A Baronetcy has been conferred on him, but he felt debarred from accepting such distinction. The Queen presents him with her miniature as an assurance of her personal feelings. The Times' City article says, English funds have advanced in consequence of less threatening characteraccounts from Germany, coupled with a rumor of nediation of Duke of Coburg.

Anticipation of a war between Austria and Prussia has made a most unfavorable impression on commercial affairs throughout France. Anxiety instead of being dispelled by an elaborate article in Constitutionel, and believed to have emanated from Foreign office, has increased apprehension that if these Powers go to war, France cannot even if she wishes maintain neutrality!

Vienna journals describe war as inevitable. Brussels intelligence states that Bismarek's at tempts to win over Middle States to Prussia have entirely failed. Austria has recalled all her soldiers on furlough. Several of the minor German States have resolved preserve an armed neutrality. Austrian Ambassador at Berlin had presented a spatch declaring that designs of Austria were peaceful; that its military preparations were made with no hostile disposition, and that Imperial Government was determined under all circumstances to abide by its duty to that of Prussia under Federal Act.

HAIR DRESSING !

A dressing for Children's Hair, which can be used without fear of injury to its growth or texture, has hitherto been unattainable. Most, it not all, of the Hair Dressing heretofore sold at the Drug Stores are composed chiefly of oil and alcohol-ingredients which are antagonistic to the

Knights' Hair Dressing

Contains neither oil nor alcohol, is purely vegetable in its composition, and is the most perfect HAIR RENEWER AND INVIGORATOR that has ever been made available FURNISHING GOODS o the public.

Persons whose hair has been thinned by sickness or age, should give this preparation a trial, with the assurance that a luxuriant growth of hair will result, unless the roots are dead, when such an effect is impossible.

KNIGHTS' HAIR DRESSING

Is an elegant preparation, exquisitely perfumed, inclines the hair to curl, will not soil the skin or any article of ap-parel, and is fast superseding the pernicious articles which have so long deceived a credulous public.
