Heavy Moscow Over Coatings;

My heart be daily nearer Theo, And further off from sinning.

Let ev'ry day Thy grace and might Around my weakness hover ! O let Thy light o'ercome my night. Thy life my deadness cover.

Beside the sunbeam of Thy light, Let each delusion perish; Christ, I am nothing in Thy sight, Thy all, O let me cherish.

Be near me when I kneel to pray, Or when in silence weeping; Oh, in Thy pure and holy way, Be my support and keeping.

Shine ever brightly forth from me, With wisdom, grace, and gladness ; I would Thy perfect image be, In happiness and sadness.

With joy make all my powers to move, Though nought from Thee I merit; O let the glow of Thy great love Inflame my longing spirit.

Alas! my poor vain self I see, Is but a shadow proving; I'd fain become each day, through Thee,

A follower more loving. More fill'd with Thee I'd be each day,

With thankful adoration ; O Thou that hear'st when sinners pray, Hear Thou my supplication !

Let faith in Thee e'er be my guide-My conduct let it fashion;

Be Thou my pleasure and my pride; Be Thou my love, my passion!

Queen Insurance Company.

CAPITAL-ONE MILLION STERLING. RETURN OF FIRE INSURANCE DUTY FOR 1861 (Ordered by the House of Commonsto be printed, July 8, 1861.) (Ordered by the House of Commonsto be printed, July 8, 1861.) THE usual Annual Return, just published by the Go-vernment, shows that the Increase of Duty paid by the "Queen Insurance Company," 1861 over 1860, ex-ceeded that of thirty-eight other Fire Offices, some of which have been in operation for upwards of half a cen-tury. While the return shows a falling off in the amount paid by six offices, it also shows that the increase of the Queen exceeded that of all the London offices but two, and all the Scotch offices hut one (which, during the year, had all the Scotch offices but one (which, during the year, had absorbed the business of another office.) The increase of the Queen also exceeded all the Provincial offices but two, and was nearly five times that of both the Irish offices put together. Taking the gross amount of duty for the last two years, the return shows that the Queen was the only office which, in that period, had doubled the amount paid. These facts, based upon the highest authority, prove that the eminent position thus occupied by the Queen Insurance Company, is doubtless owing to the high character of its proprietary, and the distinguished liberality of the Direc-tors in the settlement of losses. Gratified by the remarkable confidence heretofore reposed in the Queen, it will be the constant endeavour of the Management to sustain the high reputation the Company has already obtained.

From the Hierophant, Edited by the late Professor Bush. THE PICTORIAL BIBLE.—"The title defines its object so fully as to render any particular detail unnecessary. The engravings are executed in a fine style of the art, and the paper and type are all that the most fastidious eye could require. We are not ourselves any great admirers of fancy sketches in the Bible, whether by great or little masters, and we could dispense with a portion of those in the work; but we would rather they should be retained, than omitted at the expense of being deprived of a great many others of authentic character and real worth, going to throw import-ant light upon the topography, costumes, antiquities, and various eastern monuments, alluded to in the Scriptures. These are many of them drawn from the English Pictorial Bible, by Kitto, and of which, it should be understood, that this is not a reprint, being destitute of note or comment, though provided with a large apparatus of marginal refer-ences.  HAZARDOUS!

 THE leading Fire Insurance Companies of the United States have declared Petroleum Oil, Well Oils, Earth Oils, and sundry other Oils, as highly dangerous, liable to explode, Hazardous, and Extra Hazardous.

 Of all Illuminating Oils, ALBERTINE OIL is pre-emi-nently the best; if burns longer, gives a steadler light, and more light for less money, than any other Oil.

 Albertine Oil is perfectly safe in use, and in this respect unlike many other Oils with numerous names, which are highly dangerous, explode in the lamp, set fire to persons and property—several instances of which have occurred in this vicinity within the past few weeks.

 The Albertine Oil Company are now prepared to fill all orders at wholesale and retail, for their Genuine Albertine OIL, pure and unadulterated, from the celebrated Albert Coal.

more valuable pictorial illustrations. By retaining these, and omitting the notes, the publisher has been able to fur-nish, at a very low price, an exceedingly attractive edition of the Bible, and one that would be cheap even without a single engraving."

From the Boston Uhristian Reflector.

"Its size is a neat quarte, and it is illustrated with about One Thousand Engravings. The type is fair and handsome, and the engravings are select and executed remarkably well. They are so numerous and good, as to be in themselves a commentary."

From the New York Baptist Advocate.

"This is the common version, with references, printed on handsome paper, with good type. It receives its name from the embellishments and illustrations. They are nu-merous, appropriate, and striking. It makes a beautiful book that can be read and examined with repeated pleasure."

From the New York Evangelist. "We have seldem seen a more attractive work, and have no doubt that the cost of the enterprise will be sustained by a large sale."

From the New York Brother Jonathan.

"The engravings are of the valuable and authentic char-acter, elucidating the obscure portions of the text, throw-ing light upon those parts which are understood with diffi-culty, by those not well acquainted with the habits, manners, and customs of the people, described in the holiest of books."

From the Boston Daily Mail.

From the Boston Daily Mail. "This is by far the most attractive copy of the Bible ever published, while the engravings are from the authen-tic sources, and convey an extremely accurate ides of the subjects they are intended to represent. We were particu-larly pleased with the drawings of natural history, repre-sentations of which are indispensable to a correct know-ledge of the Scriptures. When we consider the great demand now existing for books of a pictorial character, it is a matter of surprise that no illustrated Bible has hereto-fore appeared, and we hope sincerely that the enterprising publisher will be repaid for his great expense."

publisher will be repaid for his great expense." From the Boston Evening Gazette. "A new illustrated work-the Pictorial Family Bible-just issued from the press, comes to us in a highly orna-mental and attractive dress-foll of choice engravings from the great masters, depicting with faithful accurscy slmost every topic in the Bible where illustrations are desirable. The pictures, too, are not mere sketches, but are in the highest degree authentic, and thus add to the attraction with which the Bible is regarded by every religious mind, and may induce it to be read by those who are not alive to its eternal value. We should think this edition of the Bible well adapted for Sabbath school teachers, as enabling to explain to their pupils many difficult passages con-nected with the manners and costumes of the ancient Israelites. The book is beautifully printed, and, consider-ing the great number of fine embellishments, is one of the cheapest ever published." From the Boston Ailas.

From the Boston Atlas.

It is full of engravings, representing the landscape sce-nery refered to in the Bible—the different objects of natural history—the costumes of the priests—and the historical events, copied from the most celebrated pictures of RAF-FÆELLE, POUSSIN, SALVATOR ROSA and WEST."

From Brainerd's Express (Boston.)

"This is an invaluable work for parents presenting a highly attractive Gift to their children, and inducing them to study the sacred contents of a volume whose precepts guide to temporal and eternal happiness. It is printed in a very handsome style, on fine white paper, and embellish-ed by about one thousand engravings. Many introduced into it have a positive value as elucidating the text."
