Mr. Benjamin Bishop, to Mrs. Lucy Ann Cole, all of Hopewell. HUNGARY.-A revolutionary manifesto has been placarded in the principal cities, announcing the establishment of a general committee to maintain the independence of Hungary, under the direction of Kossuth. The Austrian government is taking extraordinary measures to prevent any outbreak; but should one occur, a revolution in Hungary, in conjunction with the rebellion in Poland, would make trouble indeed in Europe, and be likely to effectually disturb the balance of power.

Poland.—Russia imposed on Poland a fresh contribution of six millions rubles; of which, two and a half millions fall on Warsaw.

General Berg has issued an order at Warsaw, that until the complete restoration of tranquility, all the police authorities, including the head of police, shall be subordinate to the military authorities.

JAPAN. - Advices from Japan, up to 1st December. represent that the troubles between the Japanese and foreigners, will probably be peaceably settled, but that a civil war is in progress between the Tycoon and the Daimios. Five English regiments had been ordered from India to rendezvous at Hong Kong, and would sail to Japan, if necessary.

Isbra.—The Bombay Gazette says:—"We are now no longer engaged with a few fanatics in an insignificant raid, but in a war with numerous tribes, whose numerical strength, in an almost inaccessible country, it is difficult to calculate."

The Times, of India, says:—"The enemy has been found far more powerful than was expected. About six weeks have expired since our forces entered the Umbayleh Pass, and we have obtained no decided victory. It is clear to all, that our position there is a critical one, and that more decisive measures must now be adopted to save our forces from annihilation."

The Times, the new loyal paper here, says the people of the State are ripe for a revolt against the Richmond government. The Raleigh Standard says the people in the extreme western counties of North Carolina have been deprived of all mail facilities on the ground of disloyalty to the Confederate government. Lincoln's chances for reelection increase every day.

One of the leading New York papers says :- "What may occur to change the drift of public opinion in the next ten months, it is impossible to say. But there is no mistaking that drift now. Our vigilant agent at Harvey complains that there is serious irregularity in the reception of the Harvey parcel. Last week the bundle was lost by the way. What does this mean? We re-mail the last week's issue as the best thing we can do. We must enquire at the General Office into this matter.

We are much obliged by timely remittances from our agents and subscribers, and truly grateful for their many kind words of commendation and ensuch of car subscribers as have not remitted in advance for '64, taking it for granted that they intend to do so at their earliest convenience.

It becomes my painful duty to announce the decease of our senior deacon, Bro. William Tompkins, of Aorthampton, on the 24th Dec. last, in the 52th year of his age. He professed religion in the days of Rev. E. J. Harris, and was baptized by him more than twenty years ago, and united with the Baptist Church in woodstock, and atterwards with the church at Southampton. He adorned his profession through life, and enjoyed the christing above in death.

circle of friends to mourn their loss. Sister Quint was born at Anson, State of Maine, and was a daughter of one of the first Free Baptist ministers of that place. She professed religion at the age of fourteen, and came to this place in 1823; since that time she has been remarkable for her piety and zeal in her Master's service, and as a christian mother in Israel, has manifested the most sacred regard for the cause of religion in this place, by maintaining worship in the family. worship in the family, and conducting public worship in her own house in the absence of a utinister. She was ge-nerally known by ministers and others, who have vi-ited this place, as one of the excellent of the earth. In her last sickness she enjoyed that same religious faith and fervor for which she had been so remarkable through life; and with a firm hope in the Redeemer's righteousness, resigned her spirit into the hands of her God. She settled all her temporal concerns in the most composed manner, and by her request the writer attended the funeral, on Saturday, 2d January.

The sale of the Plantation Bitters is without precedent in the listory of the world. There is no secret in the matter. They are at once the most speedy, atrengthening health-restorer ever discovered. It requires but a single trial to understand this Their purity can always be relied upon. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Back, Cascarilla Bark, Dandelion, Chamonile Flowers, Lovender Flowers, Wintergreen, Anise, Clover-buds, Orange-peel, Snake-root, Caraway, Corlander, Burdock.

S.-T.-1860-X. &c. They are especially recommended to clergymen, public speakers, and persons of literary habits and sedentary life, who require free digestion, a relish for food, and clear mental faculties. Delicate females and weak persons are ce tain to find in ther Bitters what they have so long looked for.

They purify, strengthen, and invigorate.

They create a healthy appetite.

They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent missinatio and intermittent fevers.

They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.

They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea, Choiera, and Choiera Morbus.
They cure Liver Comipaint and Nervous Headache.
They are the best litters in the world. They make the weak an strong, and are exhasted nature's great restorer. The following startling and emphatic statements can be seen at
