The brigands of Italy are doing a profitable business by capturing wealthy travellers and demanding a heavy ransom. They have on hand at present a millionaire for whose ransom they ask half a million of francs. They lately received 120,000 francs for the liberty of one gentleman.

The New York Times says it is the opinion of every body that never on any previous day was there so much whiskey consumed as there was on New Year's Day, or so many people under its influence seen abroad. The opinion of the police, it also states, coincides with these representations.

During the 25 years ending with 1861 the population of France has increased only 3,176,344, or less than ten per cent. During the same period the population of Great Britain increased from 17,421,000 to 23,284,907, or 33 per cent. From 1835, to 1860, also a period of 25 years, the population of the United States increased from 15,000,000 to 31,433,000, or nearly 110 per cent.

The total losses in New York by fire the past year amounted to over forty-three millions of dollars, against about twenty-eight and a half millions the previous year.

The commerce of the world is estimated to require 3,600,000 able-bodied men to be constantly traversing the ocean.

There are 750,000 barrels of flour stored in New York city, and 11,000,000 bushels of cereals.

The completion of the census of Illinois reveals the extraordinary fact that the population has increased half a million within the past five years, or nearly 83 per centum.

The government of Spain contemplates taking under its protection the negro kingdoms on the African coast opposite Fernando Po, and to proclaim religious liberty in the latter island and the kingdoms in question.

California is a perfect wine vat. It produced one million of gallons last year.

In the city of New York it is estimated that there are 6,000 places in which gambling is carried on, and that $5,000,000 annually change hands in these places. In the judgment of leading New York paper one thousand young are annually ruined in that city by this vice.

An Honest Man.—As Mr. Thomas Closely was passing to his boarding house, 15 Pearl street, Buffalo, he picked up a letter envelope, which he opened, and found it to contain $10,000 in greenbacks. Mr. Closely, when he saw what a prize he had found, stepped into the Bank of Attica, and asked if they could afford him any clue to the owner of this amount. On examination by the teller, the amount and denomination of the bills corresponded with a like sum and denomination given to Capt. Robert Montgomery, of Delaware street, who had drawn it out to pay for a vessel he had been purchasing. Mr. Closely left the money in the hands of the officers of the bank, to be returned to the proper owner. The captain, finding he had lost the money, returned to enquire after it. On discovering the lodging of this young man, he called upon him, and, besides thanking him in suitable terms for his honesty, made him a handsome present in money, and promised to help him in his future undertakings in business. "Honesty is the best policy." Mr. Closey was a former resident of Hamilton, C. W., and is well known there as a young man of moral worth.

A report of a most remarkable discovery comes to us from Italy. An Italian savant is said to have discoved a process by which sounds may be transmitted by an electrical process any distance, so that two persons—one in Rome and the other in Paris—may converse together, recognizing the sound of each other's voices.

Joseph Howard was recently sent to a Reform School in Michigan as a boy, and discharged as a girl. She had worn boy's clothes for seven years without suspicion.

Sad and distressing Accident.—We deeply regret to hear, that the Hon. Samuel Chipman lies dangerously—supposed mortally ill, of injuries received by a fall from a restive horse, on Monday, in crossing a brook. Little or no hopes, it is said, are entertained of his recovery, the animal having fallen on him and crushed his body, and broke several of his bones. This is a most distressing announcement, and will be so received, by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance. Mr. Chipman it seems is in his seventy-sixth year.—Unionist.

ENGLISH AND FOREIGN.

The National Resources.—The Revenue Returns for the past three months, and for the year just expired, are of a most gratifying description, and must be peculiarly satisfactory to Mr. Gladstone, to the wisdom of whose financial plans they so strikingly testify. It may be remembered that he remitted taxation, in his last budget, to the extent of five millions, and he estimated the probable recovery, in consequence of increased consumption, at a million and a quarter; so that the decrease which he anticipated on the whole year was £3,778,000. This would give a decrease for nine months of £2,833,500. Instead of this, the actual decrease for those nine months is but £1,116,958, or not very much more than a third of what was anticipated. Upon the quarter the result is even more remarkable, the actual decrease being but £62,181, against an average estimated decrease of £944,500. Lastly, taking the whole year 1865 as compared with 1864, the decrease is less than a million. It is manifest that if we only go on in this way for the next three months a further reduction of taxation will be made in the next budget, if only Mr. Gladstone be permitted to hold the national purse-string; and it would be folly indeed to take from so able a financier the duties he discharges with such consummate skill.

The Jamaica Inquiry.—The Commission of Inquiry about to proceed to Jamaica is to be a very small one, but may on that account prove the more efficient, seeing that a large body of men often lose much of the sense of responsibility which in this grave matter needs to be cherished to the utmost. To Mr. Russell Gurney, the Recorder of London, has been added Mr. J. B. Maule, the Recorder of Leeds. Mr. Roundell will be the Secretary to the Commission, and Colonel Walpole, Secretary to Sir Henry Storks, who is to be the Governor in place of Mr. Eyre pending the inquiry. There are clear indications that the rulers of the island have set up a reign of terror over the people, white as well as black, so that even the most loyal journalists confess they dare not to comment upon what has been done, and is doing, for fear of the penalties such freedom of utterance might, and would be pretty certain to involve. "The greatest order" is reported on authority to "prevail in the island" at the date of the starting of the mail, Dec. 9th, and "there is not the remotest probability of any further outbreak." It had been stated in the House of Assembly that the number of "rebels" executed under sentence of the courts-martial, exclusive of those who were hunted down by the soldiers and Maroons, amounted to over two thousand. A motion was made for a return of people who had been punished, or whose lives had been taken, but it was successfully resisted by the Governor. Under circumstances, a rigid investigation into the whole of this bad business was so necessary as to be imperative, and one may hope that the result will be established of a far better Government in the island.

Mr. Bright's reform speech at Rochdale is universally regarded by the press as a decided modification in his reform demands, and as indicating that he is prepared to accept such moderate measures as the Cabinet may be expected to propose. Tatata, Minister of Marine, immediately set out from Madrid with strong column in pursuit of insurgents, who are reported to be instigated by Gen. Prim. They were retreating hastily towards the mountains of Canenea. Latest despatches assert Gen. Prim and Carlos Latorne, were at head insurgents—that movement was organized by Progressionists, and that the cry of insurgents was "Viva Expartero—Viva Prim." After leaving Ocana, it is said they destroyed bridges over Tagus to delay pursuit of Zavala, who at the time was almost within reach of them, being only one hour's march in rear. Madrid was perfectly tranquil, but reports were current that martial law would be proclaimed there.

Austria.—Ratifications Treaty Commerce—England and Austria exchanged at Vienna, 4th.

Japan.—Shanghai, Dec. 9th.—Mikando Japan given formal sanction to ratification of Treaty, and ports Ossaca and Piago are to be opened 1st January, upon terms of existing tariff with other ports.

London Money Market.—Notwithstanding the advance in Bank rate to 8 per cent. discount, demand continued full of character. Times' city article article attributes the condition of London Money Market to series of unlimited consignments of goods on credit to America, without any proportionate returns, either in bullion or produce. English funds rather steader. Barings Circular says that American securities, in common with all others, are depressed.
