Later information up to noon to-day, says our cavalry reconnoisance went out as far as one mile from Bristow, and found nothing but a few rebel scouts.

Rumors are afloat that the rebels are moving toward Point of Rocks or Harper's Ferry, but after careful inquiry by private parties no information has been obtained to confirm those reports.

It would seem that a general engagement is considered probable from the fact that army surgeons have received orders to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to the army of the Potomac.

There is great activity in the engineer corps strengthening the defences of Washington, by the erection of new rifle pits and batteries. One thousand men from the convalescent camp have been detailed to work on the fortifications.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says "our government intends to make England pay for the losses incurred by our merchant ships from pirate gunboats fitted out in English ports. The State Department is recording the exact money loss through this agency of the English pirate-ships. Not a merchant vessel is destroyed but the fact is recorded, and, so far as possible, the value of property destroyed is ascertained and written down."

The effort of President Lincoln to colonize 500 persons of color on the southwest coast of Hayti has proved a failure. Though unusual precaution was taken to contract with responsible parties to convey these people to their destination, many of them died of disease, while others fled to more desirable localities. An inquiry in the facts of the case is to be instituted.

At a public dinner recently given in Richmond, Governor Letcher made a brief speech in replying to a toast to Virginia, in which, says the Richmond Despatch, "he expressed the opinion that the present war would last as long as the American Revolution. [Cries of 'Never, never.'] Well, said the Governor, you'll see. Some of you say it will last through Lincoln's term of office. So it will, but Lincoln will be the next President of the Federal Government—if not by fair means, he will by foul. There will be a dispute in regard to the electoral vote, and Lincoln will step into office again by usurpation. Lincoln, a short time since, in the course of a conversation with Dr. Hamelin, said that he had been commissioned by God to restore the Union, and he meant to do it. His failure thus far had been for want of competent Generals, not for the want of brave soldiers. Lincoln inquired of Dr. H., 'What was the opinion of the Southern people in regard to the war?' The Doctor replied, 'They think it will last through your term of office.' 'Ah,' said Lincoln, 'do you think my term of office closes with these four years? No sir; there will be a dispute in regard to the electoral vote, and I shall be President another term, as God has directed!' Yes, gentlemen, the Governor continued, we are in for a long and bloody war, and we must fight it out, finally conquering a glorious idependence. The South can never be subjugated. It is better that every man, woman and child be sacrificed than that the South fail in this contest."

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—Sore Legs, Wounds, Ulcers, &c., can be cured. The rational treatment as indicated by nature, is to reduce the local inflammation, sooth the neighboring nerves, cool the heated blood, and render the watery ichorus discharge consistent and healthy. Happily, Holloway's Ointment accomplishes these ends with untailing certainty. 189

OBITUARY.

It becomes our painful duty to record the death of Mrs. Ann Stone, the beloved wife of William Stone, Esq., of Upper Sussex, King's County. She expired on Saturday the 3rd inst., aged 56 years, leaving a husband and seven children to mourn their loss. The deceased was universally respected and beloved. Her hands which are now folded in the silent grave, have often been stretched out with liberality to relieve the wants of the fatherless, the widow and the poor; and, indeed, she seemed ready to every good work. When arrested by a violent disease the first part of last summer, she manifested perfect resignation to the Divine will, and bore with patience her protracted illness. She had not made a public profession of religion, but in life was a pattern of piety. When asked by her beloved husband and others (a short time before she died), if she had a firm hope in God, her reply was she had, and had enjoyed that hope for many years, and felt that the Lord would not leave nor forsake her in the trying hour of death. Her agony of body was severe, but her mind was tranquil, her mental powers were firm and her faith unshaken. She left this world in full expectation of an eternal inheritance beyond the grave. Her funeral was attended by a numerous concourse of weeping relatives and sympathizing friends, the services being conducted by the writer, assisted by Elders W. and N. Downey. May God's rich grace support the bereft. WILLIAM H. BURNHAM.

The sale of the Plantation Bitters is without precedent in the history of the world. There is no secret in the matter. They are at once the most speedy, strengthening health-restorer ever discovered. It requires but a single trial to understand this. Their purity can always be relied upon. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Cascarilla Bark, Dandelion, Chamomile Flowers, Lovender Flowers, Wintergreen, Anise, Clover-buds, Orange-peel, Snake-root, Caraway, Coriander, Burdock.

S.—T.—1860—X. &c.

They are especially recommended to clergymen, public speakers, and persons of literary habits and sedentary life, who require free digestion, a relish for food, and clear mental faculties.

Delicate females and weak persons are certain to find in these Bitters what they have so long looked for.

They purify, strengthen, and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea, Cholera, and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.
They are the best Bitters in the world. They make the weak man strong, and are exhasted nature's great restorer.

The following startling and emphatic statements can be seen at our office.
