What the "Christian Visitor" aims to do, and what it expects in return.

This is no mere private interest; but a denominational matter. We toil day and night to supply tho families of our denomination with intellectual and spiritual food-to exert a moral and religious infloence over the habits of old and young-to check vice in all its forms, and to promote boly living and happy dying-to strengthen the hands of our ministry; infuse life and earnestness into our churches, confirm all the members in the faith-foster a love for education, Sabbath-schools, missions, temperance, and for every good word and work. To do good to all, of every name and class, and to injure none.

Such are the aims of the Visitor, and what does it

1. The prayers of the brethren, that its aims, with the divine blessing may be accomplished.

2. That it may have a cordial welcome in every Baptist family. 8. That every one who takes it shall pay for promptly. Are the aims not good? Are the expectations unreasonable? If both are right, then let the Editor and Proprietor faithfully do his part, and let every subscriber honestly to do his. We want every dollar that is due the Visitor this very month of October, to meet pressing demands and five hundred additional subscribers to commence this year. The sum to each one indebted may be small; but the total to us is immensely important. Do not wait for bills, or agents in this matter. Hand the amount due over to your minister or to the nearest agent, or hand it in to our publishers, Messrs. Barnes & Co., or enclose it in a note to our address. By se doing you will have the satisfaction arising from the discharge of a sacred obligation, and from knowing that you have cheered the heart of your

On the 5th inst., Isaac McLean, Esquire, of Grand Lake, while on business in St. John, suddenly fell dead as he was walking the street. His age was fifty-two years. The deceased was a much beloved member of the Baptist church, bearing an excellent character among his acquaintances. He leaves a widow and five children. The large and solemn last one of the old Baptists residing at Scotch Town. His funeral was improved by the Rev. Peter McLeod, from Psalm xc. 12, "So teach us to number our days," &c. I saight give many good traits in the character of this old soldier of the Cross, who stood in the ranks nearly half a centary; but I add no more, he has laid his armor down, death ends his warfare. Death to him was gain. His disembodied spirit, we doubt not, has joined with the ransomed of our God, who have through much tribulation washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE.

LOST AT SEA-Joseph Francis, son of Captain John Belmore, in the 18th year of his age. This young man, of much promise, was a sailor in the ship " Hesperus,"bound for New York, and when about two weeks sail of that city he was thrown overboard, and sad to say, the deep ocean has become his resting place until "the sea shall give up the dead that are therein." During the great revival in 1860 in Germain street Church, this young man, then a lad of nearly 12 years, was deeply concerned for his soul, and was accustomed to rise for prayer. In fact, he desired baptism, but his mother thought him too young to make an open profession of religion; but may we not hope that the grace of God was then implanted in his youthful heart, and although death called for him in an unexpected moment, that the gracious work then commenced has now been consummated in a better world! We tender to his fond parents our deepest sympathy, praying most fervently that the grace of christian consolation may be mingled with this cup of unexpected sorrow.

The Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs were introduced four years since, and are a great improvement upon the Melodeon, Harmonium, and other reed organs, greatly excelling them, especially in the excellent quality and variety of their tones; in power and quickness of action, and capacity for expression. Their success has been entirely beyond precedent, and proves how greatly such an instrument was needed. Again and again the manufacturers have been compelled to douand again the manufacturing facilities, until they have increased six-fold. From the most eminent of the musical profession, the most distinguished pianists, organists, composers and musical directors, the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs and musical directors, the mason a mainin Caomet Organs have received an amount and degree of commendation nev-er before bestowed upon any similar musical instrument. More than two hundred and fifty of the most eminent mu-

Fifty five Gold or Siver Medals, or other highest Premiums, have been awarded to Mason & Hamlin for the imnms, have been awarded to season a mamon for the im-portant improvements effected by them, and for the supe-riority of their instruments to all others. Constantly exhibiting their instruments in competition with others, they have been awarded the highest premium

ROGERS & Co. : Gents. :- In reference to the case of Epithelioma of the Lip, in which I used your Ointment, I beg to say that the patient entirely recovered, and has continued well ever since. I have also used the Medicine in some cases of obstinate Skin Diseases, with much benefit. I believe it to be a valuable remedy in many otherwise intractable cases.
