tresting upon those who could have rendered help and would not do it. The golden Law of Christ teaches us, "what we would that others should do to us, do ye so to them." How would those men feel, if they had a son blown off in the bay, and men standing by, who could have saved them, and put forth no effort? In one of the shipyards at the creek, the men wanted to leave their work to render such assistance as they could; when their Master them.

The boys have never been heard of since. How deep must have been their anguish, when the cold dark night threw its shadows over them, with winds and waves howling around their frail boat. And how must the tears of those neglected boys, rise up in judgment, against those, who could see them perish without making an effort to save them.

Young McCumber has left a widowed mother, to mourn over her sad and unexpected bereavement, and a widowed grand mother, whose only companion he had been for years. - Communicated. St. Martins, April 24th, 1865.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT. - On Tuesday night last the house of Mr. John Hartnett on the Emigrant road was burned to the ground, and dreadful to relate, he and three young children were burned to death-two boys, sleeping in the chamber, made their escape by the window, and alarmed their father, who attempted to reach the door but was smothered in the flames and sank in the porch, where his charred remains were found in the morning. Only the slightest traces of the children's remains were discernible, so completely had they been consumed. Mrs. Hartnett had left home with a son on Tuesday to visit two of her daughters residing in Parrsboro', and was immediately sent for. We feel the deepest sympathy for the poor woman, under this most distressing affliction, which, at one blow, has taken from her, her husband and three children. May God sustain her under the he was again driven by the approach of Stoneman. infliction. - Sackeille Borderer.

The Acadian is the name of a new paper started in Woodstock. It makes a respectable appearance, and we shall be happy to place it upon our exchange list.

The Acadian learns that on Thursday last a serious accident occurred on Tompkins' Mill Stream, by which Mr. David Bagley lost his life. Mr. Bagley has long been in the employment of Messrs. Gibson : and was at the time of the accident working at a jam of logs. The jain broke, and it is supposed that he was crushed to death. His body has not as yet, we believe, been recovered.

At the Circuit Court, which was opened vesterday morning. His Honor Judge Parker reiterated his pleas for a Reformatory and went into various details. He, also, made the gratifying announcement that so long as he was able to discharge the duties of his office he would do so. The criminal business is, happily, nil-a fact on which His Honor dwelt with much satisfaction. Judge Parker made feeling references to the assassination of President Lincoln and the sudden death of Sheriff Jones and Mr. Street.-Jour.

ASSAULT AND ROBBERY .- About 12 o'clock on Saturday night, four men broke into the shop of Samuel Spaulding, barber, in Carleton, dragged him out to the sidewalk, and beat him severely. They then entered the house and purloined a pocket book containing $16 One of the men, named Jas. Ferguson, was arrested, and taken before the Police Magistrate, H. T. Gilbert, Esq., yesterday; after hearing the evidence, Mr. Gilbert committed Ferguson for trial before the Supreme Court.

COMMERCIAL .- The Province Treasurer is doing a splendid business this week. The big ships are crowding in, and the Custom-house officials are working with all their might. Alth ugh the speedy arrival of logs is ensured by the present freshets, no nt movement in business has yet taken Rev. Joh place, but it cannot be long deferred. UNITED STATES.

The rebellion is effectually crushed in all the Atlantic States, and the gigantic monster, slavery, the primary cause of all the trouble, is virtually dead. Jebovan in answer to the myriad groanings of his enslaved people, came down to deliver, and strange to say he made their own masters the unwilling told them, to attend to their work, and prevented agents to work out their redemption. Thus is fulfilled the passage, "The wrath of man shall praise Him, and the remainder of wrath will He restrain." How wonderful are the ways of the presiding Divinity !

> The death of the assassin Booth is another illustration of the distributive justice of Jehovah. He murdered President Lincoln by shooting him through the head. Booth's pursuer killed him by shooting a ball through his head also. The officer who fired the fatal shot intended to strike the shoulder and thus disable the murderer ; but Gcd sent it through his maddened brain, and he was hurried in his gory guilt into the presence of his judge to answer for his infamous crime. Some say that his body was sunk by heavy weights in the waters of the Potomac, and others declare that his heart and brain were taken tice. out and preserved, after which his body was secretly buried in the ground, and the grave so levelled that no passer by in the future will imagine that the grave of a human being was ever there. His corruptible body after all was of little moment ; but O, the soul that never dies ! !

President Jaurez of the Mexican Republic has is sued Letters of Marque reprisals against French commerce.

It is expected that in a few weeks every dollar of the public indebtedness will be discharged.

The Herald's Washington despatch says the evidence in possession of the Government of the complicity of Jeff. Davis and his associates is such that no Foreign Government will hesitate a moment in giving them up.

aged 12 years. aged 12 years. At Eastport, Me., on the 3rd August, 1864, Phœbe B., beloved wife of Mr. Samuel Campbell, aged 47 years in the death of our dear sister our brother has parted with one of the best of companions, and the church with a true hearted member. Mrs. C, experienced a good hope through grace when quite young, was baptized by Rev. Samuel Ro binson, and united with the Baptist church in Pennfield She was a firm believer in the doctrines of the glorious gospel of Christ. During her last illness, which was protracted and severe, she manifested entire resignation to the will of her heavenly Father. About an hour before she died, while her sisters were singing some beautiful lines at her request, she joined in singing the chorus, part of which was "I'm going home to die no more." On one occasion, being asked by her paster if death had any remaining terror, she replied with a smile, "Not the slight-est-I long to depart and be with Jesus." Surely her sorrowing relatives sorrow not as those who have no hope.

NOVA SCOTIA.

James L The railway policy of Nova Scotia has been placed Abner Jo upon a comprehensive and expensive basis. The William road to Pictou, now in progress of construction, it is O. Ayres said, will cost nearly half a million of dollars. The Shephero subsidy act, according to the Unionist, empowers the Government to expend-$2,024,000 on railway S. Watso extension to New Brunswick, and $1,623,000 in ex. D. Blaker S. Baker tending the Windsor road across the Avon river, and G. Howland so on to Annapolis. Never mind, this is the age of E. Ledstone, railroads, and they most be built, cost what they may. But great care should be used not to plunge hopelessly in debt.

The School Bill legislation, under the leadership of Dr. Tupper, is highly creditable, and promises much effective aid to the cause of education generally. It establishes free schools for all classes, and introduces the element of direct taxation for their support. Here is a good example for New Brunswick. Make men by educating the boys, yes, and the girls likeanise.

Bitter political party strife is on the wane in Nova Scotia. The leading men of the two great parties which have so long kept the country in a storm of agitation are blending in progressive measures for the good of the people. A strain and the people.

Nothing effective has been done by Legislative action, as yet, to give us Confederation upon a large or small scale.

Two great meetings at Liverpool, after appropriate speeches, adopted, unanimously, resolutions expressing horror and deep sorrow at the assassination. Commercial body in London adopted similar reso-lutions, likewise official bodies in various Towns and Provinces. The Americans in London assembled at Grosvenor Hotel on invitation of Fernando Wood. adjourned until 1st, when Adams will preside at Mass Meeting of Americans at St. James' Hall.
