THE GREAT FLOOD.

The almost incessant rains for the last four weeks have so swollen the great rivers and their tributaries that logs and timber which had been kept back hitherto for the want of sufficient water, have been swept out into the leading channels, and have so pressed the main booms on the Miramichi, &c., and the St. John, that they have given way, and tens of millions are hastening on to the great broad sea. Rev. Dr. Robertson lectured recently in Yarmouth in favor of Confederation. He found himself in the " wrong pew."

The Free Press, Bridgetown, of the 25th inst., thus speaks of the advancing season :-

Owing to continued rains, the farmers are backward for the season in planting and sowing; but the grass every where exhibits a most vigorous growth. Every tree in the forest is already in full leaf; and the apple orchards-a fortnight earlier than usual-are covered with richly tinted blossoms, beautifying the landscape, and scenting the air with exhilarating fragrance.

NEW POTATOES. - Three days ago, Mr. Guy Craig of Phinney Mountain, Wilmot, presented us with two new potatoes, one of them as large as a pigeon's egg. He planted three and a half bushels of potatoes very early on rich, dry ground; and the new potatoes in our possession is the result of an exceedingly precocious vegetation.-Ib.

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN.

The Crystal Palace this year opens under the most auspicious circumstances. Fully convinced that the most liberal policy is that which will render success at the Crystal Palace most certain, the directors, in announcing a uniform guinea season ticket, have put forward a list of attractions which may be truly said to be unequalled for their extent and character. Ten concerts will be given on Saturdays during the coming three months. The Great Flower Show of the season will take place on Saturday, the 20th of May. The Great Rose Show, the German Gymnastic Fete, the Dramutic College Fete, the Archery Fetes, with a Grand Pyrotechnic Display, and many other great gatherings, including that of 5,000 singers of the metropolitan schools, on Wednesday next, conducted by Mr. G. W. Martin, will also be held. When it is borne in mind, also, that the guinea season tickets admit to all the winter Saturday concerts, of which last year there were twenty-six, besides the other days of the year, it will be seen what an ample store has been provided for the season ticket holders during the coming twelve months. It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that the season tickets already taken to destroy his life. No knives or forks are allowed in out have greatly increased in number. The Handel Festival progresses in the most satisfactory manner. The season therefore promises, not only the greatest success for the Handel Festival, but one of the most successful seasons on record for the Crystal Palace.
