Besides these plants, several fossil crustaceans, and shells (molluses) have been found and altogether, these fossils bid fair to attract the attention of savans, while their discovery by our own talented young naturalists will do them great honour, and greatly advance the position of the Society to which they belong.

Important Order by General Hunter .- He Declares the Slaves of Georgia, Florida, and South Carolina Free.

The following important order by General Hunter, of the Department of the South, was issued from his headquarters, at Hilton Head. S. C., on the 9th of May:

"HEADQUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF) THE SOUTH, HILTON HEAD, S. C. May 9, 1862.

"GENERAL ORDERS, No. 11 .- The three States of Georgia, Florida, and South Carolina, comprising the Military Department of the South, having deciberately declared themselves no longer under the protection of the United States of America, and having taken up arms against the said United States, it became a military necessity to declare them under martial law. This was accordingly done on the 25th day of April, 1862. Slavery and martial law in a free country are altogether incompatible. The persons in these three States, Georgia, Florida, and South Carolina, heretofore held as slaves, are therefore declared forever free.

"DAVID HUNTER. " Major-General Commanding. "ED. W. SMITH, Acting Assistant Gen." Gen. Hunter, having indubitable evidence that the Rebels had impressed and armed the slaves, was organizing a Negro Brigade, and had detailed some officers to train the contrabands to the use of arms. Considerable progress had been made, and the number of negroes at the different points was so great that no difficulty was apprehended in enlisting a corps sufficiently large to garrison all the fortifications at and near Port Royal.

Reports of the Coming Battle-

The following important dispatch from the military supervisor of the telegraph is published in the Chicago Times :---OFFICE MILITARY SUPERVISOR OF TEL-EGRAPH, WASHINGTON, D. C. May 6. To the Military Operator at Cairo:

SIR: As soon as news is received of the battle expected to take place at or near Corinth, you will send to this office abstracts of the same, together with the source from which they were derived, and not allow any reports to be transmitted from the office at Cairo until the War Department gives permission.

By order of E. S. SANFORD

eder of E. S. Sanford,
Military Supervisor of Telegraph.
Med) C. W. Davenport, Assist. Military Supervisor of Tel.

With reference to the above The New York World says:

"The country will learn with profoun astonishment that the correspondents of newspapers will not be permitted to telegraph an account of the coming battle at Corinth after it has taken place until the report is first revised by a military censor at Cairo. Mr. Stanton is evidently determined to doctor the news before it is given to the country, but why he should want to do so is a mystery that passes comprehension. If we are beaten, the fact must come out. It cannot be concealed. If we are victorious, the sooner it is known the better. There is no ground for saying that the reports of newspaper correspondents will not be correct. They have notoriously been so in every instance hitherto. If they have differed from the official reports, so much the worse has it been for the official reports, for when the truth regarding past battles has all come out, it has been the former, not the latter, which were confirmed. The poor excuse that these reports might give aid and comfort to the enemy is too obviously absurd to be for a moment entertained. What the effect of such an order as this upon the stock market must be, is apparent. It is to be presumed that Mr. Stanton contemplated that painful contingency before issuing it. If not, he has less shrewdness than his admirers suspect him of " and and want to below

WASHINGTON, May 17 .- General Hunter's proclamation is everywhere discussed. The Border State men denonnce it, while prominent Republicans, headed by Secretary Chase, approve it. President Lincoln will not probably either endorse or condemn it, but leave it as a military necessity in the opinion of an officer entrusted with an important command. General Saxon, the military Governor of South Carolina, is understood to be clothed with discretionary powers as to the employment of negroes in military service.

Iwo hundred contrabands have been set at work on Arlington estate, to repair the damages caused by its military occupation and to plant crops/

New York, May 17 .- Herald's Washington dispatch says, the extraordinary proclamation of Gen. Hunter made a great sensation in Washington. It is said it will probably produce a split in the Cabinet. President Lincoin has expressed his utmost dissatisfaction and indignation at the course of General Hunter, while at least four members of the Cabinet sustain the General. The President, however, is reported to be determined to meet the issue thus forced upon him, in the spirit which has governed him all through the war, and, whether supported by his Cabinet or not, will act consistently with his previously expressed opinions and intentions. It is confidentially stated that General Hunter will be recalled, and his proclamation be ignored forth-

The Repulse on James River.-No Official Report Received.

Washington, May 18.—No official report of the gunboat affair on James River has been received at the Navy Department. The messages received on the subject indicate an opportunity to do better in the future. The river is now clear of obstructions to within eight miles of Richmond. At that point there is a heavy battery mounted on a high bluff, and the river is temporarily closed to navigation by sunken vessels, among which are said to be the Yorktown and Jamestown, and by piles, chains, &c. The Galena cruid not elevate her guns sufficiently to reach the high battery, which rendered her useless. The banks of the river were filled with rifle pits, from which an incessant fire was poured upon the fleet, a part of which was engaged at a distance of from 600 to 1000 yards of the main

After an action of four hours, the fleet, finding it impracticable under the circumstances to silence the battery on the bluff, withdrew.
Our loss was 13 killed and 11 wounded.
Among the latter was Lieut. Morris, who was bit in the leg by a minnie ball, but not seriously injured. It is expected that full particulars will be received in the morning.

The Times argues that the true test of public feeling in the North will come when the taxes are collected. In the meantime, so long as the Confederates are not absolute winners, they are losers. Whereas, so long as the Confederates are not actually subdued, they may regard themselves as winning. These are considerations which counterbalance the superiority of the North.

OBITUARY.

The subject of this notice, Mrs. Frances M. Ba ker, was the daughter of Dea. James and Mrs. Frances E. Everett, and the wife of Mr. Samuel S. Ba ker of Woodstock. Mrs. Baker departed this life.
April 24th, 1862; aged 22 years. She made a profession of religion, and united with the Baptist church in Woodstock in early youth. When only about 14 years old, she gave clear evidence of the sanctfying grace of God in her heart. Her deeply afflicted parents and husband, "mourn not as those who have no hope." Of her, we think it may be justly said,—
"Sister, thou wast mild and lovely,
"Sister, thou wast mild and lovely,

She had many friends, and was justly entitled to their confidence and respect. But better than all, and more valued by her than all, God was her friend and refuge in time of trouble; Christ her blessed Saviour, and angels her ministering spirits .-"Earth has lost, but heaven has gained."

"Earth has lost, but heaven has gained."

The many who had the happiness to visit her in her lingering sickness, lelt them selves edified and comforted, strengthened and encouraged, by her pious and intelligent conversation. Her mind seemed filled with bright and placid thoughts of heaven. Death had scarcely a terror. Now and then, she thought of its pangs, but its sting seemed removed. Beyond the act of dying, all was peaceful and serene. I remarked to her that Christ said, my grace is sufficient for thee. She replied with much joy in her countenance, "yes, yes, I know it, I feel it."

In a conversation some few weeks prior to her demise, I said. do you expect to be happy immediately after death? She replied promptly, and with evident satisfaction, "I do—I expect immediately after death to be with my blessed Redeemer:" and continued, "I have no faith in the sleep of the dead, for that implies that man has no immortal soul." During her sickness, she was remarkably composed, her thoughts usually quiet and clear, so much so, that she made all her arrangements respecting her funeral, and talked of death as she would of a journey to her dearest friends. When the hand of death was evidently upon her, being interrogated as to the state of her mind, she answered, though I walk through the valley and shadow of death, I will fear not evil, and her speech dow of death, I will fear no evil, and her speech failed. Those in the room thought they had listened to her last utterances for time.

After this, she revived and conversed freely, to the great satisfaction of her friends, giving a short message and a parting blessing to each.

But soon the last accents died away upon her lips—a whisper—and she was gone.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to ween."

Mrs. Baker's funeral services were attended in the Baptist Meeting House, Sabbath, April 27. She selected the hymns to be sung, the choir and the minister to officiate, the author of this notice. The choir was mostly composed of those with whom in former years she sung, in the church of which she was a worthy member.—And well did they perform the part arranged for them. Who will not long remember the words as they floated down from long remember the words as they floated down from the gallery, as from the ecclesiastical choir?—

"We shall greet them again, we shall greet them." The esteem in which Mrs. Baker was held in this community was shown by the immense crowd of relatives and friends who attended her funeral, and as they took the last view of her who was lovely in life, and happy in death, we think many felt as a lady of the choir remarked to the writer, after the sermon, "another christian has left earth for Woodstock, April 29, 1862.

American Despatches

(To the St. John Associated Press.)

BANGOR, May 20.

A combined army and navy expedition of McClellan's army, went up Pamunky River on Saturday, causing the enemy to destroy 2 steamers and 20 schooners laden with corn.

McCiellan's advance guards drove the enemy across the Chickahominy River, 15 miles from Richmond. Federal gunboats were repulsed from Fort Darling, seven miles below Richmond. Naugatuck burst big gun-Monitor could not elevate sufficiently.

Great preparations were making to bombard Savannah. Massive batteries had been erected around it. Pensacola is abandoned and the Navy Yard burnt. Negro insurrection is reported eminent Halleck's army is advancing. Severe

Hard feeling is reported existing between Border and Gulf State soldiers.

The Herald asserts and the Tribune denies that Gen. Hunter will be recalled. South Carolinians disrelish the conscription act.

Confederates proclaimed martial law over Charleston and vicinity. Beauregard orders Confederate notes to be taken at par on pain of disloyality.

James river is obstructed with sunken vessels within a short distance of Richmond, among which are reported the "Yorktown" and "Jamestown."

Confederate fleet at Fort Wright reinforced by the Ram "Gen. Price," and Iron-clad Gunboat "Arkansas." from Memphis. Gen. Bragg reported in command at Corinth, and Beauregard summoned to Richmond.

Vera Cruz dates of 8th announce French army marching on Mexico, meeting with little opposition. Federal Military Telegraph has its office in an old saw mill 14 miles from Richmond. Com. Gouldsborough made an expedition up James River, taking several batteries and securing the ordnance of deserted ones. It was supposed he would be able to get within range of Fort Darling with effective means. In the engagement with this fort, the Galena's armour was pierced by plunging shot many times. The explosion of the Naugatuck's big gun killed 17 persons. The Monitor was uninjured. President Lincoln, by proclamation, annuls General Hunter's emancipation order, and reserves to himself such extraordinary powers. Suffolk was occupied by Federals on Sunday. Business is gradually resuming at Norfolk. Flour declined 5 cents.

Everything indicates that Confederates intend to defend Richmond with every available force. Congress men and leading men from Southern States are there encouraging their troops to determined resist-

In correspondence with Virginian Legislature, President Davis says, "Never entertained the idea of abandoning Virginia and did not anticipate the necessity; thought war could be maintained on Virginian soil twenty years."

Floyd was appointed Major General, with authority to raise 20.000 men for the defence of Western Virginia. Little public demonstration of Union feeling at New Orleans, in consequence of uncertainity of the future. Memphis Appeal's despatch says Gen.

Butler took possession of Consultate offices of Netherlands, France and Spain.
