

On Friday evening a most enthusiastic public meeting was again held in the Temperance Hall. The spacious room was densely crowded and adorned with banners, flags and festoons of artificial flowers.

The Rev. Dr. Gray leaves the city to-morrow for England. He will be absent about two months. We merely echo the general wish in hoping that he may be gratified and benefited by the change of air and scene, and return with renewed health and vigor to his parish.

The city was visited with a severe thunder storm on Monday. Lawrence building in King street was struck by the electric fluid, but fortunately no material damage was done. The wind was high, and extremely cold for the season the last two days.

A great Democratic State Convention came off in Columbus, Ohio, on the 11th inst. It is said that some 60,000 people were present. Valandigham who had been arrested and banished by the Lincoln administration upon the charge of treason, was unanimously nominated for Governor of the State, and Hugh W. Blackader, proprietor and publisher of the Acadia Recorder, the oldest paper in Nova Scotia, departed this life suddenly on Friday evening last.

Another dispatch dated Third Army Corps, June 15th, says the movements of Lee in the direction of Philadelphia have been on a large scale than was at first supposed, embracing all his army, except about 10,000, which remain opposite Fairmount. No doubt Lee intends to risk everything on a determined effort to cross the Rappahannock and assume the offensive.

On Tuesday evening a telegram informs us that an exchanged officer from Richmond reports that the trains brought two or three thousand troops daily for six weeks, and says that the Federal cavalry and Washington Militia have been ordered to the Shenandoah Valley, having left Fredericksburg entirely.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—The blood is the very essence of health and life. It furnishes the components of flesh, bone, muscle, nerve, and intelligence. The circulation of the blood is the great artery of the system, and the health of the channels by which it is carried off. Upon the stomach and bowels, these medicines act simultaneously.

MARRIAGES.—At the residence of Mr. S. H. Hill, King Street, on the 11th inst. by the Rev. W. A. Corey, James Ship, Esq., of Hampden, C. C., to Miss Martha Jones, eldest daughter of David Jones, of Kars, K. C.

DEATHS.—In Portland, June 13th, Mrs. Isabelle Vincent, aged 14 years and 8 months. She was converted and united with the Baptist Church this spring. She leaves one son and five daughters, her life was exemplary. We all weep for her, but her life was well spent. She died at 11 o'clock on Monday, June 13th, after an illness which she bore with Christian resignation. Mrs. Maria Hatfield, relict of the late Isaac Hatfield, aged 83 years, leaving 12 children, and a large circle of relatives and friends to lament their loss. Her end was peace.

At Springfield, K. C., May 17th, Lydia Kierstead, relict of the late Isaac Kierstead, and mother of Elias Kierstead, aged 79 years, leaving Blue children and a numerous circle of relatives and friends to lament their loss. She fell asleep in Jesus after a severe bodily suffering, which lasted six weeks, and a few days previous to her death. At Kingston, K. C., on the 5th inst. Prudence B., youngest daughter of Theodorus Scribner, aged fourteen months.
